Budget Study At Midway Point; Trimming Slight

By ERIK M. INGRAM

Marin County supervisors passed the halfway mark yesterday in deliberations on a proposed $47.4 million budget by restoring some $60,000 in previously cut funds. (Other budget stories, page 5.)

The record budget, after four days of shuffling, adding and deleting funds, stands only about $120,000 less than the original document submitted by County Administrator John F. Barrows.

Going into yesterday's session on the public works department request, the board had made about $180,000 worth of cuts — reducing the anticipated tax rate of $2.765 per $100 assessed cluation to about $2.74 cents. By adding $60,000, that estimated rate jumped nearly 1 cent to $2.749.

The increase came in the Gnoss Field allocation for expansion of the airport to accommodate about 30 more airplanes.

Elsewhere in the multimillion-dollar spending program for public works, cuts equaled additions including $25,000 to financially troubled Survival Inc., a waste recycling firm.

Largest request in public works department came from its roads division, where $4,119,000 was recommended by Barrows and $4,121,000 approved by the board.

The $2,000 increase was inserted at the request of Supervisor Arnold M. Baptiste to finance roadside cleanup in West Marin by high school students this summer.

Major point of contention in the roads division request was prompted by Public Works Director Ray W. Foreaker's request for $450,000 for improving Bon Air Road in Greenbrae.

Barrows recommended the project be spread across two budgets to reduce the cost to taxpayers this year when several other major projects will be started.

The Bon Air Road project eventually will improve the intersection with Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and reroute the road further away from Marin General Hospital.

Foreaker told the board it would be cheaper to bid the total project at one time — during the spring — as opposed to delaying half of it.

In answer to supervisors' questions, Foreaker and his staff said the realignment of the road must be done to fulfill a contract with the hospital which is planning future expansion near the existing roadway.

The project was approved years ago when former hospital director Ernest N. Kettenhofzen was a supervisor.

The board, unwilling to go the extra funds this year, approved $225,000 and formed a special committee of Supervisor Baptiste and Winifred S. Frederick of the Irate Taxpayers Association to check with hospital officials on whether the road really must be realigned.

Other major road projects approved for funding are Sir Francis Drake widening, North and South San Pedro roads, Miller Avenue extension and Wolfe Grade improvements.

Under the newly formed land development and county surveyor division (previously engineering), the board rejected a recommendation to add two junior engineers, saying one is enough.

The approved engineer will work primarily in enforcement of various grading, creek and zoning ordinances. Barrows had recommended both be approved as part of his countywide environmental protection program which calls for additions also in the planning and health departments.

The land development and county surveyor division proposal, which includes the $25,000 for Survival Inc., was approved for $291,450, or $1,680 more than recommended. The difference is mainly the cost of Survival Inc., minus the deleted engineer.

The county buildings division, responsible for maintenance, including janitorial, was approved as recommended at $864,460. The division has 28 county buildings under its jurisdiction and contracts about $450,000 worth of janitorial services.

The board saved $2,700 from the $86,000 request from the county garage division with the deletion of a new pickup truck.

Supervisor Peter R. Arrigoni Jr., opposed, but was outvoted on purchase of a pair of three-wheel scooters costicg $3,250.

The approved budget for new vehicles includes trucks, mowers and a $45,000 vacuum for pickup up roadside brush clippings. Cost of operation is charged against other departments through vehicle "rental schedules."

Under flood control district budgets, $10,000 was added by Supervisor Michael Wornum to the Richardson Bay Flood Control District request to cover wet-weather drainage work.

Arrigoni, despite requests there be no taxes in the Ross Valley Flood Control District Subzone 9-A, included a 1-cent rate for creek maintenance.

Another creek inspector was added to the staff at the request of the Novato Flood Control District which will pick up the tab.

MOUNTAIN OF LOOT — San Anselmo Police Lt. Albert Howenstein checks part of the stolen property recovered from the home of David R. Massagli. Investigators said Massagli took $60,000 to $70,000 worth of belongings from Morningside Court area homes in the past two years, squirreling it away in his house, or possibly burying some of it in his carefully tended garden. They were continuing a search today with metal detectors.

Plans Set On Recall Of Mayor

A group of Corte Madera residents, embittered over a large townhouse development on the eastern side of the town, prepared yesterday to recall the town's mayor, Holmes S. (Pete) Norville. (See other Corte Madera stories, page 8).

The move was led by Larry P. Weingarth, president of the Marin Estates Homeowners Association, who filed with the town clerk a notice of intent to circulate petitions calling for a recall election.

The Meadowsweet Station development, a 528-unit project for which initial plans have been approved, was only the final straw, Weingarth said today. The larger issue, according to Weingarth, is "preservation of Corte Madera's remaining open spaces ... "

The homeowners' group president said "we have given consideration for some time" to recalling Holmes along with Councilmen Harold B. Wagstaff and Edward W. Colthurst.

It was decided, however, he said, to limit recall action to the mayor "in the belief that the other councilmen will take warning that we will no longer tolerate a nonresponsive council."

Only the two newest council members, Robert J. Flahive and Herber C. Leney, elected in April, who have voted against Meadowsweet plans, escaped the wrath of Weingarth's group.

Weingarth said in the notice filed yesterday "that the actions of the mayor of Corte Madera do not reflect the wishes of the people of Corte Madera. The mayor has supported developers and multiple density housing against the expressed will of the people who now live in Corte Madera."

Furthermore, according to Weingarth, "the mayor has not acted effectively to preserve the open space required to maintain the quality of life in our town for those who live here now."

These charges were denied today by Norville, who termed the recall effort the work of "a relatively small group of very strong-willed people who are insisting on having their own way."

Norville said the recall effort will "tend to polarize many of the feelings in the town to no really beneficial purpose."

Norville has seven days to respond to the statements in the notice, which then must be published along with the intent to circulate recall petitions. Twenty-five per cent of the registered voters must sign petitions before a recall election can be scheduled, Weingarth said.

Moratorium Put On New Development

By NELS JOHNSON

The San Rafael City Council slapped a sweeping moratorium on new development last night as it served notice on county government that the city will go it alone in preservation of open space. (Another San Rafael Council story, page 9.)

The city council, backing its unanimous move to save presently undeveloped large parcels of land in the city, also set for Sept. 19 an election on a $2.3 million bond issue to buy that land. The bond issue would add 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation to the city's tax rate. A two-thirds favorable vote is needed to pass it.

The moratorium and bond proposal came after the city fathers adopted a resolution requesting that the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission exclude San Rafael from the proposed countywide regional park district.

San Rafael, with an assessed valuation of some $160 million, would pay 22 per cent of the park district's proposed funding and with no assurance or proportionate benefit to the city.

The council and staff agreed with Mayor C. Paul Bettini that "the quickest way for San Rafael to acquire what's left of our vanishing open space is to float our own bonds."

"The rest of the county has a couple of hot spots and we have about 10," added Councilman John A. Miskimen.

The council then set the date of the special election and the

Demos Seeking $1 Million Damages In Bugging Flap

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien announced today a $1 million damage suit against the Committee to Re-elect the President and five men accused of breaking into Democratic party headquarters.

O'Brien filed the suit in behalf of all Democratic voters in his capacity as party chairman. It cites civil rights laws protecting voting rights, charges invasion of privacy, and violations of the 1968 Safe Streets Acts forbidding wire tapping by private parties.

"As far as I am personally concerned, there is certainly in every sense a clear line (in this incident) to the Committee to Re-elect the President and therein developing a clear line to the White House," O'Brien told a news conference.

The suit named the committee, headed by former Attorney General John Mitchell, together with James W. McCord, a security officer for the committee who was one of those arrested early Saturday, and McCord's firm, McCord Associates Inc.

Also named were four other men arrested with McCord by police who said they found them in Democratic Party offices at the Watergate Office Building about 2:30 a.m. Saturday.

They are Bernard Barker, Eugenio R. Martinez, Frank Sturgis, and Virgilio R. Gonzales. All five men are now in the District of Columbia jail.

"We know that as of the moment of his arrest at gunpoint just 10 feet from where I stand Mr. McCord was in the pay of the committee for the reelection of the President, where he has an office, and of the Republican National Committee," O'Brien said.

Pilots Are Back On The Job

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Pilots went back to work today, ending a 24-hour worldwide strike demanding stronger action against airline hijackers. The walkout hit hard in Europe, Canada and South America, but the United States and Asia suffered only minor disruption.

The strike ended at 2 a.m. EDT.

In the United States, where the Supreme Court ordered pilots to remain on the job, only 1,500 Eastern and Northeast Airlines flights were canceled. All other U. S. carriers— including Pan American World Airway and Trans World Airlines, which fly abroad— operated normally.

Eastern said it was resuming normal service with the end of the strike and had used the past 24 hours to carry out maintenance work on its planes.

Canadian pilots joined the walkout.

The strike grew out of demands by the International Federation of Airline Pilots (IFALPA) that the United Nations take some action to stop airline hijacking. When the U.N. Security Council failed to take action by Monday despite several meetings between pilots' representatives and U.N. officials, the walkout was called.

However, members of the U.N. Security Council—composed of permanent representatives from the United States, the Soviet Union, China, Britain and France and 10 temporary members—met Monday and planned another meeting today.

U.S. Ambassador George Bush said after the closed meeting Monday that the five permanent members were not

$60,000 In Loot Found In Home

San Anselmo police today were toiling to sort $60,000 to $70,000 worth of burglary loot found in a home in the Morningside Court neighborhood.

They also were planning to use a mine detector to discover if David Richard Massagli, 33, whom they arrested, had other plunder buried in the back yard of his home at 23 Brookside Drive.

Rare fossils, seashells, rocks and scientific books stolen more than a year ago from Dr. Gordon L. Chan, College of Marin biologist, were among "a mountain" of loot recovered inside the house, Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani said today.

Chan said each of the rare objects had been carefully relabeled and mingled with Massagli's own collection, and the owner's name erased from Chan's books.

The house also contained numerous encyclopedia sets, 30 cameras, 13 television receivers, 10 sewing machines, power mowers, paintings "and even kids' shoes," Buchignani said.

San Anselmo police found Massagli hiding in the kitchen of the Laura Ratto residence at 30 Broadmoor Avenue, after the occupant heard the intruder and called officers. When caught, Massagli had a box of foodstuffs he had pilfered, officers said.

He later became violent in a patrol car, although handcuffed and dived out the vehicle's window while it was stopped near Sir Francis Drake High School. He was chased down on foot, officers said.

Massagli was to appear today in Marin Municipal Court on charges of suspicion of burglary, possession of burglary tools and obstructing an officer. He was held in lieu of $2,500 bail.

The variety of the loot in Massagli's home — all taken from homes in northern San Anselmo in the past two years, was unbelievable, Buchignani said.

Massagli, though unemployed, apparently didn't sell or get rid of the booty, the chief added. Neither did he drive a car —he used legpower or a handtruck. After the arrest, neighbors told police they recalled seeing him coming home late at night with large boxes, the chief said.

Scientist Chan and his wife said they were pleased at recovery of the scientific collection, but some of the family jewelry had not been recovered by this morning.

Laird Pins 'If' On Pact With USSR

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird testified today Congress should reject the missile agreement signed with Moscow unless it is willing to pay $1.3 billion more for new U.S. bombers and submarines.

Pressed at a Senate Armed Services Committee hearing on the strategic arms limitation talks (SALT), Laird said he could not recommend approval of the treaty unless Congress appropriates funds for the new B1 bomber and Trident submarine.

If Congress refused to fund the costly projects, he said he would recommend the construction of all 12 antiballistic missile sites originally contemplated. The SALT agreements limit the United States and the Soviet Union to two ABM sites each.

Construction of all 12 sites would mean rejection of the accords which President Nixon signed with the Soviet leaders in May.

All three programs —the SALT treaty limiting defensive ABM missilery, the executive agreement freezing deployment of offensive missiles for five years and the new strategic weapons —are tied together, Laird said.

"Without one, I believe the national security requirements are jeopardized," he said. "I do believe it would be a great mistake to refuse to provide funds for the new weapons."

Laird testified the Soviet Union has initiated a series of

Arizona Denies Miranda Parole For Fourth Time

FLORENCE, Ariz. (UPI) — The Arizona Parole Board yesterday denied freedom for the fourth time to Ernest A. Miranda, who made legal history in 1966 when the U. S. Supreme Court overturned on constitutional grounds his 1963 kidnap and rape conviction.

The parole board voted unanimously to deny Miranda's parole from his two concurrent 20-to-30 year prison terms for kidnaping, rape and robbery.

When the decision was announced, Miranda was on the verge of tears and angrily asked if his parole denials would continue.

Judge Rules Brown Act Applies To Public Agencies' Committees

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — A superior court judge ruled yesterday that the state's Ralph M. Brown Act applies to committees of public agencies even when they meet with less than a quorum of the parent board.

The rulling, affirming an opinion by the state attorney general's office, was issued by Judge Joseph Karesh.

The decision came in a suit brought by Harold Treskunoff, a San Francisco resident who protested being ejected from a meeting of the youth and education committee of the San Francisco Human Rights Commission two years ago.

Karesh said, "All standing committees are subject to the Brown Act and must be held in the open regardless of the fact there may be less than a quorum present."

His ruling overturned an opinion by former City Atty. Thomas O'Connor that the Brown Act did not apply when a committee met with less than a quorum of the parent board.

Deputy City Atty. Edmund A. Bacigalupi, who argued the case in the human rights commission's behalf, told the Independent-Journal today it was undecided whether the city would appeal Karesh's ruling.

He said the committee which was the target of Treskunoff's suit occasionally meets in private to discuss matters such as discrimination in employment. By gathering in closed session, he said, committee members have "determined they can be more effective" in deliberations.

State Atty. Gen. Evelle J. Younger affirmed in February an opinion by his predecessor, Thomas Lynch, that the Brown Act, the state's antisecret-meeting law, did not apply to committees without a quorum. Legislative Counsel George H. Murphy, however, said earlier that it did, expressing the belief that Lynch had misinterpreted an act exemption dealing with

MRS. COOK'S BAD DAY WITH THE 'TV GAME'

Good news, Mrs. Cook. You've just won $43 by correctly naming the star of Channel 44's movie of the day, "Bad Day at Black Rock." The money may be picked up anytime in the next two hours from the trust department of Wells Fargo Bank in San Francisco.

Bad news, Mrs. Cook. It was a hoax.

That's what Chatty Cook of 30 Montecito Drive in the Country Club section of San Rafael went through June 12 when a caller told her she could win the jackpot by naming the star of the movie.

When she named Kirk Douglas, another voice purporting to be Jack Hunt, a station employee, told her where to pick up the money, according to sheriff's deputies.

She arranged for her husband to pick up the winnings, but before he went, he checked with the television station. They told him it was a phony. The movie, by the way, starred Spencer Tracy and Robert Ryan. Douglas didn't appear.

Alioto Wins In Tacoma

TACOMA, Wash. (UPI)— Cleared of bribery charges, San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto said he's going after "substantial" damages from government officials he accused of prosecuting him as part of a plot to keep from becoming governor of California.

Alioto, claiming Monday's federal court decision makes him the only elected official in the United States "with a certified record of purity," said he would file a malicious prosecution suit against former Attorney General John N. Mitchell and other officials.

U.S. District Judge Ray McNichols dismissed bribery, conspiracy and mail fraud charges against Alioto, former Washington state Attorney General John J. O'Connell and his former aide, George Faler.

The judge said that in the four weeks the government spent presenting its case, "I am left with an abiding conviction that a reasonable person would have reasonable doubts with regard to the guilt of the defendants." His decision cannot be appealed.

The three defendants were indicted by a grand jury in Seattle on charges resulting from a fee-sharing arrangement in antitrust suit settlements. In those cases, Alioto won $16.2 million for Washington public utility districts and municipalities from electrical manufacturers found guilty of price fixing.

A jury in Vancouver, Wash., earlier this year found in favor of Alioto and the two codefendants in a civil trial in which the state and several utility districts sought to recover fees paid for the antitrust case.

On his return Monday night to San Francisco, where he was elected to a second four-year term as mayor in 1971, Alioto labeled the prosecution in the latest case "political indictments."

Wiretap Decision Being Followed

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Justice Department said today it has halted all wiretaps of suspected domestic subversives which were outlawed as unconstitutional Monday by the U.S. Supreme Court.

The department still must consider whether to drop charges against several leftist militants or hand over evidence obtained by wiretaps.

Attgrney General Richard G. Kleindienst ordered wiretaps halted shortly after the court issued its 8-0 opinion banning the administration's growing use of eavesdropping without a court order in the name of "domestic" security.

Kleindienst said further surveillance will be undertaken under procedures that comply with the court's opinion. The court ruled wiretapping does not fall under the 1968 Safe Streets Act.

SENATOR SMITH

Maine Voters Back Veteran

PORTLAND, Maine (UPI)— Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, 74, the nation's only woman senator, kept intact her rapport with the Maine voters Monday by defeating a rich challenger half her age in the Republican primary.

Mrs. Smith, who swamped millionaire industrialist Robert A. G. Monks, 38, by a better than 2-1 margin, will face U.S. Rep. William D. Hathaway, 48, in the November election as both battle for political survival.

"Words cannot express my gratitude," the four-term senator said in a statement issued from her Washington office. "I sincerely appreciate the graciousness of my opponent...He waged a most vigorous, imaginative and impressive campaign."

Hathaway pledged to conduct "a tough campaign and to spend as much time as possible in Maine." The lawyer, who gave up his House seat to challenge Mrs. Smith's grip on the Maine electorate, said he has visited more than 40 Maine cities and towns since January and planned even more visits before November.

Returns from 602 of 629 precincts gave Mrs. Smith 71,107 votes and Monks 34,527. In the Democratic race Hathaway got 54,601, and Smith 5,653.

The silver-haired Mrs. Smith first went to Congress in 1940 and her trademark is a red rose pinned to her dress. With typical Yankee frugality, the childless widow campaigned only on weekends, spending just $10,000, had no professional campaign workers, no campaign literature and no television commercials.

Her slogan—one of the very first she ever used—remained, "Don't trade a record for a promise."

B52s Give Support In Quang Tri's Recapture

SAIGON (UPI) — American B52s carried out a record number of raids inside South Vietnam today with nearly half of the strikes in support of a South Vietnamese drive to try to recapture Communist-held Quang Tri province.

B52s also pounded North Vietnam for the 13th consecutive day.

The U.S. command said the Stratofortresses flew 30 raids in the 24 hours ending at noon today compared with the previous record of 28 such strikes on April 30.

The bombers struck 13 times in Quang Tri province along with nearly all of the raids against Communist positions west of Highway 1.

South Vietnamese Marines heve been on the attack since Sunday against North Vietnamese positions on the coastal plain east of the highway. The B52 strikes in the foothills west of the road appeared aimed at squelching North Vietnamese 130mm artillery fire from high ground positions against the Marines.

The South Vietnamese drive was the first by the government to try to wrest back territory captured by the Communists in their offensive which began nearly three months ago. More than 2,000 South Vietnamese Marines were committed to the drive in Quang Tri and 123 Communist troops were reported killed Monday.

The U.S. command announced today the loss of one F4 Phantom jet to antiaircraft fire over North Vietnam and two helicopters shot down in South Vietnam with a total of five Americans killed and one wounded. The F4 was hit over land on Monday but the pilot got the plane over the Gulf of Tonkin and both he and his radar officer parachuted into the sea and were rescued.

Both crewmen were killed when an AH1 Cobra was shot down early today seven miles south of An Loc. Military sources said the Cobra was apparently downed by a Soviet-made SA7 Strella heat-seeking missile.

Flights of B52s struck North Vietnam for the 13th consecutive day, flying two missions within 40 miles of the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) separating the two Vietnams.

In the 24 hours ended at 5 p.m. Monday U.S. Air Force, Navy and Marine fighter-bombers flew 220 strikes against North Vietnam, most of them in the panhandle area far south of Hanoi.

Military sources said the South Vietnamese Marines "intend staying" in the northernmost Quang Tri province. President Nguyen Van Thieu announced Monday a three-month campaign to force all North Vietnamese troops from South Vietnam "permanently."

Hurricane's Punch Fizzles; At Least 13 Storm Deaths

PANAMA CITY, Fla. (UPI)— Hurricane Agnes quickly fizzled in the tall pine country of the Florida Panhandle after it slammed inland from the Gulf of Mexico Monday, but it left an uncertain death toll in its path.

At least 13 persons died in Florida and Cuba from the storm. Authorities said an undetermined number of persons still was missing in the Okeechobee area, where tornadoes smashed six mobile home retirement parks.

Agnes, meanwhile, was blustering through South Georgia today with peak winds of 45 miles per hour, getting weaker as it moved further over land. The National Hurricane Center in Miami said at midnight the storm was in the vicinity of Albany, Ga., moving northnorthwest at 14 m.p.h.

The National Hurricane Center today also was watching a strong tropical depression 185 miles southwest of Bermuda which was threatening the finish of the Newport-to-Bermuda yacht race Ocean race gale warnings went into effect as the leaders of the 177-boat fleet, racing from Newport, R.I., were halted as they approached a 50 m.p.h. gusting wind, nearing the Bermuda finish line.

Agnes, the first hurricane of the 1972 season, killed six persons in Florida and seven in Cuba. But, for some fallen tree limbs and water damage, it did little property damage in the Florida Panhandle.

Panama City, with its huge resort beaches, escaped damage, although the beach hotels were emptied when tourists fled the onrushing storm Sunday. "We've had worse storms in winter," said Panama City Beach Mayor Dan Russell.

But at Okeechobee, where tornadoes struck six mobile home retirement parks killing four persons and injuring 41 more, workers still were searching for the missing.

Three tornadoes destroyed about 60 planes and heavily damaged 60 homes around an airport in Brevard County on the Atlantic coast—home of the Kennedy Space Center. Sheriff Leigh Wilson estimated damage at $10 million, but there was only minor damage at the space center.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Clashes Close Schools

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UPI) — All Rochester public secondary schools were officially closed today for the remaining three days of the school year following two days of racial clashes in a junior high school.

School Supt. John M. Franco said he took the action to avoid further disturbances. The decision was announced last night. Franco said he was acting on a recommendation by Police Commissioner John Mastrella in closing the schools.

Earlier yesterday, Charlotte Junior High School was closed after racial fighting broke out there for the second time in a week. Twenty-one persons were injured, none seriously.

Sihanouk Sounds Off

HONG KONG (UPI) — Prince Norodom Sihanouk, head of the Cambodian government-in-exile in Peking, says he will never accept a reconciliation, a compromise or partition of the Cambodian territory.

In his 35th message issued on Sunday, before he left Peking for a trip to Eastern Europe and Africa, Prince Sihanouk said, "I do not wish and will never wish to return to Phnom Penh to live by the side of the Lonnolite 'dogs'," referring to Cambodian President Lon Nol and his associates.

The message broadcast in full by New China News Agency (NCNA) today said the Phnom Penh government has become so "stupid" as to hope that certain "big powers will have the means and possibility to save it from final destruction by realizing a "reconciliation" or "compromise" between it and the Khmer resistance."

Rain Toll Climbing

HONG KONG (UPI) — The death toll in Hong Kong's worst torrential rain disaster in nearly a century climbed steadily today as rescuers reported finding more bodies under tons of mud and rock that slithered down a mountain side and buried an entire village.

The death toll stood at 90 and officials said at least 166 persons were still missing in the two hardest-hit areas. They held out little hope that any would be found alive.

More Hospital Time

SILVER SPRINGS, Md. (UPI) — Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace will not be moved until he recovers from surgery which removed a bullet lodged near his spine, according to his wife, Cornelia.

Mrs. Wallace said yesterday that the governor would not return to Alabama until he was given a release from Holy Cross Hospital. He is expected to attend the Democratic National Convention beginning July 10.

Building Blown Up

BELFAST (UPI) — Gunmen in their second attack on the Strabane Town Council blew up its office building today on the County Tyrone border with the Irish Republic.

Incendiary bombs badly damaged the Strabane Town Hall recently and the Council moved its offices to a three-story building. Today, three gunmen entered the building, ordered out the staff, mostly women, and then lit the fuse to a bomb.

Despite the warning several persons were hurt. Nearby shops were wrecked and downtown streets were blocked by debris.

A bomb explosion was reported during the night in the predominantly Protestant town of Ballymena, 40 miles north of Belfast, and 13 persons were wounded.

Tunnel Being Cleared

SOISSONS, France (UPI) — A diesel engine today began clearing the wreckage from the Vierzy tunnel in France's worst train wreck in nearly 40 years. Officials abandoned hope of finding any more survivors.

The 2,000-horsepower diesel pulled two mangled coaches from the southern end of the tunnel and officials said no one was found inside. The diesel will follow the same procedure until the tunnel is cleared.

The accident, which occurred Friday night 60 miles northeast of Paris, claimed 64 lives and injured 86. An estimated 50 persons were still missing.

Russia Acting To Curb Drunkenness

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet government today announced tough new penalties for public drunkenness,including jail terms,in its latest step to curb the nation's foremost social problem.

Specific penalties published today in Trud, the trade union newspaper, followed what began as a propaganda campaign last week and escalated to bans on some yard liquors a few days ago.

It established fines and jail terms for drunkenness, selling liquor to minors, making home brew and drunken driving.

The toughest fines were proscribed for selling vodka and other liquors made at home —"loss of freedom (jail) for one to three years for the first violation. For a second violation, loss of freedom for three to five years."

Another Record Out

Teacher Rita Abrams and her Strawberry Point school children who made the song "Mill Valley" a national hit in 1970, have a new record out on the Reprise label called "Sweet Summertime."

TV's Dr. Welby Hailed As Family Doctor Boom

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The family doctor, who seemed to be going the way of the house call, is making a comeback in American medicine because his patients and peers have started to appreciate him.

And television's Marcus Welby also gets a little credit for the growth in both the number of general practitioners and the respect for them, a panel of family physicians told the American Medical Association today.

"I no longer feel that I'm the low man on the medical totem pole," said Dr. Sidney J. Kohle of Valley Stream, N.Y.

"People didn't realize how important the family doctor was because they could always get him," added Dr. Edward J. Kowalewski of Baltimore. "Things started changing when he wasn't there any more."

Gerald Egelston of Pearl River, N.Y., said television's kindly Dr. Marcus Welby had been one of the factors affecting the public's image of family practitioners.

The changing attitudes are also found at medical schools, where degrees in family doctoring were granted for the first time this spring, and at hospitals, where nonspecialists once again find themselves welcome, the panelists said.

Black Will Leave White Neighborhood

GOODLETTSVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—Dr. Flournoy Coles Jr., a black professor at Vanderbilt University, says he's leaving the white neighborhood where his new $85,000 house was heavily damaged by arson fire.

Coles, who said none of his his neighbors "had shown any animosity," will use the same floor plan to build another home in an all-black section of this Nashville suburb. Fire Chief Jack Hunnicutt said the house, which was gutted Friday, was doused with coal oil.

Medical Uses Found For War TV Camera

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A camera developed to give American GIs in Vietnam eyes at night is helping doctors find out what goes on inside the stomach.

A $70,000 color television camera, complete with instant replay capability, is being used by doctors as a diagnostic and teaching tool, the American Medical Association was told Monday.

Color telecasts from within a living human stomach or other "hollow" organs with outside access are helping doctors detect early cancer, small ulcers and bleeding caused by aspirin or other medicine that can't be spotted by X-rays, Dr. J. Alfred Rider of San Francisco told the AMA annual convention.

'WE WERE WRONG'

Southern Legislator Switches On Racism

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI)— When he led Louisiana's fight against court-ordered school desegregation 12 years ago, State Rep. Risley Claiborne "Pappy" Triche thought he was doing the right thing. Monday he said he realized he was wrong.

Triche stood up to speak for two bills designed to protect racial minorities from employment discrimination. But first he said he had to explain his change of heart.

"I know what some of you think. I know what some of the people outside the halls of this House are going to think—'Oh, but listen to that segregationist. Isn't that the guy who offered all the segregation bills in 1960 and fought the battle to preserve segregation in our public school system?'

"The only reply I can make to that, gentlemen, is that yes, that occurred. And at that time in the state of development of the history of our state we thought that we were correct.

"And now we find that we were wrong."

Triche, who represents the southern Louisiana bayou country around Napoleonville, said he retired from the legislature in 1968, ending a 13-year tenure with no plans to run again.

"But there's one thing that drove me back," he said. "I did not want to leave my children with the legacy that their daddy was a bigot and a racist.

"I am not a bigot and a racist. I want my family and my citizens and my friends and my constituents and the citizenry of this state to grow out of racism and bigotry.

"Let us join hands with all the people of this state, black and white, regardless of race, creed or color, for the advancement and betterment of our state and nation."

During the early 1960s, Triche was Gov. Jimmie Davis' floor leader when the Louisiana Legislature was called into a marathon special session in an attempt to ward off federal court orders to desegregate public schools.

During the current session of the legislature, Triche is the chief House floor leader for Gov. Edwin Edwards, who has made racial equality one of the policies of his administration.

Moratorium Plea Will Be Considered Tonight

The San Rafael Planning Commission will meet at 7:30 p.m. today to consider extending a building moratorium to allow Mont Marin and Twelveoak Hill homeowners additional time to form an assessment district to preserve the balance of the Pimental Ranch as open space.

The planning commission meeting will be followed at 8 p.m. by a city council meeting on extension of the 90-day development ban.

Thieves Lift 'War' In Opera House Sign

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Thieves who may also have been pacifists have altered the raised bronze letters identifying San Francisco's "War Memorial Opera House."

The letters spelling "war" have been removed from the building, city officials noted Monday.

There has been no immediate replacement because a city official said, "the climate hasn't been right" and the cost is estimated at between $300 and $400.

Dates For Story Hour

The Larkspur Library story hour series for preschoolers will be held on Thursdays, July 6 through Aug. 10, from 10 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. in the children's room, Janice Huey, librarian, has announced.

An Open Land Survey Slated

The Marinwood Community Services District board last night directed its open space committee to draw up a questionnaire and conduct a survey of community attitudes on open space acquisition.

"The committee was directed to find out, how much open space people want and how much they're willing to pay for it," Genevieve T. Bolding, district business manager, said.

She said that the committee, which has been working on the Marinwood open space situation since last March, last night presented the board with a preliminary inventory of open lands in the area.

She said that tax levies and short term bond issues were discussed as means to finance open space land acquisition, but that no action was taken pending the community doorbell effort.

The committee will meet next Monday in the community center at 8 p.m. to draw up a detailed questionnaire, she said.

Results of the community open space survey will be presented to the bgard in July.

The Marinwood Community Services District board also:

TRAFFIC — Directed staff to write a letter to the county department of public works pointing out traffic hazards on Lucas Valley Road. The board wants the county to install a flashing amber light at the intersection of Lucas Valley and Miller Creek roads, plus red stripes on all fire hydrant curbs.

SPRINKLER — Approved a $500 expenditure for the purchase of sprinkler heads requested by the parks and recreation department.

CONTRACT — Approved a $566 per month contract with the Upper Lucas Valley Homeowners Association for planting maintenance work, up 10 per cent from this year's $515.

APPOINTMENTS — Reappointed Robert Mann, George Whitaker and Wilbur Wright as fire commissioners, and Doris Overmyer, Irving Schwartz and John Bryan as district parks and recreation commissioners.

ADJOURNMENT — Adjourned to June 26 to discuss salaries and fringe benefits for district staff.

Hub Trustees Will Review Budget Again

The San Anselmo School District board will take another look at a preliminary $2,048,704 budget for 1972-73 when it meets today at 7:30 p.m. in the Red Hill School library.

Although the board reviewed the proposed spending program "item-by-item" without any cut or addition last week, Supt. Ivan D. Chappell said yesterday that "there may be some changes" made at tonight's meeting.

Trustees will consider the addition of a nonvoting student to the board, and will review the district's "alternative classes" program.

Popular Day Care Center Figure Loses Service Bid

By PAT ANGLE

A popular custodian and maintenance man, who has been like a father to many youngsters at three children's day care centers in the county, learned last night that his services will not be required next year.

Norman Gray of Sebastopol, who has held the contract for maintenance work at children's centers in Marin City, San Rafael and Novato, lost the contract to a San Rafael firm which underbid him.

Despite pleas from parents and staff members that the well-liked Gray be retained, the Marin County Board of Education (which operates the facilities) last night awarded the maintenance-custodial contract to Hagel Services of San Rafael.

The board acted after its legal counsel declared the State Education Code required that it must either give the contract to the low bidder or reject all bids and call for new ones. Two board members, Glen E. Robinson and Lee C. Richardson Jr. cast dissenting votes.

The 40-year-old Gray, who owns and operates Gray's Building Maintenance Service, had bid $22,680 for the work, while Hagel's offer was $20,640.

Gray's supporters contended that money should not be the prime consideration in awarding this particular bid.

Many children at the centers, which provide day care for children of low income families, do not have fathers and parents say that Gray (who has six children of his own) has stepped into that role for a lot of the youngsters.

In addition to his regular custodial-maintenance work Gray spends many hours playing with children at the centers, accompanying them on field trips and even bringing some of the youngsters to his small Sebastopol ranch for weekends. He also encourages the children to help him in his work and, for the last several years, has provided five or six summer jobs for youngsters in the neighborhood youth corps.

On several occasions he has delighted the children by bringing calves, goats and sheep from his ranch to the centers to show the children.

"Most of the kids even call him 'Daddy,'" said Marie Hendrix of Marin City whose daughter attends the Manzanita Center in that community. "He's really fond of the kids. If he goes, they will really miss him."

In a letter to the board of education, 22 staff members from the three centers also pleaded that Gray receive the maintenance contract.

They wrote that Gray "would not only be seriously missed, but create a void." They also said that, because of Gray's connection with the centers break'ins and vandalism have been "drastically reduced."

Gray himself said today he did not know if there was anything he could do to convince the board to reverse its decision on the contract, but said he intends to consult an attorney on the matter.

$2.3 million amount of the bond issue.

The tax hike — enough money to cover the annual principal and interest of the bond issue — would cost the owner of a $50,000 home $12.50 in additional taxes each year.

The council's initiation of the bond proceeding was made over the objections of Pierre W. Joske, county parks and recreation director, who warned that if the city issued $2 million in bonds "it would cost $4 million before you paid them off.

"Open space does not respect city boundaries," Joske said.

Councilmen agreed that the city would cooperate with the countywide district on overlapping open space parcels.

The council directed staff to develop an open space priority list, then turned its attention to an urgency moratorium ordinance and adopted the measure in short order.

The action bans development on any undeveloped parcel of two acres or more, or on any five undeveloped adjoining parcels, regardless of acreage. The ban, which includes all grading, excavation, filling and piling work — applies regardless of current regulations or zoning.

Lands on which development plans have been approved within the past 18 months, or where building permits have already been approved, are exempt from the measure.

The urgency moratorium — which runs for four months but may be extended for up to two years — was enacted to allow the city time to revise its general plan and zoning, slope and subdivision ordinances.

"At the time the 1966 general plan was developed, much less thought and concern existed in the community at large for such items as the preservation of open areas and degree of density," said City Mgr. James H. McCown.

McCown said state law requires that the city's general plan and its zoning ordinance be updated and "in conformity to one another" by January 1973. He pointed out that while the general plan would allow some 1,800 units on a 148-acre parcel near Smith Ranch Airport, the zoning of the site is unclassified.

Planning Director Herbert G. Hotchner said action was just "another protective layer" between the city and any proposed development. "Unless a developer can demonstrate that what he proposes is harmonious with our as yet unformed general plan, he can't get a use permit," he said.

Although Hotchner said that a "new development could be approved tomorrow," the city's ban action effectively puts a lid on all large parcel development until the general plan is revised.

The council authorized the soliciting of proposals from planning consultant firms for the general plan work, and then unanimously adopted the ban action — an across-the-board zoning measure entitled "general plan conflict combined district."

"I am pleased to note that the Justice Department may take this case before a grand jury," O'Brien said. "But I was appalled to hear that John Mitchell, a former attorney general who is now Mr. Nixon's campaign manager, tried immediately to make it appear that James McCord's employment by the Nixon re-election committee ended some months ago.

O'Brien charged "it's apparent to us now that there's been more than one incident. There are indications that this has been a continuing, long term activity."

He said the Democratic National Committee had information that a group of up to nine individuals, including some of the five arrested, were located in the Watergate Hotel between May 26-29.

Opens On Thursday

A headline in yesterday's Independent-Journal incorrectly stated that the Sonoma-Marin Fair opens Thursday. The fair opens Wednesday, as the accompanying article correctly said.

Warrant Issued In Attack Case

A bench warrant has been issued for the arrest of Jerry Amos Smith, 18, of Santa Venetia, who failed to appear in Marin Municipal Court on a charge of assaulting a sheriff's deputy with a knife. Bail on the warrant was set at $1,000.

Smith was arrested June 2 by sheriff's deputies who went to his home at 827 Hacienda Way to quiet a disturbance. Smith reacted by fending off two deputies with a knife, according to the officers.

He threw a knife at one deputy in the living room, but missed by about two feet, then rearmed himself and fled into the bedroom, but missed.

Smith surrendered only after being maced and tear gassed, deputies said.

IFALPA has threatened further strikes if the United Nations does not agree on some sort of international solution to the problem.

While most U.S. passengers were not inconvenienced, flights in Europe came almost to a standstill except in the Arab countries, where officials claimed the strike had "political implications," and in the Soviet Union, where the strike was ignored.

Paris' big Orly field was all but deserted, as were Rome's Leonardo da Vinci and Tel Aviv's Lod. The British Airline Pilots Association left it up to its members whether to fly or not and only 154 of 522 scheduled flights on British carriers left London's Heathrow airport.

Other airports that had almost no traffic were in Stockholm, Madrid, Brussels, Athens, Johannesburg, Belgrade, Zurich, Vienna and Frankfurt. Lisbon operated normally, as did Warsaw, which reported only one cancellation.

In Latin America, Mexico City closed its airport for the day, as did Montevideo, Willemstad and Caracas. In Buenos Aires, a bomb scare delayed the first of a small number of scheduled flights and in Panama City flights went out as scheduled.

Asia suffered little disruption. Japan Air Lines did not join the strike, nor did pilots in Australia or Vietnam. However, pilots for Air India and Air Ceylon joined the strike.

More Winners At Sunday Show

Antique car clubs, San Rafael Antique Car Club; 4-H floats; Point Reyes-Olema 4-H Club; club floats, Girl Scouts; commercial floats, Petaluma Cooperative Creamery.

Majorette over 16, Ramona Ann Winter; Majorette group under 12, Mindy Marionettes; Majorette groups 12-16, Vanettes Rockets; lady's drum corps, St. Mary's Chinese Drum Corps; senior pipe band, Cameron of San Francisco; junior pipe band, San Francisco Boy Scouts; ladies pipe band, Prince Charles Pipe Band.

Boy Condition Good After Pool Mishap

Mark Israel, 15, of 264 Via La Cumbre, Greenbrae, was reported in good condition today in Marin General Hospital, where he is being treated for a skull fracture suffered in a swimming pool accident Sunday morning.

Hospital spokesmen said Israel would go home today or tomorrow. No details of the accident were available.

tests of sophisticated new weapons, apparently since the President's return from the Soviet Union.

The Russian testing disclosed by Laird was not covered by the strategic arms limitation treaty Nixon signed in Moscow in May.

But Laird pointed to the new testing as underscoring his contention that U.S. spending in areas not covered by the treaty and other accords must increase by $1.3 billion this year.

The money he seeks is chiefly for a new strategic bomber and a new submarine system which would be put into service in the late 1970s.

"Peace cannot be bought cheaply," Laird told the Senate Armed Services Committee, meeting to consider Senate ratification of the arms treaty.

Laird touched on the new Soviet testing in only one paragraph of a prepared statement he read to the committee. He said:

"During the past several weeks, the Soviet Union has been conducting a series of tests involving new ballistic missile programs, including multiple warhead technology. In addition, continued testing of existing systems is moving ahead."

That choice of language left unclear whether the Russians were testing a MRV (Multiple Re-entry Vehicle) or a MIRV (Multiple Independently Targetable Re-entry Vehicle).

In the case of MRVs, a single missile can carry several warheads to a target. With MIRVs, each of the multiple warheads can be aimed at a different target if desired.

The Soviets are known to have deployed MRV's in their huge SS9 missiles. But Soviet testing of a MIRV would be a new develolment.

The United States has MRV's in its Polaris submarines and Minuteman I missiles. It has completed testing of the MIRV and is deploying them in the new Poseidon submarine and Minuteman III warheads.

Mill Valley Pair Jailed In Gun Theft

Two Mill Valley residents have been arrested on suspicion of possession of stolen property after allegedly being seen by police with antique weapons stolen yesterday from a Mill Valley home.

Kevin P. Quinn, 18, and Thomas K. Lester, 19, both of 180 Cascade Drive, were arrested near the Del Casa Drive home of Andrew Goodard, police reported.

Goddard had reported earlier that his weapons collection of more than 30 guns, knives, swords and shells had been taken from his home between 1:20 p.m. and 4:45 p.m.

Police found the missing collection in woods near the Goddard home and remained to stake out the area. At about 8:50 p.m., according to a police account, Lester and Quinn showed up.

Lester was additionally booked on suspicion of possessing marijuana, said to have been found in his car nearby.

Bail was set at $1,000 for Quinn and $1,500 for Lester. Both remained in jail to appear in Marin Municipal Court today.

Schedule Changes For Buses On Tap

Changes in schedules and routes for local bus service in Marin will be presented to the Golden Gate Bridge District's transportation committee at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in toll plaza offices.

Also on the agenda is a request for bicycle racks at Marin and Sonoma bus stops and a proposal to route more midday buses in San Francisco via downtown instead of via the Civic Center. The change would encourage shoppers to use midday buses, according to the district's staff.

Vote Light For Reed Trustees

Voter turnout today for the Reed School District trustee election between Charles Patterson and Mark Noble was extremely light as of 11 a.m.

At the Granada School, where 476 voters are registered, only 26 had voted, according to an Independent-Journal survey.

Even fewer voters, 12 out of 584, had voted at the Reed School polling place.

A total of 7,652 registered voters are eligible to vote in the special election to fill the board seat vacated by James B. Richwagen.

The polls are open until 8 p.m.

Subdivision Rezoning Approved

The Rohnert Park City Council last night approved rezoning 75 acres for a future subdivision.

City Clerk Kathryn Logue said the council approved the rezoning request of Forhim Corp. by a 3-2 vote with Louis Beary and Vernon Smith dissenting. Both said plans should be delayed until the area master plan for California State College, Sonoma, is final.

Plans include 270 homes, a school site, bicycle paths, neighborhood parks and a series of miniparks.

The Rohnert Park City Council also:

SNYDER LANE — Approved plans to reconstruct and widen Snyder Lane between Southwest Boulevard and East Cotati Avenue. City Mgr. Peter M. Callinan estimated project cost at $30,000 and said the County of Sonoma may pay half.

COLLEGE — Approved a resolution urging that the projected ultimate enrollment at California State College, Sonoma, be reduced from 12,000 to 10,000 students and that local residents be given preference for admission.

RECREATION — Accepted the resignation of Ronald Rasmussen from the recreation commission and named Richard Driggs as his successor. The other six commissioners were reappointed.

FURNITURE — Authorized the purchase of $6,500 in furniture for the city office building under construction.

MEETINGS — Set a joint meeting with the recreation commission for June 27 at 7:30 p.m. and with the planning commission the same day at 8:30 p.m.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, who had sought Younger's opinion, said through a spokesman today he would ask the attorney general's office to take another look at the issue in view of Karesh's decision.

The San Francisco-Oakland Newspaper Guild had entered a brief before Karesh supporting Treskunoff, a waiter who has run unsuccessfully for supervisor, lieutenant governor and mayor.

Ferry Rescues 7 From Yacht

The Golden Gate ferry boat made an unscheduled stop on the 5:30 p.m. commute run yesterday, rescuing seven persons from a sinking yacht.

The seven East Bay residents were delivered to the Sausalito ferry terminal. The Coast Guard kept their 27-foot cabin cruiser afloat and took it to Clipper Yacht Harbor for repairs.

The boat was the "Seaducer," owned by Joseph Domino of San Leandro, the Coast Guard reported. It apparently lost its rudder and water started pouring in through the rudder post hole.

Stanley Koleski of the Golden Gate Bridge District said the ferry was delayed 10 to 15 minutes by the rescue. He said the unscheduled passengers weren't charged fare.

MIRANDA

"It's senseless for me to appear here every six months if it is just going to end in frustration each time," he said.

Board member Keith Edwards told Miranda, "as far as I'm concerned I wouldn't say you'd be denied in the future, but we felt we should turn you down now."

During his hearing earlier in the day, Miranda told the board he has graduated from drafting school at the State Prison and that he felt he was rehabilitated.

Miranda was convicted in 1963 of the kidnap and rape of an 18-year-old Phoenix, Ariz., woman and was sentenced to 20 to 30 years in prison.

In June of 1966 the U. S. Supreme Court voted 5-4 to overturn the conviction and vacate the sentence on grounds that police had not advised Miranda of his rights to remain silent before he made a confession.

The court also ruled that police had not advised him that he was allowed to have an attorney present while being questioned.

Miranda was retried in Phoenix in March of 1967 on the charges and again was convicted and sentenced to 20 to 30 years in prison.

Last September he was tried on a 1962 robbery charge, convicted and sentenced to a 20 to 25-year prison term to run concurrently with his first sentence.

He has been in prison since 1963 and with Monday's ruling it will be at least December before he has another chance for parole.

Court Date For Armed Robbery

A 21-year-old San Francisco man charged with robbing a motorist who gave him a ride has been bound over to Marin Superior Court to appear tomorrow.

Steve John Pappas was arrested May 2 on a warrant charging him with the armed robbery of Thomas Scott Robertson of Tiburon in the Larkspur Canyon on April 15.

Robertson picked out Pappas's picture when Larskpur police asked him to identify the hitchhiker who threatened him with a knife and a gun while another hitchhiker took $75 from him after forcing him to drive up Baltimore Canyon.

Novato Rock Concert Friday

The Novato Youth Commission and the Novato Parks and Recreation Department will present a two-band rock concert to start the summer youth program at 8 p.m. Friday at The Church in Ignacio, 400 Ignacio Boulevard.

Featured will be The Burgess Brother and The Riot. Rev. Joseph Kennedy, church minister, and members of the youth commission and city recreation staff will be present to answer questions about the summer program.

Innocent Plea To Grand Theft

A 27-year-old Oakland man charged with the grand theft of $1,500 in painting equipment from a San Rafael paint company pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Municipal Court.

A preliminary hearing for Floyd Everett Raley was set for June 27.

Raley was arrested last week on a warrant charging he had taken the equipment — a pump, hose and a tape machine — from the Frank Fullam Painting Co., 77 Larkspur Street, on March 24.

OBITUARIES

Petaluman Killed In Jet Crash

Recycling Firm Gets Boost From County

The Marin County Board of Supervisors agreed yesterday to pump $25,000 into a near-bankrupt recycling firm provided its youthful promoters can keep it afloat another year. (Another story on the supervisors and the budget, page 1).

Directors of Survival Inc., who had requested nearly $140,000 in county aid, expressed doubt that the 15-month-old business could continue operating at full steam if given less than $45,000.

"But we'll take whatever you give us," said executive director Roger Bockrath, adding that some of the firm's five collection depots may have to close.

Board approval of the $25,000 taxpayers' subsidy came as supervisors resumed hearings on the record $47.4 million budget proposed for fiscal 1972-73.

In a related action, the board approved unanimously a $5,000 grant to the Marin Ecology Center, which hopes to receive a like amount in matching funds from the National Ecology Foundation.

The ecology center will then establish a centrally located educational-informational headquarters to "educate the public" on the values of recycling.

Survival Inc., which operates collection depots on five local high school campuses, was awarded a $7,800 county grant earlier this year to see it through June.

When supervisors approved the first grant, spokesmen for the recycling firm indicated they would return during budget hearings with a proposal for about $40,000.

The supervisors, after confessing some ignorance on the future of "solid waste management," formed a special committee headed by Public Works Director Ray W. Foreaker Jr. to delve further into the matter.

Foreaker told the board yesterday his group had been unable to recommend a specific course of action other than formation of a permanent committee.

Bockrath, in outlining the new $140,000 proposal, told the board the total amount would provide funds for a full scale campaign to inform Marin residents of the need for recycling.

Not only recycling, he said, but the need to purchase products in reusable containers, thus doing away with the need for recycling.

Survival Inc. drew opposition from Joseph Garbarino of the Marin Sanitary Service who maintained recycling in Marin would never be feasible unless expensive equipment were installed.

He urged the board to "save the taxpayers money" by rejecting Survival's proposal and instead work with various sanitary firms in acquiring and placing a $250,000 recycling machine at the Novato land fill.

If the county could require all garbage be dumped at the Novato site, he said, the sanitary firms could economically purchase the needed machinery and recycle about 8 per cent of the county's garbage.

Survival Inc., he continued, even with $140,000, could hardly scratch the surface of recycling Marin's solid waste.

"It would be better to put that money into open space and preserve something" than give it to Survival Inc., concluded Garbarino, also a member of the special county committee studying recycling.

Bockrath, joined by his associate, John Van Daam, countered that their goal wasn't recycling as such but rather informing the public — using recycling as a means.

In approving the $25,000 grant, supervisors said the funds were not to be released from county coffers until Survival had submitted an outline for specific use of the funds and signed a contract.

Supervisors Cut Landscape Fund At Civic Center

Is the late Frank Lloyd Wright too expensive for Marin County?

After pouring millions of dollars and years of time into the late architect's controversial Marin County Civic Center, supervisors agreed yesterday maybe he was — or is.

Cause of the board's latest reflection is a $600,000 price tag set by the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation to complete landscaping around the Hall of Justice over the next three years.

"It's too expensive," commented Supervisor Arnold M. Baptiste.

"I won't go for it," agreed Peter R. Arrigoni Jr., board chairman.

"I've been at the point for some time of saying 'to hell with the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation' and getting a new landscape architect," added Supervisor Michael Wornum.

While things fell short of Wornum's sarcastic proposal, the board after some 30 minutes of discussion on the philosophy behind the architect's design unanimously agreed to slash next year's landscaping allocation from $254,000 to about $165,000 and seek advice on cutting corners in the future.

"I think we should cease and desist with plans for formal landscaping and go more to a natural setting," said Baptiste, adding that cheaper indigenous trees and shrubbery would better carry the theme of the buildings, as opposed to more exotic plants.

At his urging, the board referred the matter for further study to Pierre W. Joske, director of parks and recreation.

County Administrator John F. Barrows said the foundation, while demanding high standards of landscaping, had yet to provide plans which were due in 1965.

Another major civic center improvement in the budget was continued to today to give the board an opportunity to tour the hall of justice and administration building before voting on $288,000 to remodel and finish certain parts of the buildings.

New Commander For Squadron

Lt. Col. Philip S. Prince has assumed command of the 41st Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base, according to the base public information office.

Prince recently arrived at Hamilton from Scott Air Force Base, Ill., where he served as director of research and equipment development planning at aerospace rescue and recovery headquarters.

Prince, a member of the Air Force since 1954, is a native of Monterey Park, Los Angeles.

He attended the Air Command and Staff College at Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala., in 1968 and during the same period earned a master's degree in political science at Auburn University.

Supervisors Agree To Plans For Gnoss Field Expansion

Marin County aviators won approval yesterday from county supervisors for expansion of Gnoss Field near Novato to accommodate parking for another 30 airplanes.

The action, approved on a 2-1 vote, was recommended by Public Works Director Ray W. Foreaker Jr. as a compromise between a more expensive project uupported by the county's aviation commission and no project at all, the recommendation of County Administrator John F. Barrows.

Foreaker's proposal, to fill and pave about three acres adjacent to the airfield, drew opposition from Cpairman Peter R. Arrigoni Jr., who joined Barrows in questioning the "cost-benefit" value to taxpayers.

"I can't see $60,000 for something that will benefit 1 per cent of the (county's) population," Arrigoni said after the meeting.

Supervisors Arnold M. Baptiste and Michael Wornum differed, however, both maintaining the airport should be expanded a little each year. (Supervisors John F. McInnis and Louis H. Baar were absent.)

Consideration of the airport expansion project came as supervisors struggled through their fourth day of hearings on the county's proposed $47.4 million budget submitted by Barrows.

As outlined by Foreaker — himself an aviator — the improvement project could draw about $40,000 in federal grants and much less than the $270,000 project proposed by the aviation commission.

The aviation commission's proposal, which got no support from the supervisors, called for filling and paving seven acres.

Foreaker, who noted that some of the paved area could be leased for construction of private hangers, said that if the county budgeted the funds, free fill could be acquired from the spoils of the Novato bypass project.

William W. Schwarzer, chairman of the aviation commission, voiced support for Foreaker's proposal after getting nowhere with the larger $270,000 proposal.

Schwarzer said figures showed that there was a "cost-benefit" ratio to expansion since the added parking spaces would bring in more than $6,000 per year.

Another $6,000 could be derived from indirect revenues such as sales and gas taxes paid by airplane owners for a total 20 per cent per year return on the original $60,000 investment, he said.

With Arrigoni dissenting, the board approved a total budget for Gnoss Field of about $203,000 — half of which will be covered by operational revenues and federal grants. Supervisors approved a total of $80,000 a year ago.

Appointment Policy For Board Vacancy

The vacancy on the Petaluma Board of Education will be filled by board appointment rather than in the November election, schools Supt. Lesly H. Meyer reported today.

Meyer said the Sonoma County's Counsel's office ruled that a replacement for Sol Fishman must be appointed by the board since it operates under provisions of the Petaluma City Charter. Fishman, a veteran of 11 years on the board, announced last week he would leave by July 7 due to increased business pressures.

Meyer said that any resident of the district interested in the appointment should contact him or a board member. Applicants will be considered in a closed session at the board June 27.

WET FIELD, YOU SAY?

There was no Little League action in Elmsford, N.Y. yesterday as games were called because of wet grounds. One youngster (foreground) checked the field himself, wading hip-deep between home plate and the pitcher's mound. At least two persons are dead from the heavy rains which began yesterday in the tristate area of New York, Connecticut and New Jersey. The forecast is for more downpours.

Group Wins On Open Space: Corte Madera To Study Issue

City fathers of Corte Madera, a town of prosperous businesses, low tax rates and a tidy park, last night heard a plea from a group of residents who are apparently willing, like many other Marinities, to pay for open space.

City councilmen had planned on referring a letter signed by 17 persons to the planning commission without comment, but, instead, were drawn into a discussion of preserving open space.

The residents finally won their request that the town staff identify undeveloped parcels in Corte Madera and find out their purchase prices.

Any immediate plans to purchase property in order to keep it as open space in the town were met with scepticism by the councilmen, however.

Longtime Councilman Edward W. Colthurst said "the thrust has to be toward the open space measure on the November ballot," where countywide residents will be asked to approve a 10-cent tax increase to purchase property.

"It's not easy to sell a 10-cent tax rise," Colthurst said, adding that the Northridge property sought as open space by Corte Madera, Larkspur and Mill Valley, seems to have high priority in the county project. Furthermore, he said, the countywide plan envisions the largest purchase of open space in West Marin.

Asking Corte Madera residents to "do it alone," (purchase town property) would only cloud the issue of countywide open space, Colthurst said. (In San Rafael's decision to do it alone see story, page 1.)

Councilman Herber C. Leney said that Corte Madera already has more park space than most cities and that "we are going to have to stick to low density zoning to maintain a small town atmosphere."

Mayor Holmes S. Norville said he wanted "to see some dollars first," in order to learn if Corte Madera citizens are willing to pay for open space.

Jana Haehl, one of the signers of the letter, explained to the council that the request was only to have the undeveloped parcels investigated and then "to figure out if there is support (for buying) any of these."

Although Colthurst warned the group, "You don't get nuthin' for nuthin'," he moved and the other councilmen agreed to have the town staff make an appraisal of open space.

Surplus Property Eyed

Directors of the Stinson Beach Fire Protection District will meet in special session at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow in the district office to consider a resolution making it eligible for possibly surplus federal property, according to board member Otto Reutinger.

I-J Erred In Monday Story

The Independent-Journal erred yesterday in stating that a person arrested on suspicion of having a dangerous drug is to appear before Judge E. Warren McGuire in Marin Municipal Court for arraignment Wednesday.

McGuire is a superior court judge and does not handle municipal court arraignments such as that scheduled for Jeanne Louise Proteau, 25, of Fairfax.

She was arrested Saturday by Larkspur police who said they found two packages of white powder thought to be a drug in her car during a traffic stop.

Air Piracy Charge Draws Innocent Plea

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (UPI)—A man accused of hijacking an airliner last month and bailing out with $303,000 in ransom money over Honduras has pleaded innocent to air piracy, kidnaping and assault charges.

U.S. District Court Judge Oren Lewis Monday scheduled a trial for Sept. 12 for Frederick W. Hahneman, 49. Hahneman is accused of hijacking an Eastern Airlines jet May 5. An FBI agent quoted him as saying he gave the money to unidentified "causes" in Latin America.,

Bolinas Fire Budget Adopted

An $18,530 final budget for 1972-73, approximately $400 less than this year's $18,905 figure, was adopted last night by the Bolinas Fire Protection District board.

Board member Sherman R. Smith said there was no way to tell if the current district tax rate of 33.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation would support the spending program since there has been some reduction in the tax base in the Bolinas area over the past year. "We won't know for sure what the tax rate is until the county auditor sets it," he said.

The budget adopted by the board includes $3,200 in salaries for volunteer chief Jose A. Silva, the district's secretary and money paid to volunteers who attend drills.

Other expenditures are $1,500 for capital improvements (new fire hose and equipment), $1,000 for maintenance, $1,500 for equipment and $2,000 for utilities.

Emergency Powers Bill Sent To House

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Senate passed and sent to the House today a bill to extend emergency powers of the President for two years.

The powers include authority to allocate materials for defense contracts, and make loans and purchases to maintain defense capacities.

The powers were scheduled to expire June 30.

WANTS TO STAY

Parolee, 20, Finds Jail To Advantage

Even jail has its advantages, at least for 20-year-old Gary Clyde Kruger.

The parolee from the California Youth Authority yesterday turned down a sentence on a car theft charge that would have meant his release from jail in less than two months.

Kruger said he wanted to stay in jail until after Oct. 25 when his parole expires so the youth authority won't revoke that parole, and Judge Samuel W. Gardiner of Marin Superior Court obliged him.

The judge had planned to give him six months in jail with credit for 130 days he served while awaiting sentencing, but, after Kruger's plea, sentenced him to jail until Nov. 15.

He also placed the youth on probation for three years and ordered him to pay $100 for the legal service of the public defender.

Kruger was arrested Jan. 9 in Anaheim driving a car he stole from a roommate in San Anselmo. Police in the Orange County city said Kruger and a girl tried to flee when the car was stopped for having two bald tires and a cracked windshield.

"A car theft doesn't ordinarily call for six months, but this man has been slapped on the wrist too often. I'm not going to slap him on the wrist," the judge said.

Kruger had agreed to a maximum of six months in jail when he pleaded guilty last month.

Donation To Novato Group

The Allstate Foundation, through Allstate's Menlo Park office, has contributed $500 to Kids in Need Seek Help In People, a Novato organization aimed at diverting youngsters from embarking on criminal careers, according to Dyanne Bohner, project director.

Under its program, KINSHIP uses trained volunteers from the community to work individually with troubled youngsters, Mrs. Bohner said.

Additional funds are needed and anyone wishing to contribute should make checks payable to KINSHIP, 917 Sherman Avenue, Novato, she said. Donations are tax deductible.

Foes Of Meadowsweet Development Set Back

Foes of the Meadowsweet Station development in East Corte Madera lost another skirmish last night in their battle to halt the 528-unit townhouse project on 75 acres.

The Corte Madera Town Council refused to ask the town's planning commission to rezone the remaining four phases of the project as R-1, which would permit only single-family residences.

Opponents of the development also failed to get the council to rezone to R-1 the first phase, on which grading has already begun.

The matter came up for discussion last night in response to a letter from Lois E. Miner, who told the council she liked the "ticky-tacky" of single-family developments like those already existing in Corte Madera.

Councilman Herber C. Leney moved that the first phase, on which a superior court judge has ruled that grading may continue, be rezoned R-1. He was warned, however, by attorney John Rosenberg that such a rezoning was probably illegal.

He then rephrased his motion as a recommendation to the planning commission that later stages of the development be zoned single-family, but he found only one supporter, Robert J. Flahive, for this motion.

Councilman Edward W. Colthurst said he voted against the proposal because he didn't want to "prejudge the planning commission."

The Corte Madera Town Council also:

LANDSCAPING — Postponed to July 17 discussion of an ordinance aimed at enforcing landscaping maintenance.

SIGNS — Learned that the People's Gallery had withdrawn an appeal of planning commission denial for 14 freestanding triosk signs in the Corte Madera Center. The planning commission denial was upheld.

AGENCY — Unanimously opposed veto power of municipal plans proposed for the City-County Planning Council review agency.

PARKING — Postponed discussion of parking problems at Cinema I theater to the July 5 meeting.

MEETINGS — Decided to seek out larger meeting quarters for town council meetings expected to draw great public interest; as proposed by the Marin Estates Homeowners Association.

RESIGNATION — Accepted the resignation of Morgan J. Griffiths from the town's board of design. Griffiths wrote that his "views on town development are so divergent from that of the rest of the town government, my services only offer frustration to myself and obstructions to the town government . . . "

DIVISION — Approved a land split for the fully developed Luce property on Meadowsweet Drive so that the owner can sell a parcel.

Future Of Salt Marsh Turns Into Hot Issue

By PAT PERRY

The collective feet of Tamalpais High School District trustees were hastily withdrawn last night from the salt marsh south of the football field at Tamalpais High School when it promised to turn into hot water.

What was billed on the board's agenda as "superintendent's report into parking facility at Tamalpais High School" swiftly became an emotion-charged shouting match between the board and members of the audience who wanted to speak. (See page 28 for related story on Mill Valley City Council.)

The controversy revolved around a recent proposal by Robert Burton, Mill Valley city councilman, that the district turn over its vacant land at the corner of Homestead Boulevard and Miller Avenue for use as a commuter parking lot.

The district trustees had instructed Supt. Wilber D. Hawkins to investigate the proposal.

"It turned out there is a lot more interest than I was aware of in this land," said the superintendent.

Included in a sheaf of protests about turning the land into a parking lot was a petition from 185 registered voters and 80 Tam high school faculty. A letter from Tam's science department said the land includes typical salt marsh, which supports rodents, snakes, blackbirds, finches, dragonflies, damselflies and small fish in the water.

Requesting exclusive use of the area for ecological Chamber the science department noted "the rapid demise of local salt marsh systems."

As members of the audience vied in vain to get up and speak on the subject, Trustee Jerrold M. Lader complained: "It's unfair this board being asked to get involved in a heated issue until we know if Mill Valley is interested."

Samuel W. Schneider, president of the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce, rose and said the merchants were all in favor of the land being used for commuter parking.

Schneider said the Golden Gate Bridge District would maintain the parking lot if the City of Mill Valley filled it. A poll of merchants had supported the Tam High lot in preference to using two vacant lots in the town's business area.

Ignoring the board's protests that it was not ready to discuss the proposal, a woman spokesman for the Almonte District Improvement Club distributed a protest letter to each member and read it to the audience.

ExchangePlan For Kentfield, Ross Schools

The Ross School District board last night heard plans for next fall in which Ross and Kentfield pupils will participate in programs in each other's districts.

Ross Supt. Thomas A. Anderson said Kentfield youngsters will take part in Ross's ecology program and that Ross children will receive instrumental music instruction through Kentfield schools.

He said the two districts hope to carry the cooperation further in the future in an effort to supplement each other's programs.

In other action last night, the Ross school board granted raises to Anderson and Ross School Principal William Cooper, which will add $2,090 to next year's budget.

Anderson's salary will be $21,100; Cooper's, $18,990.

Other minor additions to the proposed 1972-73 budget brought the tentative figure to $569,581, Anderson said. He said he did not think the tentative budget, approved last night, will increase the $3.35 tax rate and might even result in a decrease because of increased assessed valuation in the district.

The board set its next regular meeting for July 6, instead of the normal third Monday date.

Therapy Center To Stay Open Despite Protests

A San Rafael psychiatric therapy center, subject of bitter neighborhood opposition, was permitted last night to survive.

The San Rafael City Council upheld the use permit of the Marin Center for Intensive Therapy on the condition that it be open Mondays through Thursdays until 9 p.m. with no overnight patients. (Another San Rafael Council story, page 1)

The action capped a months-long struggle by neighbors to close the establishment at 1715 Lincoln Avenue because of what they called noisy therapy sessions and patients walking away "in a daze".

Neighbors also had complained that patients sometimes stayed overnight in the center.

Councilman Fred Jensen, who urged that the matter be referred back to the planning commission, cast the lone dissenting vote in the 4-1 ruling.

The planning commission had previously unanimously voted in favor of the center.

The center and its Lincoln Avenue neighbors, previously requested by the city council to reach a compromise on their own in the matter, had been unable to do so, and so the council acted for them.

The San Rafael City Council also:

ASSESSMENT DISTRICT — Passed a resolution of intention allowing preliminary engineering work to begin on the Bahia de Rafael Industrial Park assessment district.

BIDS — Awarded a contract for the publication of legal notices to the Independent-Journal for fiscal 1972-73. The Pacific Sun also submitted a bid.

APPOINTMENT — Appointed 22-year-old Pamela L. Morosi, of 11 Manderly Road, San Rafael, as the city's representative on the Environmental Quality Committee of the City-County Planning Council.

REDEVELOPMENT — Met for 10 minutes as the city's redevelopment agency, and elected Mayor C. Paul Bettini as the agency's chairman; Councilman Fred Jensen as vice chairman; Asst. City Mgr. William J. Bielser as executive director; and City Clerk Marion A.Grady as secretary. The council also adopted a resolution establishing a redevelopment agency administrative fund, and seeded the fund with a $20,000 loan from the city's general fund.

DRAINAGE — Authorized the city attorney to acquire the needed properties — perhaps by condemnation — as necessary in the East San Rafael Drainage Assessment District.

CODE — Adopted the 1971 edition of the Uniform Fire Code.

SEWAGE PROJECT — Unanimously approved the San Rafael Sanitation District's formation of an assessment district aimed at expanding the Peacock Gap sewage facility. The expansion will add 1,000 hookups to the plant's 450 connection carrying capacity, at a cost of $950,000.

STOP SIGN — Approved the installation of a stop sign at the intersection of Laurel Place and Wilkins Street westbound.

PLANNING COMMISSION — Reappointed Alan Kay to the planning commission. Kay's present seat expires June 30.

PATROLMAN — Put Harry R. Barbier, son of Councilman Harry A. Barbier, and Michael A. O'Brien on the regular monthly police payroll as patrolmen. The pair will receive $844 monthly.

A Haul Of Cartridges

A burglar took 2,500 blank cartridges from the gym under construction at Miller Creek School in Marinwood June 9, sheriff's deputies said yesterday. The 25 boxes of blanks, worth $125, were being used by the Roma Hardwood Floors Co. to shoot nails into the concrete floor, deputies said.

Pilot Shot Twice Before Crash; Death Note Found

GONZALES, Tex. (UPI)—A pilot was shot twice before his plane crashed during the weekend, killing him and four other persons, a medical examiner's report revealed Monday. Police said an apparent suicide note was found in the home of a woman who died in the crash.

Four of those killed in the crash Sunday were members of one family, including two small children. The fifth victim, Eugene Davis, was the pilot.

The autopsy showed he was shot twice in the back with a .22-caliber weapon.

The plane nosedived into the ground and struck with such force that it was buried up to its tailfins. Rescue workers spent 12 hours digging out the wreckage. The others killed were Joe Morales, 27, his wife, Maria, 24, and their daughters, Belinda Jo, 4, and Shelly Ann, 2, all of Harlingen, Tex.

Harlingen Police Chief Guy Anderson said officers found what appeared to be a suicide note written by Mrs. Morales in their home.

"The note indicated she was tired of living and was having mental problems," Anderson said. He said he had sent it to authorities in Gonzales and could not quote it directly.

Anderson said the note was left in the house "in plain view."

Morales had moved to Harlingen from Dallas a month ago and worked for a mobile home company. His boss, Bobby Gosnell, said he was an "excellent salesman."

It gave no details of the time or cause of death.

Two Policies To Be Studied

Policies of street musicians and ferryboat terminals in Sausalito will be among items considered by the Sausalito City Council at 8 p.m. today in city hall.

Last week the council asked the city staff to report on possible sites where musicians might be allowed to play in the city and any legal ramifications which might result from permitting such activity.

A public hearing on a variance request by Robert Cranston to allow him to increase the seating capacity of his Deck House restaurant without providing additional off-street parking will also be held at the meeting.

Bill-Payers Absent At Budget Session

Last week the Marin County Board of Supervisors opened its annual review of the county administrator's budget recommendations. At the outset, its session was attended by a sprinkling of representatives of citizen groups urging that the budget and consequent tax rate be reduced.

They idn't stay long, however. After presenting their statements urging reduced county spending, all but two of them went away — presumably to work to try to make some money to pay the inflated tax bills which appear inevitable.

As the supervisors got down to the business of trying to make some cuts here and there (concentrating principally on small items, rather than on large categories of spending that might be reduced appreciably), only two representatives of the concerned public remained in the chambers: Winifred Frederick of the Irate Taxpayers of Marin and Birdie Schneider of Sleepy Hollow.

THERE WERE on hand, however, plenty of representatives of the county departments whose budgets were under discussion — all there on "county time," being paid by the taxpayers to appear to protect their department budgets from cuts that might eliminate their jobs.

As the hearings continued, public attendance picked up now and then — but not by those interested in saving public money. As usually happens, the audience was augmented by pleaders for special causes, each advancing his or her pet project as something that should be financed from the public purse.

THE SAME SORT of thing happens at budget hearings of other bodies. When a school board meets to discuss budget, rarely are more than a handful of the public present; but the room generally is well filled by faculty and administration representatives — all of whom, of course, have a vested interest in preventing cuts.

If the school board finds it lacks the money to raise salaries, the teacher organizations are quick to propose cuts to finance the raise: elimination of pupil transportation, of athletics, of necessary building maintenance. Scarcely ever do they propose cutting out an experimental program that is costly but of doubtful value.

Then, outmaneuvered, the public is given the choice of losing things it deems necessary or voting for a tax increase.

City councils have ever fewer of the public present at budget sessions, as a rule. They become in effect mere in-house conferences, with department heads pleading for more money and nobody pleading to hold down costs.

IT WOULD BE well if every board of supervisors, every city council, school board and other taxing agency would have a large placard displayed at each budget session, reading:

REMEMBER — YOU WERE ELECTED TO REPRESENT THE INTERESTS OF THE TAXPAYERS WHO ARE NOT PRESENT.

Oven Bird

Towhees are the color of well-browned toast, with a few dabs of orange marmalade on it. Nothing splashy, but subtly beautiful. They are stay-in-one-place birds. Friendly and curious, they often venture inside our homes through doors carelessly left open. A bit on the stolid side, they have been compared to peasants. With luck, many generations will make their home in your garden as they have in ours for more than a quarter century.

SACRAMENTO SCENE

'No Fault' Insurance Won't Guarantee Lower Premiums

By EARL G. WATERS

It is now almost a foregone conclusion that some type of "no fault" auto insurance will be enacted this year. The public pressure, brought on largely by unprecedented promotional spending on the part of insurance companies, has overwhelmed the Legislature.

This sloganized "cure-all" approach to the motorists' complaints of the high cost of auto inuurance gained tremendous momentum last year following a huge advertising campaign by the proponents. It was finally stopped by the Senate Judiciary Committee. Subsequently, the members of the committee were subjected to great abuse, including attacks upon their personal motives.

The basic reason behind the committee's rejection of the proposals was an unwillingness on the members' part, all being experienced lawyers and conscientious legislators, to sacrifice the legal rights of citizens for redress for injuries caused by the negligence of another.

BUT THE STORMY reaction of the public, listening to the promises of the insurance companies for lower rates, has compelled the legislators to yield. Even Governor Reagan gave endorsement to some type of reform in auto insurance although he wisely refrained from outright approval of any particular plan.

In seeking to find some method of satisfying the public need while avoiding the forfeiture of legal rights to court adjudication of personal injury damages, the lawmakers labored devotedly. To call the bluff of the insurance companies' "pie in the sky" pledges of lower rates, they have attempted to write into the law a requirement that insurance rates will be reduced after the effective date of "no fault" laws.

The opponents claim such provisions will be meaningless. "Sure, they will reduce the rates," a spokesman for the Trial Lawyers Association said, "but only after they have imposed terrific increases before the mandate goes into effect."

THE TIP-OFF that "no fault" is no guarantee of reduced premiums has already been signalled by the insurance companies. They have shifted ground and are no longer making loud claims that lower rates will follow the new laws. Even their chief advocate, Assemblyman Jack R. Fenton, D-Montebello, who has been sponsoring the "no fault" concept for several sessions, is now quoted as saying, "There could be premium reductions but everybody's guessing."

More positive is Sen. Alan Gegorio, D-San Mateo, who maintains, "Whatever reduction in premium cost of the property damage and personal liability sections may develop in an insurance contract, they are more than offset by the increased costs of medical premiums." And, while "no-fault" insurance will pay personal injury claims, Gregorio acknowledges, "It will not pay property damages so there will be little, if any, reduction in premiums there. Obviously, then, the overall premium cost will rise."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Parents Should Awaken To School Shortcomings

Both my wife and I want you to know of our backing of your editorial on the Redwood High social studies situation as recently appeared in your paper. We have two sons at Redwood and continue to be shocked at the weakness of the administrative staff in controlling what is being taught, how, and where. Through articles such as yours, hopefully, the parent and taxpayer will wake up to the fact today's schools need a good housecleaning.

Frank Lloyd Wright Would Approve Swallows

With all the expensive changes being made in the name of ecology, your short editorial. "Our 'Bird Loving' County," was timely. With the ban on DDT at the federal level, it is obvious to me that we must do more to attract swallows for mosquito control. True, their nests are not designed by Frank L. Wright, but I believe he would approve them as a natural decor. His whole concept in the Civic Center was to accommodate the design to nature, now nature is only trying to accommodate to the center.

On the subject of ecology conflicts at several levels of government, I believe the most expensive conflict is between the GSA and the states, counties, and the consumer-taxpayers as a whole. GSA does a lot of testing, principally to determine what items have the best overall performance/ecology index, and the feds purchase on the basis of these tests. The people and governmental bodies below are not made privy to those results, so much waste in purchasing of poor equipment results and the fact that mostly it ends up high-price junk which fills out trash heaps too quickly doesn't help what little environmental quality we have left.

Waste is the highest form of environmental/ecological disaster.

Breaks For Elderly In Fairfax (Virginia)

I would like to call your attention to the tax differences in Fairfax, Calif., and Fairfax, Va. (county). See enclosed clipping from my association, American Retired People's news bulletin regarding personal property taxes for senior citizens (a substantial tax relief for renters, too). An existing ordinance grants elderly home owners with assets not exceeding $20,000, excluding their home and an acre of land, exemption from payment of real estate taxes.

Most elderly home owners have contributed to this state for years, and are asked to share our pensions with newcomers (welfare recipients) who have never contributed a dime. In many cases, the elderly not only are taxed out of their pensions, but are dipping into their savings as well.

At the rate we are going, it won't be long and a substantial number of elderly tax-paying home owners will join the ranks of those on welfare.

All of this to feed an ever-growing bureaucracy that does not care where the money comes from as long as they get it! Perhaps, as has been suggested by many, it is time to vote every incumbent out of office, regardless of party.

(The enclosed clipping told of a Fairfax County, Va., ordinance extending to apartment dwellers over the age of 65 with annual incomes below $7,500 exemption from personal property and auto license taxes. It noted exemption from real estate taxes for the elderly under an existing Fairfax County ordinance. — Editor.)

Annual Disillusionment At Budget Hearings

Here we are again in "Marin County Budget Session." Those representing John Q. Taxpayer of Marin made their annual plea for the board of supervisors (elected to represent ALL the people of Marin) to make personal evaluations into departmental requests for increases and reduce the proposed County property tax increase. Once again, the board of supervisors made the promises we wanted to hear — mainly that our pleas were heard and would be acted upon. This was Wednesday morning, June 14, after which budget proceedings started.

After three days of hearings with little reduction in department increase requests, we had better become alarmed! I would like to outline two requests which have met with approval from the board of supervisors.

First came yesterday in the Probation Department request for a new children's treatment center to replace the preplacement unit in Juvenile Hall which accommodated 10.8 daily population last year. The new program is estimated to fill a need for 20 clients daily (almost double last year's actuality), and requires budgetary funding of about $15,000 per mont per child... The supervisors approved this new program, even though there are other agencies in Marin and the Bay Area who can provide this service to the county at less cost.

Another departmental increase request approved today (June 16) was during hearings on the Health Department reorganization budget. Last year the supervisors initiated a reorganization of the Health Department with the stated policy of "economy through the ending of duplication, and providing mora efficient methods!" With the passage of today's health budgets, the two-year policy economies are minus about $400,000...

Proposed Bill Makes Massive Slaughter Legal

Jaques Cousteau recently testified before Congress that marine life has decreased 40 per cent in the last 20 years. Of this marine life, we know that the sea mammals are in the greatest peril, and bills for their protection have been introduced in both houses of Congress.

Unfortunately, powerful commercial interests have been so effective that the Senate bill is now amended until it is useless, — in fact worse, because it legalizes massive slaughter of seals, dolphins and porpoises. What was to have been a moratorium on all killing and importation of ocean mammals into the U.S. is now full of loopholes. The Pribiloff Islands slaughter begins again, July 1. Hundreds of thousands of seals killed abroad — including "baby white coats" from Canada — are permitted import into the U.S. The tuna fishermen's "accidental" suffocation of hundreds of thousands of dolphins and porpoises in the purse-seine nets is allowed. And permits to kill may be issued at the "discretion" of the secretary of commerce.

Time is running out. Will concerned readers write at once to their senators, urging that these destructive amendments should be erased. Public pressure is the one influence that will count at this juncture.

Laird's Tough Talk May Be Doing Service To Disarmament

WASHINGTON — All the old scarecrows of fear and suspicion are being trotted out of the warehouse where they are perennially refurbished and given a fresh coat of phosphorescent paint to try to defeat the nuclear arms limitation treaty. Half-truths and just plain myths about the alleged superiority the Russians' will have under the treaty are trumpeted by the little band of weaponeers and standby alarmists.

Yet, as the hearings on the agreements began before the senate Foreign Relations Committee, a careful check indicated ratification of the antiballistic missile treaty with far more than the required two-thirds and approval of the agreement freezing offensive missiles by an overwhelming majority.

IN LIGHT OF THIS it is hard to see why Sec. of Defense Melvin R. Laird seems to be practicing a kind of blackmail by threatening that unless Congress approves his full defense budget, with $1.3 billion for development of new weapons systems, he will oppose the agreements. What is more, as part of this extraordinary operation by a leading member of the Nixon administration, he indicates that he would take with him the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Two explanations for this behavior with at least a semblance of reason occur. One is that with the President's approval Laird is giving the right-wingers a taste of appeasement. A doubting senator can say, "Yes, I was for the treaties but at the same time I voted for money for those new weapons that are going to keep America strong."

But underlying this explanation is a belief that the right must be appeased. That a right wing is ready to spring into action in substantial numbers is a myth, as was proved by the largely favorable reaction to the Nixon missions to Peking and Moscow. That the old China lobby, the Committee of one Million, might jump out of the woodwork was quickly shown to be an illusion of the timid traditionalists.

Another explanation for the Laird charge up Capitol Hill has slightly more logic behind it. The costly new weapons systems are being pushed as bargaining counters to be offset against similar Russian developments when the SALT talks resume in the fall. This was the strategy on the ABM missiles, with the Pentagon putting in for four sites instead of the two already accepted, so the extra multibillion-dollar chips could be bargained away. That was just what happened after Sen. John Sherman Cooper persuaded most of the antiweaponeers not to fight over ABM.

IN ONE SENSE Laird is doing a service to the cause of nuclear arms limitation. There is nothing in the five-year interim agreement on offensive missiles to prevent development of the fantastic new systems Laird is championing. How are these systems go on the road of a nuclear arms race his advocacy makes abundantly clear.

The interim agreement is the smallest possible beginning. Unless, as President Nixon has said, the momentum out of Moscow carries over into a new round of SALT talks, the hope for any real pause in the race toward annihilation is dim. Under the code names of SCAD and SRAM, two new missiles systems are in the early stages. These would be standoff missiles fired from an airplane used as a platform without intruding over the enemy's borders.

The B-1 supersonic bomber is the love child of the Air Force. As a replacement for the B-52 it has a command staff that will keep the force with a promotion system up to the present scale or better. The new ultra-long-range submarine, the Trident, is well advanced in research and development. Each new weapons system will cost an estimated $12 billion if deployed. The price tag for each copy of the Trident is $1.2 billion.

President Nixon's great achievement at Moscow can be eroded away. Unless there is momentum toward a comprehensive agreement on the offensive side, new weapons systems will unbalance the deterrent and start the arms spiral upward again. Momentum can come out of effort by the American delegation, headed by Gerard C. Smith, that worked so intensively through the three years of the SALT negotiations.

Those 'Older Americans' Are Mostly Still Active—And Voting

But government and industry have found it expedient to draw an arbitrary line to designate normal retirement age. It is now 65.

It is inaccurate, as well as offensive, to refer to all people over 65 as "old" or "elderly," because many of them maintain a mental and physical vigor quite incompatible with such terms. In an effort to get around this semantic problem, we have coined such phrases as "the aging" and "older Americans."

Both these euphemisms are unsatisfactory from a purely grammatical viewpoint. But one cannot expect politicians to be purists about grammar, so it comes as no great shock that the Senate should have a "Special Committee on Aging" and that this committee should issue a thick (395 page) report on the status of what it invariably refers to as "older Americans."

THE REPORT is full of interesting data.

For example: at the start of the century, there were only 3 million "older Americans," comprising 4 per cent of the population. Today, we have close to 20 million Americans over 65, comprising 10 per cent of the population.

This has obvious economic and political importance. Our economy must be geared to bear an increasing burden of retirement benefit costs to provide adequately for one-tenth of the population that is officially labled too old to work. If the government doesn't recognize this need, it will be forcefully reminded of it by what is proabably the most cohesive and singleminded bloc of voters in the electorate.

The Senate committee found that half the "older Americans" are between 65 and 73. A third are under 70. Four out of five are healthy enough to get along well on their own. So the typical "older American" is not doddering into senility. He or she still is mentally and physically robust, capable of being a participating, contributing member of society.

Moreover, they can expect to be around for a while. Average life expectancy for Americans at age 65 is 13 years for men, 16 years for women.

MANY "OLDER AMERICANS" have serious financial problems. The 1970 census showed the median income of families headed by persons over 65 was $5,053 a year. More than a quarter of the "older Americans" live below the official poverty line. Even those who are better off financially have budget problems because they have to spend substantially more than younger families on medical care.

One of the more shocking findings of the Senate study is that Medicare covers only 42 per cent of the actual health care costs of "older Americans." The rest comes ost of their own pockets.

Of special interest to politicians in an election year is the finding that "older Americans" are very active participants in democratic processes. Although they comprise only 10 per cent of the population, they cast 17 per cent of the votes in the last election.

One Option Still Open To Teddy: Conductor Of National Symphony

WASHINGTON — No matter how you slice it, when people start talking about the Democratic convention, Teddy Kennedy's name invariably comes up. Last week it was reported that he said he would take the vice-presidential spot if it meant the difference between victory and defeat for the Democratic Party. Then he spent the next day denying he was a vice-presidential candidate.

The one option that Teddy Kennedy still has left open is his availability as conductor of the National Symphony Orchestra. It is no secret that Kennedy has been seriously considered for the leadership of the National Symphony, and it is rumored that if there is a deadlock at the next meeting of the National Symphony Board in July, Kennedy could be the compromise candidate.

I WENT TO SEE Senator Kennedy on Capitol Hill to discuss it with him. He seemed very relaxed as he tilted back in his leather chair.

"Senator, are you running for conductor of the National Symphony Orchestra?"

He shook his head. "I have no interest in running for the National Symphony at this time."

"When you say this time, does that mean you might consider it later?"

"I have said on many occasions that I am very happy in the senate and I have no musical ambitions."

"Does this mean you wouldn't even consider being first violinist with the orchestra?"

"No one has discussed the first violinist job with me, so I believe the question is hypothetical."

"SENATOR KENNEDY, there are some people in Washington who say you are the only person who can bring the National Symphony together."

"I don't subscribe to that. I think we have many fine people who could lead the National Symphony, and I am prepared to support the candidate whom the board nominates."

"I know you have said this many times, senator, but members of your staff and friends have said that while you would not openly seek the position as conductor, there is always a possibility that you could change your mind."

"My staff and friends are not speaking for me."

"COULD YOU POSSIBLY conceive of any conditions where you would accept a draft as conductor or run for first violinist with the orchestra?"

"I would not exclude the possibilities. If I believed my accepting the position as conductor or first violinist could have a dramatic effect on the orchestra, I would have to reconsider my position."

"What would make you change your mind?"

"Well, if, for example, the subscription series for 1973 did not sell out, or if I felt Lawrence Welk was going to get the job, I would then have to reevaluate my stand."

"I notice you have a lot of musical scores on your desk, Senator. Can we infer anything from that?"

"No. I happen to like to read musical scores when I'm not working on new legislation."

I WAS ABOUT to ask another question when Senator Kennedy's secretary buzzed him on the intercom. She said, "Leonard Bernstein is on the phone."

The senator picked up his phone: "Lenny? In the third movement of Beethoven's Fifth, do I bring in the strings before the flutes, or do I point to the kettle drummer first?"

Reporter Asks Tribunal To Boot Contempt Count

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Los Angeles newsman Monday asked the U.S. Supreme Court to overturn his conviction on a contempt of court charge resulting from his refusal to disclose news sources.

Los Angeles Superior Court Judge Charles H. Older convicted William Farr on 13 counts of contempt last July 19 for refusing to name the person who supplied material for a story he wrote during the Charles Manson murder trial. Farr was sentenced to an undeterminent jail term.

Farr had been a reporter for the Herald-Examiner when he wrote the story reporting that Manson follower Susan Atkins had told a cellmate that the "Manson Family" had planned to kill Frank Sinatra, Elizabeth Taylor and other celebrities.

Older ruled that Farr's immunity under California law had expired because he had left the newspaper to take a job with the Los Angeles Times.

The Supreme Court petition was filed by attorneys F. Lee Bailey of Boston and Mark Hurwitz of Orange County, Calif. A state appeals court previously upheld the conviction and the State Supreme Court refused to hear an appeal.

Big City Democrat Mayors' Plank Pleas

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Democratic mayors of the nation's big cities want gun control, mass transit and the promise of more jobs to be on the party's campaign platform for the November elections.

While participants of the U.S. Conference of Mayors were telling the Democratic party Platform Committee Monday what causes they wanted the party to champion, President Nixon sent a telegram citing his administration's efforts on behalf of revenue sharing, welfare reform, mass transit, and crime fighting.

But Nixon had no plans to attend the conference in person. No first-term president since Franklin D. Roosevelt has failed to attend the mayors' meetings.

New York Mayor John Lindsay asked that the party platform favor banning the sale and possession of hand guns. He also called for a tougher party stand against the Vietnam war, but he did not elaborate on specifics.

"The first priority is to end that awful, that immoral war," Lindsay said.

Atlanta Mayor Sam Massell said the federal government ought to stop supporting highway construction and start subsidizing urban mass transit.

"The pro-highway, antimass transit federal bias of the past has prejudiced local planning and decisions," he said.

Mayor Kenneth Gibson of Newark, N.J., where unemployment has ranged from 12.5 to 16.4 per cent during the past two years, said the platform ought to deal with jobs.

"When the Democratic platform is written and acted on in Miami, let it be a blueprint for the life and survival of our cities," Gibson said.

Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien chided Nixon for going "halfway around the world" on summit meetings to China and Russia but not making the trip to New Orleans.

Speedy Action Is Asked In Lead Gasoline Ban

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In most major U.S. cities thumb-sucking children or those who eat without washing possibly can consume enough dirt to get seriously ill—all because of lead in gasoline.

Forty-nine members of Congress cited those possibilities today in a letter urging the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to step up its proposed ban on leaded gasolines.

A measure to ban lead in paint—purported to kill or cripple thousands of children annually—was passed unanimously, 82 to 0, in the Senate last week.

The letter, drafted by Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said EPA's gradual reduction proposals would leave lead levels in dirt in 84 tested areas of the nation at more than 500 parts per million as late as 1977.

"Virtually all residual lead in urban dirt comes from auto exhausts," Hart said in releasing the letter.

"Even at 500 parts per million lead," the letter said, "a child would need to ingest only one-eighth of a teaspoon (about one-quarter of a gram) of dirt daily to exceed the maximum daily permissible dose for lead, the dose above which actual poisoning could occur."

The letter cited studies which said an ordinary child consumes that amount of dirt every day.

A child with pica, the craving for unnatural substances because of nutritional deficiencies, "could be expected to eat considerably more," the letter said.

$500,000 Suit Names Landlord

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A $500,000 damage suit was filed Monday against a landlord who allegedly turned off the gas, removed water pipes and the front door, locked the garage and raised the rent in an effort to discourage Negro tenants.

The suit was filed in Superior Court by William Patrick Fearon, whose family lived in a house rented to them by the defendants, Joseph and Clara Zadravetz, between last January and March.

It charged the defendants "did not want black people living on their property."

'THE GOLDDIGGERS'

Rebecca Jones Gets Television Role

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Once a brunette dancer and singer, Rebecca Jones of San Rafael is now a strawberry blonde dancer and singer. She will be seen on the television show "Chevrolet Presents The Golddiggers" scheduled for the fall season on Channel 44 (KBHK.)

The startling change in her appearance was a result of her selection for the show. She was chosen from 200 applicants in auditions held in Hollywood for the show and will be a lead singer and will also dance.

"Gregg Garrison, the producer of the show, said he needed a blonde, not another brunette, and so the first thing they did was dye my hair," she explained. "I had always prided myself on looking natural, and when I first saw myself as a blonde, I cried about half an hour. Now I'm just another Hollywood girl."

"Oh, it's not so bad," her mother comforted, adding, "Her father says she looks like a real Welsh girl now."

Rebecca's father is Byron Jones, who is proud of his Welsh ancestry. His baritone voice is heard in performances in major concerts throughout the Bay Area. Head of vocal music for San Rafael schools, he has been a vocal instructor at the College of Marin.

REBECCA HAS sung in many concerts with him at San Rafael High School and the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael, where he is also director of music.

Though only 19, the five-foot-six-inch singer-dancer has appeared in various leading roles.

She studied ballet for seven years with Leona Norman and for five years was one of the top dancers with the Marin Civic Ballet founded by Miss Norman.

A soprano, Rebecca also studied three years with Marin's opera soprano Gwen Curatilo, and was a soloist with the Marin Youth Orchestra. While she was studying dancing she performed professionally at the Central City Opera House in the Colorado mountains.

After graduation from San Rafael High School last year Rebecca majored in vocal music and studied acting and dancing at the Institute of the Arts in Valencia, near Los Angeles, which was founded with money willed by Walt Disney.

"It is now in its secong year," she said, "and it offers training in all the arts — music, dance, drama, cinematography and others. You can get a bachelor's and master's degree there."

Just before she left the institute last April Rebecca had the leading role in the musical "The Fantastiks." Her acceptance as a Golddigger will mean quite a change in direction for her talents.

"There may be some opportunity for ballet type dancing, but mostly it will be popular and jazz," she said.

"THE GOLDDIGGERS," she explained, "were featured two years ago on the Dean Martin show," but now they are an independent singing and dancing group of eight girls which travels all over the country and presents the syndicated variety show that will be on CBS TV in the fall."

The group recently was in a television special with Burl Ives, she added.

"We will be traveling all over the United States and Canada this summer putting on shows in night clubs," she said.

Rebecca's show business career will not be her first experience out in the world from a sheltered home situation. She has a close relationship with her parents and a particularly warm friendship with her 16-year-old brother, Byron Will Jones.

"My parents are my best friends" she said, "but they understand I want to be on my own."

In addition to her professional dancing engagement in Colorado, Rebecca had further away-from-home experience one summer on a bicycle tour of youth hostels in Europe.

As for her future plans, she said, "I love living for right now — a sort of existential point of view, but eventually I want to be a serious actress on Broadway and in the movies."

She isn't much concerned with romance at present. "So far, 'My Heart Belongs to Daddy,'" she said with a smile.

REBECCA JONES, selecting music at the piano with her father Byron Jones of San Rafael, has been chosen as a lead singer and dancer on the upcoming television show, "the Golddiggers." Her hair was dyed for the part, which upset the performer, who prided herself on looking natural.

GENERATION RAP

by Helen and Sue Bottel

Starting Off Letter With 'Dear' Sounds Corny To One Teen-Ager

HELEN AND SUE:

I haven't started a letter "Dear soandso" since my last note to Santa. Well, anyway, in two years. It's just "Dan:" or "Mary:" — almost nobody uses "dear" any more.

How come you still start your letters with "Dear . . . "? I'll bet at least half of them don't come to you that way.

Luv your column, but — NO "DEARS" PLEASE

DEAR NO: (Wups — scratch "dear"; try again)

NO: —

Habit is a powerful thing. Since I write the final drafts of "Generation Rap," and I've been using "Dear" in salutations both to and from correspondents for 14 years, the word springs from my machine automatically.

Will try to change, but don't expect a totally "dearless" column — unless all out letters come to us that way. — HELEN

N. "D." P.:

Not quite half our letters still begin with "Dear . . ." Maybe your note will help change that.

I kinda think plain "John:" or "Mary:" sounds more personal and less corny. And it's pretty ridiculous when we get, "Dear Helen and Sue: Drop Dead!" — Maxine Which does she mean? — SUE

SUE AND HELEN:

I need some motherly and sisterly advice since I have neither and I can't talk to my Dad or a priest.

You see, every time a guy wants to meet me, I get frightened, because I know that the minute we're alone he'll be all over me, so close that I can't breathe.

Maybe you think I meet the wrong kind of guy. Not true. They come from different backgrounds, religions, etc., but they all have one characteristic — they all "try."

I'm not afraid of every man, just guys who want to date me, and a few I baby-sat for, who made passes at me while driving me home. Even though my budget couldn't stand it, I refused to work for their families again.

I'm 16, not bad looking, am on the honor roll, and I don't lead boys on. So why do they act this way? — ANN

ANN:

If all guys try the "minute you're alone," you're giving the wrong signals. Maybe your suspicions come across as "expectations." Check out your actions and you may not need to watch out so much for theirs SUE

DEAR ANN:

Those passes by older men: perhaps they frightened you so much that you read "sex" into every little action. If not, then you're somehow asking for it, and you should practice up on friendly conversation. It's a great cooler — HELEN

INSIDE YOUR HOME

A Revisit To Four-Poster Beds

By CAROLYN S. MURRAY
General Features Corp.

If the idea of a four-poster bed conjures up images of ruffles and tie-back hangings, you may need to broaden your knowledge of decorative history. The first four-posters were probably knock-down beds designed for use by military campaigners. You know the type, Napoleon, for one. When those important personages had to sleep in the field, they took the best bedding available at the time and had a bevy of aides set up headquarters in style.

The posts were attached by horizontal poles which supported rope slings. The mattress pad rested on this rope sling. When camp had to be broken due to a turn of events on the battlefield, the bed could be easily dismantled; all component parts could be strapped together and whipped off to safer territory.

Some four-posters come with canopy tops. Even so, the top does not imply frills and ruffles, since a totally tailored look is very much in keeping with the simple design principles of the four-poster.

The Chinese people of affluence produced a bed that was a total environment and it's been called the Ming bed, after that dynasty. One reason there were so many variations of this bed-enclosure idea is that wealthy or noble travelers had to carry their own comfort with them.

And the structure allowed individualized hangings, pillows and comforters to be packed, then utilized in drafty inns and castles. The idea caught on with people of lesser rank and income, until today anyone may want a four-poster or canopy bed for his or her very own.

Contemporary designers have found substitutes for the ready-made four-poster. They use floor-to-ceiling posts, aluminum or chrome tubing, even fiberboard tubing to emulate the vertical parts of the four-poster canopy bed. Beds are just about the most uninteresting objects we purchase for the home.

And the queen and king-size jobs are even more unattractive. So the use of architectural lines and added advantage of height that comes from posts and canopy, make the bed worth looking at. And the handsomer the bed itself, the less the need for other decorative devices in the bedroom.

Some Advice To No. 2 Wife From The No. 1 Wife

(I-J Special Report)

NEW YORK — Author Jean offers advice from first wives to their successors in a new book, "The Second Wife," recently published by Doubleday and Co., Inc.

She suggests that step-mothers discipline children when they visit but tells them not to pry about their mothers.

In a humorous vein she suggests, "Be nice about taking the children, especially over holidays and at vacation time." If the first wife has freedom to travel and husband hunt, it may mean more money for the second wife, she said.

"Be reasonable about money. How do you think the first wife feels when her former husband refuses to pay or orthondontia and then goes off to Paris on a vacation?

Workout In Water Can Tone Muscles

I-J Special Report

NEW YORK — An exercise workout in the water can pare, tighten and tone the body, according to Helen Nash of the Neutrogena Corp.

To slim the waist, face the ladder in the pool, grasping sides firmly with legs outstretched in back. Swing the body from side-to-side, pushing against the water with a swishing fishtail action. The exercise should be done for five minutes to help trim away excess and tone stomach muscles.

To reduce hips and outer thighs, grasp the ladder, bracing the left leg against the pool wall with knee bent. Keep the right leg straight out from the wall and swing the right leg in a wide arc from right to left. Reverse the legs and repeat for five minutes.

Lie on your back in the pool and hold the ladder with both hands. Bicycle kick, lifting feet out of the water with each kick. Give an extra hard push on the down kick to strike the water forcibly. This exercise strengthens the ankles and pulls at the calf muscles.

Extension Of One Street Is Approved

Preliminary plans to extend Baywood Drive to Lakeville Highway were approved last night by the Petaluma City Council.

City Engineer David A. Young said negotiations were going well with Atlantic Richfield Oil Co. to buy land for $33,000 to extend the street. He estimated total project cost at $130,000 but said property owners and the state would pay a portion with the city's share estimated at less than $70,000.

City Mgr. Robert H. Meyer said that gasoline tax funds would not be available for two years, but that the Atlantic-Pacific Building Corp. has agreed to advance the city $100,000 to get the project going. Road work must be completed before the company can go ahead with plans for a shopping center on Baywood Drive.

Young estimated the project could be completed by next June. Work will include a complete signal system at Baywood Drive and Lakeville Highway.

The Petaluma City Council also:

SALARIES — Heard that city firefighters had accepted a 1972-73 contract calling for an average salary increase of 5 per cent and for new negotiations to begin in November on a possible reduction of the work week.

SHOPPING — Approved rezoning land on East Washington Street at the Petaluma River and Weller Street to permit a shopping center.

STREET — Set a hearing for July 17 at 7:30 p.m. on plans to close a portion of English Street between Western Avenue and Post Street.

SEWER CLAIM — Approved the claim for $40 by Edward P. Hansen on sewer line repair work done at his home at 12 Seventh Street.

BUS SERVICE — Heard Gravensen Brothers ask the council to consider allowing Saturday jitney bus service to be discontinued because of low profits.

BELLS — Approved the traditional resolution urging residents to ring bells at 11 a.m. on the Fourth of July to celebrate the nation's founding.

BENTON — Approved a resolution commending Fire Chief Roscoe A. Benton who has resigned effective July 1.

MEETINGS — Rescheduled the July 3 meeting for July 6 at 3 p.m. to be adjourned to July 10 at 7:30 p.m.

'People Picture Contest' Photos Warm, Filled With Humanity

By LAURA DEVENDORF

When San Anselmo's Marin Institute, a non-profit, out-patient psychotherapy clinic decided to celebrate its seventh anniversary with a "People Picture Contest," they did it right. The directors personally gave $200 for cash prizes to assure a good entry. Then they invited a prestigious jury composed of Ernest Braun, Emme Gilman, Michael Bry and Thomas C. Johnson.

The juried results of 67 photographs have now moved to the Marin Civic Center where they will be shown through July 21 in the Supervisors' gallery on the third floor.

Criteria for the contest specified "people showing moods, emotions, feelings — such as trust, surprise, contentment, anger, joy, love, grief, welcome, thoughtfulness." And while this attitude never interferes with photographic standards of excellence, it is definitely the human qualities which draw and hold you.

Naturally, the almost 30 winning entries have it in abundance. There is the wild mixed feeling of terror and delight caught by Tom Fleming in the faces of children roaring down a roller coaster. There is the wrenching pathos photographed by Barbara Elsasser as an elderly bed-ridden woman holds hands with a social worker. And there is the moment of hope caught by Ilka Hartman as the rumpled figure of an old man emerges from a rundown building marked by a sign reading "social contact helps bring single lonely people happiness, love, romance, marriage."

Throughout the show the emotion in the people photographed and the viewer's response to them extends from tears to amusement. There are many charming shots of children. Young love blows like a fresh wind through flying streams of long, straight hair and glows in happy half-shy smiles. But the moment belongs most poignantly to the very old and parents of the very young.

There are surprising exquisite moments of fathers with their babies. It might be that time when he doesn't move so as not to disturb the worn-out 2-year-old sprawled, sleeping in his lap. It might be a moment of rich tenderness when a father stretches out beside his baby on the grass and tentatively touches him on the forehead. Or it might come when a father gazes with total involvement into the face of his newborn son.

The near-old have a certain toughness, at times a proud, challenging look when they are caught off guard. But it is when age has become the most articulate thing there is about a person, when it draws its experience, wisdom and gentle acceptance into the lines in waiting faces, that the aged grip you with their silent beauty. And you stand there wondering how they know so much.

FUTURE LAGUNITAS PUMP STATION

Drawing by Crawford and Banning, San Rafael architects, indicates the probable appearance of the Marin Municipal Water District's major pump station at Lagunitas after remodeling is completed. The enlarged station will increase the capacity of water service to the district's northern lines as well as to the Ross Valley. District staff and the architects are discussing plans to make the pump station area into a small park, if safety problems can be solved. The district board recently authorized payment of $1,250 for the architectural design, but construction bids have not yet been ordered.

Rezoning Of Land Near Sorich Park Rejected

The San Anselmo Planning Commission last night rejected the controversial rezoning of a 15-acre parcel adjoining Sorich Park and instead recommended that the property be annexed to the city.

Neighbors, who appeared in force last night, had opposed rezoning the single-family residential property to the planned multiple development requested by owner Max D. Schenk.

Schenk had proposed a 48 townhouse units for three acres of the parcel, which lies in an unincorporated area.

Commissioners ruled that the proposed development's impact on the traffic pattern of nearby Francisco and Sir Francis Drake boulevards would be unacceptable, according to Thelma Foster, commission secretary.

The commission also opposed the overall density of the proposal, said that fire protection was inadequate in the unincorporated area and objected to the development's "bisection" of a natural parkland.

The commission's recommendation that the parcel be annexed to the city will be considered at the June 27 city council meeting.

The San Anselmo Planning Commission also:

TENNIS COURT — Granted fence and retaining wall variances to Robert Thompson, 85 Angela Avenue, who plans to construct a tennis "playcourt" in his backyard.

LOT SPLIT — Approved Donald E. Wudtke's application for a three-lot subdivision near Oak Avenue at Chipman Place.

COFFEE HOUSE — Approved Ted S. Smith's application for a use permit for an outdoor eating area and coffee house at 634 San Anselmo Avenue.

DECK — Denied Russell Johnson's variance application to retain an already constructed open deck at 205 Oak Springs Drive. The deck will remain in Johnson's backyard, pending a city council appeal.

PINTO RIDGE — Recommended to the San Rafael Planning Commission that the 182-acre Pinto Ridge project proposed in San Rafael be denied. The North Pacific Construction Co. proposes to build 270 townhouse units and 25 single-family homes on the ridge parcel in West San Rafael, bordering on San Anselmo.

Education Board Hikes Pay For Nonteaching Employees

The Marin County Board of Education last night approved a 5 per cent salary raise for its 180 nonteaching employees.

According to Robert E. Spain, assistant superintendent, no board member asked exactly how much the increase would cost. There was no need, he said, "because the budget figure for these salaries is in the $800,000 region, so they can figure out how much five per cent involves."

In January classified employees of the county board got raises averaging 2.8 per cent. These were not across-the-board raises, said Spain, but increases resulting from reclassification of positions.

The county has about 122 full-time classified employees, and part-timers, bringing the total to 180.

The board of education has so far approved a proposed budget of $1,412,640 for 1972-73, which represents a tax rate of 20 cents per $100 assessed valuation as opposed to last year's tax rate of 23 cents, said Spain.

The board stood firm last night in its policy of refusing to disclose names of applicants for vacant board positions despite advice from Asst. County Counsel Richard V. Godino that names could now lawfully be kept confidential.

Names of the other four applicants for the board seat given to William L. Sisk of Novato last month will not be released, said Spain.

The Marin County Board of Education also:

TRANSPORTATION — Approved a budget of $307,274 for transportation in the fiscal year 1972-73, up from this year's total of $301,616.

REGIONAL OCCUPATION — Approved part C of the regional occupation program budget in the amount of $372,158; the increase over this year's figure of $238,987 includes provision for three new classes — motorcycle repair and maintenance, auto air conditioning, and marine maintenance and repair — and increased student attendance.

CHILDREN'S CENTER — Authorized application for $48,107 in federal funds for the children's center at College of Marin.

BASIC STUDY — Delayed approval on adoption of the Basic Course of Study for Marin County Elementary School districts after asking to see more thorough documentation.

MAINTENANCE — Awarded the bid for custodial and mainteance services at the three children's centers at Manzanita, Novato and San Rafael to Hagel Services, 80 Belvedere Street, San Rafael, low bidder at $20,040.

MEETING DATES — Changed board meeting dates from the first and third Mondays of each month to the first and third Tuesdays; the board's next meeting will not be until July 18.

Planned Shopping Area — $8 Million To Larkspur'

Location of the new regional shopping center in Larkspur's Bon Air site would mean $8 million worth of improvements to the community, the Larkspur City Council decided last night.

Sitting as the city's redevelopment agency board, councilmen committed the city to spend $8 million under the Redevelopment Act by the use of tax increment bonds — contingent upon the shopping center being located at Bon Air.

City Mgr. Kent B. Bathurst said councilmen declared the money would be spent on perimeter road improvements to the shopping center, including modification to access roads.

Other city improvements would include construction of a pedestrian bridge across Corte Madera Creek from South Eliseo Drive to Piper Park; development of Piper Park itself; relocation of the coproration yard; improvements to Magnolia Avenue, and the acquisition of four acres of land to house a new public safety building, a library and city hall.

Bathurst said the construction of the fire and police building is included in the $8 million.

Formal commitment to finance the bonds by the redevleopment agency is contingent on development of the Bon Air site with a shopping area of between 800,000 and a million square feet, Bathurst said.

Councilmen repeated their objection to the town of Corte Madera's proposal to extensively remodel the Lucky Drive intersection at Highway 101 if the shopping center should be located on Corte Madera's site, he said.

Road Upgrading Is Cut At Novato

The project was planned to extend from Lu Sutton School to Wilson Road, but nine property owners in the center of that stretch opposed it because they didn't want to dedicate property and also pay for frontage improvements.

Councilmen reviewing the $2,831,530 budget for 1972-73 last night agreed to reduce the project so it will extend from Wilson Avenue to just past Margery Court, City Mgr. Charles A. Brown said.

Brown said the council also received a request from the city's downtown implementation committee to include $1,500 in the budget for legal fees in the event the city should decide to enter into a redevelopment project in the downtown area.

During budget deliberations the past week, the council had cut $7,150 from the recommended budget and added $8,500, Brown said.

The council will hold a public hearing on the preliminary budget at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Novato Community House.The Novato City Employees Association is expected to make its recommendation on salaries, and local organizations are expected to make their bids for city funds.

Novato Area Growth Seen As Swelling

The Novato Planning Commission, which has been revising the city master plan with an eye toward a population of 70,000 by 1990 in the Novato area, now feels it may have to plan for 90,000 persons.

Planning Director Brian W. Mattson reported that commissioners last night reviewed potential limits on growth such as airport noise, an earthquake fault and bay plain restrictions.

Setting a population goal of 70,000 would mean 27,000 more persons, occupying about 9,000 housing units, settling in the Novato area in the next 18 years, Mattson said.

This would mean about 500 new housing units a year and Novato is growing at a faster rate than that, so commissioners instructed the staff to study the 90,000 population, Mattson said. A "refined" study on growth limitations at both 70,000 and 90,000 population will be presented to the commission
July 3, he said.

The commission is working on revisions to the Novato Area General Plan, based on a future population of 147,000. The area extends beyond the city coundaries and includes Black Point.

Teacher Salary Plan Adopted

A new salary schedule for teachers in the Tamalpais High School District was adopted by district trustees last night with an across-the-board raise of 3.25 per cent and a .97 per cent increase in medical-dental plans, a total settlement of 4.2 per cent.

Trustee David D. Ring said that the cost-of-living increase would absorb the $117,000 previously anticipated surplus in the district's proposed 1972-73 budget.

No other action was taken on the $10,810,063 preliminary budget, scheduled for a special meeting next Monday. However, trustees spent nearly an hour on a largely philosophical discussion over the relationship between educational planning and budgeting.

The board's meeting was held in Tamalpais High School's new $349,000 student center, the first formal function there.

Designed to form a focal point for school activities, the building is for both student and faculty dining and meetings and entertainment.

Raymond J. Bell, Tam High's principal, formally dedicated the center to the memory of Mary McCurdy Baker, the assistant principal who died in January, and the faculty dining room to Edmund D. Thomas, a district board member for 26 years.

A reception before the board meeting was hosted by the Tamalpais High School Parent-Teacher Association, in honor of the school's new educational leader, Dr. Lawrence Sehppard.

The Tamalpais High School District Board also:

UPHOLSTERY — Was asked by William G. Fleckles to retain the adult upholstery class after the district's lease on a facility on Miller Avenue expires in September and told Supt. Wilber D. Hawkins to seek housing for the class.

NEW COURSES — Gave first hearing to two new courses for Tamalpais High — home repairs and maintenance, and cross-age teaching.

CANADIAN TRIP — Gave a first hearing on a proposed summer trip to Canada by Redwood High School Students.

VOCATIONAL — Adopted the vocational education plan for the district which will submit the district's application for $47,000 in federal funds.

'Save Schools' Fund Plea Short

The Petaluma Save Our Schools Committee netted $1,000 from a benefit theater party last night, but the group believes its fund drive has fallen short of a $34,000 goal.

Committee members today began tallying proceeds from various fund-raising events and said they would present a full accounting to Petaluma Schools Supt. Lesly H. Meyer late today or tomorrow.

The group was formed in May to raise money to keep six elementary schools off double sessions and to halt the closing of a seventh, Grant School due to fund shortage in the district.

Committee member Gwendolyn Adkins said initial reports indicate the goal has not been reached, although reports are not complete. She said persons who returned pledge cards but have not yet sent checks to the committee will be contacted later this week to bolster the drive.

A Council Designed For The Seniors

The following was prepared by Ed Ryken, executive director of the Marin Senior Coordinating Council, Inc.

"In Marin County there has been more than a decade of activity by and in behalf of the county's 20,000-plus older adults which has resulted in a county-wide awareness of their problems, the liabilities which hamper them, and the assets they possess.

"In 1966 after three years of exhaustive study, the Citizens Advisory Committee developed and published 'A Master Plan for Older Adults in Marin County, California.' At this time, with the help of an Older Americans Grant from the California Commission on Aging, the Marin Senior Coordinating Council, an incorporated non-profit group, was assigned by the County of Marin the work of implementing the Master Plan. Early in 1967 this council, now under professional staff, was designated by the board of supervisors as its committee on aging. In April 1969 the Marin Senior Coordinating Council, Inc. was appointed as the citizens advisory committee for the Workable Program. The council has made rapid advancement in the implementation of its assigned projects.

"There is a need to increase public concern with the special needs of the aging in Marin County, to recognize the challenges these needs present to public and private organizations and to understand the largely untapped resource that our older citizens represent for the improvement of our society. While old age itself is not preventable, some of its problems are. The need to help the older members of this community in their search for constructive answers to problems has been recognized and is the aim of the Marin Senior Coordinating Council.

"Donations to Marin Senior Coordinating Council, Inc. are tax deductible and can much aid its work.

Roth Cited By Patrol For Accident

Attorney Hadden W. Roth, a former Marin County Municipal Court judge, was cited yesterday by the California Highway Patrol for unsafe passing, after a collision with a 19-year-old motorcyclist on Nicasio Valley Road.

The cyclist, Dennis A. Nuttman, of 75 Valley Road, San Anselmo, was treated at Marin General Hospital for bruised thighs.

According to the highway patrol, Nuttman at about 8:30 a.m. was making a left turn off Nicasio Valley Road, about one half-mile south of Lucas Valley Road when struck by Roth's car.

Roth had pulled out to pass the motorcycle, then noticed that it was making a left turn into the Mar Ghi Ranch, the patrol reported. The car's brakes locked and it skidded into the cycle, knocking it more than 80 feet, according to the patrol.

Roth, 42, of 29 Rock Ridge Road in Woodacre was a municipal court judge from 1966 to 1971. He is currently a member of the San Rafael law firm of Goldstein and Roth.

Airlines Find HAFB Building T-93 Unfit

Two commercial airlines have indicated no interest in renovating building T-93 at Hamilton Air Force Base, Marin County supervisors were told today.

Public works director Ray W. Foreaker Jr. told the board that representatives of Hughes Air West and Air California both have inspected the aging building and found it unfit for repair.

The board, on Foreaker's recommendation, voted unanimously to lift its hold on destruction of the entire building. (Supervisor John F. McInnis was absent due to ill health.)

The building, which has been in the eye of a storm over joint military-civilian use of the air base, originally was considered as a possible civilian airline terminal.

Last week, at the request of the Air Force, the board lifted its opposition to destruction of the southern one-third of the building to make way for new construction.

Benjamin R. Ostlind, a long-time proponent of joint use and opponent to destruction of T-93, told the board today another building is in the offing.

Burglar Takes Antiques

A burglar, who pried open a window to gain entry, took about $600 in wares from a display case at Judy's Antique Shop in Almonte between 4:30 p.m. June 10 and 10:30 a.m. June 12, sheriff's deputies reported yesterday.

BIRTHDAY QUIZ

By GORDON B. GREB

Try this quiz today, June 20, on the birthday of the late Errol Flynn (1909-1959), Hollywood movie adventurer.

T F 1. This tall, devil-may-care film actor had an Irish name but he was born in Australia and spent his youth roaming around the South Seas.

T F 2. Seeking his fortune, he went to England where his good looks persuaded him to try out for the London stage and he did so well that Warner Brothers Studio asked him to take a screen test.

T F 3. In Hollywood, Errol Flynn was catapulted into fame in 1935 as the swashbuckling "Captain Blood" and he was a boxoffice favorite again again and again, as "Robin Hood," "The Sea Hawk," or some other dashing hero. His co-star was Olivia de Haviland.

T F 4. During World War II, Flynn was commissioned a U.S. Army major, led a combat mission into Burma, and returned with enemy invasion plans of Australia in hand and a Japanese colonel as a prisoner.

ANSWERS

1. TRUE—Flynn was born in Tasmania, a large island south-east of Melbourne.
2. TRUE—He was signed to go to Hollywood at $150 per week.
3. TRUE—Olivia de Haviland co-starred with Flynn in eight romantic escapades.
4. FALSE—Errol Flynn was rejected as 4F by all the armed services because of a bad heart condition.

Mike Gallagher

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

A Player Must Always Be On The Alert Of The Breaks

You must play a hand for a key suit to break well if a normal break leaves you with no real chance for the contract. Abandon this reliance on good luck if an extra play for your contract suddenly develops. As a Roman bridge player by the name of Horace once wrote the man of true virtue is not dependent on good fortune — but he never despises it.

EAST FORCES ACE

West opens the deuce of diamonds, and East's ten forces out your ace.

You immediately lead a low spade toward dummy. You must tackle spades before drawing trumps because dummy's king of hearts may be your final entry to some good spades.

West plays a low spade, and dummy's queen wins. You lead a low trump to your ace and lead another spade.

WEST MUST TAKE

West must take the ace of spades. He now leads the jack of diamonds. You cover with dummy's queen, and East wins with the king of diamonds. East now returns a low club.

You cannot afford to play low, for the opponents would take a spade, a club and two diamonds. Hence you hop up with the ace of clubs and lead the queen of hearts. You plan to cash the queen and then the king of hearts, after which you will lead the king of spades from dummy in the hope of running the suit.

CHANGE OF MIND

Just then West follows suit with the ten of hearts, and you change your mind. This lucky break allows you to reach dummy twice in the trump suit. It is no longer necessary to hope for good luck in spades.

You overtake the queen of hearts with dummy's king and ruff a low spade with the jack of hearts. Then you lead the three of hearts to dummy's eight. This leaves you in position to cash the king and ten of spades, assuring the contract.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealer, you hold:
♠- K Q 10 6
♥- K 8 2
♦- Q 8 6
♣- J 10.
What do you say?

ANSWER: Pass.

You have 11 points in high cards, but the values in clubs and diamonds are doubtful. Avoid opening a borderline hand if you must count points for queens and jacks that are not accompanied by higher cards.

Jewelry Buyer Robbed Of $112

A San Francisco jewelry buyer who had been hitchhiking was robbed in San Anselmo last weekend by a man who picked him up, police reported yesterday.

Wallace Evans, 49, told police that the driver of a tan Dodge pulled a steel blue revolver and took $112 from him near Calumet Avenue Saturday.

Dike Building Hit; Big Pollution Case

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The State of California has filed a Superior Court suit charging this city's Port Commission with polluting San Francisco Bay and demanding fines totaling $2.1 million.

The suit was filed by the attorney general's office in behalf of the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board and concerns a shipping terminal the commission is building at India Basin.

In dispute is a dike being built around the terminal to protect barges. The board says the dike is being built of "decomposable, organic materials, particularly small pieces of wood."

Port Director Miriam Wolff declared, "we say and our chemist says that wood does not decompose."

The complaint by deputy attorney general Roderick Walston holds that some debris is allowed to float away, releasing sulfide which starves the water of oxygen and leaves a "highly odorous" condition."

In his suit, Walston noted the board on June 10, 1971, had issued a clean up and abatement order against the commission and later a cease and desit order.

Since the commission has "failed to adopt measures that would correct the violations," the suit asks that the commission be fined $6,000 a day from June of last year for the $2.1 million total.

Judge Carl Allen ordered the commission to show cause June 30 why it shouldn't be restrained.

Cyril Magnin, Port Commission president, said the suit came as a surprise since corrective measures had been ordered months ago.

"If nothing else, the staff has been negligent in keeping us informed."

"If someone is found at fault, they will be disciplined," he added.

Mrs. Irving Goes To Jail

NEW YORK (UPI) —Edith Irving, 36, began serving a two-month prison term Monday for her part in her husband Clifford's Howard Hughes autobiography hoax.

Mrs. Irving and her husband, 41, were sentenced Friday on mail fraud and conspiracy. Irving was sentenced to 2-1-2 years in prison and is scheduled to begin serving his time Aug. 28. In addition, each was fined $10,000. Irving's researcher for the bogus autobiography, Richard Suskind, received a six month jail sentence.

Irving's attorneys indicated they will file an appeal for him.

Russians Study Air Pollution

DETROIT (UPI)—A team of Russian scientists flew to America's automotive capitol today after a special visit to Los Angeles Monday to study the city's air pollution problems.

The four Russian scientists, on a special exchange program tour of the United States as guests of the Environmental Protection Agency, had especially asked to visit Los Angeles.

"They were concerned about all phases of air pollution," according to Jim Birakos, director of special services for the Los Angeles County Air Pollution Control District—the largest local pollution fighting agency in the world.

Restrooms At Pentagon Now Say 'Private'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — To confuse any bomb-bearing visitors to the Pentagon, the "Men" and "Women" signs on several of the restrooms nearest the offices of top defense officials have been replaced by signs reading "Private."

The bulk of the 280 restrooms —including the rebuilt ladies' room blasted by a bomb May 19—remain prominently marked "Men" or "Women." The "Private" signs have begun appearing only on the smaller restrooms as the Pentagon is being repainted and new door signs put up throughout the world's largest office building.

Any potential bomber deciding to walk into the first door marked "Private" might be further confused when he stumbles over a business conference, because dozens of doors to ordinary offices are also marked "Private."

Marshland Development Opposed

By JAY GOODWIN

The Mill Valley City Council last night reaffirmed its opposition to filling four acres of marshland in East Mill Valley — between the Hi Ho Motel and Goodman's Lumber Co. — and recommended that the Bay Conservation and Development Commission withhold a permit for the proposed project.

The council previously had opposed the application for a filling permit on March 20, before the municipal election in April swept three new councilmen into office.

The application before BCDC was submitted by Bayside Properties, a four-man partnership which owns seven acres of marshland west of Highway 101. According to its representative, M. Reed Hunter, Bayside Properties wants to construct an office park on four of those acres.

Councilman Robert E. Capron led the charge against the filling application. He grilled Hunter for specific details of the proposed office development and the suitability of the existing dry land as a building site.

Capron and Councilman Robert E. Burton stressed the importance of preserving the marshland rather than covering it with dirt or asphalt.

Hunter told the council that Bayside Properties had not finally determined what it would construct on the proposed site. He stated that three of the seven acres were already partially filled, so the present application was only requesting permission to fill an additional one to two acres.

Hunter further stated that if the council prevented Bayside Properties from using its property, the partnership might seek a remedy in court.

Burton replied that he resented what he took to be a threat of a lawsuit by Hunter.

Hunter appealed to the council to uphold the owners' right to use their land for commercial development. "I think the property owners were entitled to assume that they would be allowed to use the property consistent with the zoning," said Hunter.

Burton disagreed, stating that community attitudes on the preservation of ecologically valuable marshland were changing and that such assumptions were unwise.

On a motion by Capron, the council unanimously repeated its recommendation to the BCDC that the application be denied.

The matter comes before the commission July 6.

In a related action, the council heard a staff report on a draft ordinance which would enable the city to prohibit all excavation, filling and construction in the marshlands area in East Mill Valley.

Modeled after a county filling and excavation ordinance and the legislation that created BCDC, the draft ordinance would permit the city to prohibit filling projects like the one requested by Bayside properties.

Currently, the city has no such authority.

Mill Valley Parking Studied

The Mill Valley city council last night mulled the possibility of a commuter parking lot at the south end of the Tamalpais High School athletic field, but took no formal action on the idea. (See page 9 for related story on Tamalpais High School District board).

The vague concept was not a formal proposal for the council's consideration but it still aroused opposition from the Almonte Improvement Club.

An improvement club representative said the commuter lot near the Almonte bus stop would "constitute an island in the middle of our neighborhood."

The idea of the commuter parking lot grew out of the independent research of Councilman Robert E. Burton. He told the council he had sought out possible sites for a commuter lot that could replace parking spaces lost in the Miller Avenue reconstruction project.

The site near Tamalpais High School, Burton said, belongs to the Tamalpais High School District. He said he already has approached the district superintendent inquiring about the property.

When the Tamalpais board was presented with the idea, said Burton, "All hell broke loose."

According to Burton, the board said the district had plans to use the area for science classes. The Little League claimed it had plans to use the area for a ballfield, he added.

Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce President Samuel W. Schneider said he had spoken to the engineer of the Golden Gate Bridge District about the parking lot idea.

The engineer, according to Schneider, expressed interest in the concept. He further indicated that the bridge district might be willing to pay all costs of constructing a parking lot if the City of Mill Valley pays to fill in marshland, Schneider said.

The total cost of the proposed 220-space lot was estimated at $88,000, of which about $15,000 would be spent on fill.

The Mill Valley City Council Also:

SEWER FEES — Denied a request from H and C Electronics to refund $1,000 in sewer fees, stating that the two additional $500 fees were applicable to both new tenants in the firm's building at 250 Camino Alto.

ARTS FESTIVAL — Granted final approval to the fall arts festival organizing committee to use Boyle Park Sept. 30 and Oct. 1, subject to conditions arranged with the police, fire and parks and recreation departments.

ZONING — Referred to the planning commission the task of drafting an ordinance that would significantly strengthen the city's authority to regulate the use of property in commercial zones.

YOUTH JOBS — Endorsed a proposal by Steven A. Bajor to create a youth job cooperative designed to locating employment for Mill Valley youths, but rejected Bajor's request for financial support.

ENCHANTED KNOLLS — Referred to the planning commission a request for an appropriation of $15,000 for the development of a playfield near property owned by Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

MEETING — Adjounred to a closed meeting at 6 p.m. today to meet and confer on labor negotiations.

"Look, Martha. A real helping hand."

For one thing, there are actual words printed on it. Not just code numbers you have to chase all over the page.

Words like checking account. Each check is listed in numerical order. And if one is missing, there's an asterisk to call your attention to it. (A little thing like that can save a lot of time when you're trying to reconcile your account.)

Words like daily balances. Any day that anything happened to your account, there is a daily balance listed. In order, of course.

And Ready ReservAccount/ Master Charge. This part shows charges, payments, advances, transfer fees, interest, everything. And again, there are real words! Not hieroglyphics.

If you like, we can even include your savings account summary and/or your loan summary for the preceding month. Including interest paid, deposits, withdrawals and balance for each savings account you have, as well as loan number, payment and balance for each loan you have with us.

Plus the usual stuff you're already used to seeing, like beginning checking account balance, ending balance, and Ready ReservAccount/Master Charge credit line summary.

In short, Ready Reference is banking-made-easy. It's sort of like painting by the numbers. It doesn't make you an expert, but at least now you can do it.

Ready Reference Statement. Just one more part of a unique package of personal bank services we offer you when you open a personal checking account.

Court Fight In Baseball

WASHINGTON (UPI) — As could be expected, ballplayers lined up on one side of the field and management on the other today following the refusal of the U.S. Supreme Court to act against baseball's antitrust exemption and the controversial reserve clause.

There was also indication that further court action may come from the players.

Perhaps the strongest reaction came from St. Louis catcher Ted Simmons, who refused to sign his contract with the Cardinals earlier this year. Simmons was obliged to play anyway when Cardinal management invoked the renewal clause.

After hearing of the Supreme Court's decision on Monday, Simmons said in St. Louis that if he was forced to play again under the same clause he would seek support of the Major League Players' Association and perhaps initiate suit to test the legality of the contract provision.

"I want to sign my contract," said Simmons, who was offered $25,000 by the Cardinals but wanted $30,000. "Being a free agent is not my intention right now. If my contract is renewed again, I'd have reason to take action."

By a 5-3 vote, the Supreme Court ruled Monday that professional baseball is immune from antitrust law, although conceding that the sport is now a "big business" engaged in interstate commerce.

In the majority opinion delivered by Justice Harry A. Blackmun, the Court said the antitrust exemption "rests on a recognition and an acceptance of baseball's unique characteristics and needs."

This latest challenge of baseball's protective reserve clause had been brought by Curt Flood, who refused to report to the Philadelphia Phillies after being traded in 1970 by the Cardinals.

Flood brought a damage suit against the two major leagues on grounds of violating both federal and state antitrust laws, charging specifically that the reserve clause amounted to slavery.

The baseball establishment, which was threatened by the possibility of overhauling its oyerations in dealing with players, was overjoyed at the decision.

"The determination of the Supreme Court is helpful to all of us in professional sports in that the court has clearlq restated its views on a number of important sports matters," said Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.

"I think the decision is constructive in its recognition that baseball has developed its present structure in reliance on past court decisions. The decision opens the way for renewed collective bargaining on the reserve system after the 1972 season. I am confident that the players and the clubs are in the best position to determine for themselves what the form of the reserve system should be and that they will both take a most responsible view of their respective obligations to the public and to the game.

"Any desirable changes should be the product of mutual agreement so that there will be assurance that all concerned are prepared to live with and support the result."

American league president Joe Cronin said he was "very

TOMORROW

Net Tourney At Mill Valley

Youth will not be served in Mill Valley tomorrow.

Tennis balls will, however, as the 14th annual National Men's 35 Hardcourt Championships get underway at the Mill Valley tennis club. Top players from across the nation in the 35-and-over age bracket will compete.

Most notable entry will be Don Kierbow of Carmichael, who won in singles and doubles last year and will be back to defend both titles. He is seeded No. 1 in both events. His doubles partner is Whitney Reed of Alameda.

Play will continue for five days, with finals scheduled for Sunday.

Only one Marin player is seeded in the tournament — John Williams of Tiburon, who along with Jack Bowker of Sacramento is rated eighth in the doubles.

The doubles seeds after Kierbow-Reed are Mayne and Hugh Ditzler; Landin and Schmidt; Don Gale and Bob Hill; Greg Grant and Jerry De Witts; Nelson and Gil Rodriguez; Pete Berwick and George Yardley; and Bowker and Williams.

A total of five Marinites will be involved in singles play tomorrow. At 9 a.m., Hugh Tierney of Belvedere will play Terry Cooke of San Mateo. At 10, David Sheldon of San Rafael will meet Reed, and at 11:15 Bob Seymour of Mill Valley will confront Van Smith of Newport Beach.

In the afternoon, Jack Barone of Mill Valley will face Brown at 12:15 and Keith Klussman of Mill Valley will confront Grant at 1:30.

Doubles play begins Thursday. Marin teams involved include Jack Barone and Mike O'Neill of Mill Valley; Bob Sockolov of San Rafael and his brother, Morrie, of San Francisco; Tierney and Ed Atkinson; Howard Morehouse of San Rafael and Bill Hoogs of Berkeley; Stan Altschuler of San Rafael and Dick Dresel of Greenbrae, and Bowker-Williams.

Top seeded singles players Kierbow and Landin draw first-round byes. Mayne will meet Larry Goldbeck of Vallejo at 10 a.m. Schmidt will play Frank Johnson of Pacific Grove at 11:15 a.m. Collas will battle John (Sandy) Walker of San Francisco at 2:30 p.m. and Nelson will confront Barry Nathan of Palo Alto at 3:45.

BIG KICK — eight-year-old Jeff Mayer stepped forward to boot a soccer ball held by a Marin soccer instructional camp colleague yesterday in Ross. The five-day instructional program, geared to promoting soccer interest in Marin, concludes Friday; the program runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. under a staff headed by Stanford University soccer coach Fred Priddle, his assistant Marty Krumm, and Lowell High School of San Francisco soccer coach Ernie Feibusch.

Nine Marin Golfers In Tournament

Nine Marin County golfers will be among 212 top amateurs who will compete Monday in regional qualifying for the 61st California Amateur Championship.

The 36-hole, medal play qualifying will be played on the Ocean and Lake courses of the Olympic Club in San Francisco.

The Marinites are Robert A. Joyce of San Rafael, James C. Fitzpatrick of Novato, Robert M. Ireland of Sausalito, Mat Palacio Jr. of San Rafael, Bob Cranston of Sausalito, Pete Nielsen of Mill Valley, Richard Thompson of Sausalito, John Steddin of San Rafael and Gary Shemano of Tiburon.

The 95 low scorers Monday, plus five who are exempt because of high finishes in last year's tournament, will advance to the state qualifying July 10-11 at Pebble Beach and Cypress Point.

There, the the field of 200 (100 Northern Californians, 100 Southern Californians) will be pared to 64 for the match play championship at Pebble Beach July 12-16.

Novato's Elijah Win In 7-Mile AAU Ridge Run

Novato's Ron Elijah won the Amateur Athletic Union's Novato Ridge Run Saturday at Hill Junior High School in Novato, and he goes on to the Junior Nationals steeple chase at Denver Friday.

He turned in a 39:35.0 clocking over the seven-mile course in defeating a 190-man field. Elijah won the Mill Valley Dipsea cross country race last year.

BIG KICK FOR KIDS IN SOCCER CAMP

Stanford University head coach Fred Priddle and assistant Marty Krumm join Ernie Feibusch, coach at Lowell High School of San Francisco, in directing a soccer clinic at Katharine Branson School in Ross daily this week through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Some 40 boys are learning the soccer fundamentals of trapping (catching), passing, shooting at goal, defensive and offensive tactics, plus other individual and team skills.

Feibusch, who is the director of United States Olympic soccer development activities in Northern California, works with the Stanford coaching tandem in seeking to promote soccer with this clinic, according to Bob Braghetta, a Marin soccer promoter and clinic spokesman.

"We're trying to develop Marin youths' interest in this game. This (clinic) is one way we hope to accomplish this goal," Braghetta said.

He added, the program includes working on individual skills in the morning, lunch followed by afternoon games. The soccer contests will often be broken down into various parts or "bits," according to Braghetta.

"By 'bits' I mean that in one game, we might have all the kids kick the ball strictly with their left foot, or, maybe, just their right foot.

"This way," he continued, "we are exposing the kids to the important aspects so they will know what to do when situations come up in a game."

Epstein Blasts Two Homers In Win, 7-4

A's Beat Tigers At Oakland

OAKLAND (UPI)—Muscular Mike Epstein has banged 1,250 feet of homers in two days, but he still says the Oakland Coliseum is a pitcher's park.

He whacked circuit clouts 10 and 11 Monday night and then walked with the bases loaded to lead the A's to a 7-4 win over Detroit Monday night in the battle of division leaders. The triumph shoved Oakland four games up in the American League West while Detroit is one length up on Baltimore in the East.

Like homer number 9 Sunday, Epstein's two shots Monday were tape measure jobs well over 400 feet in length.

But he grumbled after the contest that the Coliseum "is the worst hitter's park in the American League...You've got to hit it all to get a homer here. There are no lucky home runs in this park."

Manager Dick Williams always likes the purist's plays over crudities such as homers and so it was not surprising that Epstein's blasts did not excite him as much as the

Beckert's Disputed Hit Lifts Cubs Past Giants

CHICAGO (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants, a team which used to live by the long ball sword, is now dying by that weapon.

Chicago Cub second baseman Glenn Beckert yesterday belted a controversial double to help the host Cubs edge the San Francisco Giants.

In what turned out to be a legal 11th inning homer —but a hotly disputed one —the Cubs came from behind Monday when Beckert doubled home Don Kessinger in the 11th inning to give the Cubs a 7-6 victory.

The Cubs stretched their winning streak to six games and the pitching victory went to Jack Aker, the third Cub reliever after starter Bill Hands was routed in the fourth inning. It was Aker's second win in two decisions. The loser was Jerry Johnson, who came on for the Giants in the ninth and yielded only one hit until Kessinger singled after one out in the 11th.

Jim Hickman drove in two runs with his seventh homer of the season in the first inning and Ron Santo belted his eighth to pen the four-run fourth.

Garry Maddox hit a three-run homer for the Giants in the second inning and the Giants scored three more runs in the fourth on singles by Willie McCovey, Maddox, Al Gallagher and Jim Howart.

Beckert's 11th inning homer wasn't as safe as looked, though. After the game, there was considerable speculation about whether or not the ball was in play —as it was eventually ruled.

Beckert hit the ball to Wrigley Field's 368-foot sign in left center. Giant Centerfielder Garry Maddox leaped for the ball, and it bounced above him and back into the playing field.

"A fan touched it," said Maddox after the game. "He reached out and grabbed for it. That's why I couldn't get it."

Had it been ruled a ground rule double at that point, Kes-

Sonoma Vs. Marin Grid Set Nov. 18

The "Super Bowl" of local high school football — a post-season contest between the Marin County Athletic League and North Bay League champions — will be held Saturday evening November 18, at Santa Rosa Junior College, MCAL commissioner George Corson confirmed today.

A four-man committee, with two representatives from each league, met yesterday at the Petaluma Inn to finalize arrangements for the season-ending gridiron battle.

"They (The NBL) will be the host this year," Corson said, "But we expect to play back and forth in the future," if all goes well.

The revenue from the gate, after expenses, will be split 50-50 between the two leagues, Corson said.

The "bowl" will take place one week following the close of the league football slate for both representatives, according to Corson. He admitted that the extra week of football might hamper wrestling and basketball practice schedules, but said, "We don't have any league matches or games for the winter sports until January, so it shouldn't have too great an effect."

Each league is to determine its own process for determining a representative in case of a tie. The MCAL, according to Corson, is considering a tie-breaking recommendation by the coaches and athletic directors consisting of the following points:

1) In the case of a two or three-way tie, the team that had the best record in games against the other tied teams would be the league's representative.

2) In case the game(s) between the tied teams were also ties, the "best league representative" would be determined by a vote of the other league coaches.

Drake Basketball League Tonight

It's becoming fashionable to gripe about the ever-lengthening basketball season, which is spreading out across the calendar like crabgrass across your once-noble lawn. At Drake High School, however, nobody's complaining.

In fact, the time has come for another annual installment in Drake's flourishing summer basketball league.

Play will open tonight in the high school division and tomorrow night in the adult division, and will run until the end of August.

In the adult division, Olympic Club of Marin will attempt to retain the championship it won last year. It figures to get strong opposition from Buresh, Vallarino, Costamagna and Claxon — which is not the roster, but merely the name of the sponsoring law firm.

Buresh, as it is known for brevity's sake, will feature Drake all-everything Reg Carolan and former Golden State, nee San Francisco Warrior George Lee. Former Warrior and Cardina Cougars coach Tom Meschery, visiting Lee for the summer, may also play.

The adult division ends with a contorted playoff system designed to keep things interesting. The first-place team plays the third-place finisher, No. 2 plays No. 4, and the winners of those games meet in the finals. If the first-place team wins the playoffs, it is crowned league champion. If not, the first-place team and the playoff winner have a post-playoff playoff, and the winner of that is the champ. Whew.

In the high school league, teams are composed essentially of players from one high school. Redwood, a perennial power in the Marin County Athletic League, flies the banner of Shaw's Ice Cream in the summer league and is defending champion.

Other high school teams are San Marin (Chuck Moore Insurance), Drake (the Pirates), Lowell of San Francisco (Cardinals), Tamalpais (Gilmore Photo), Terra Linda (Trojans), San Rafael (Bulldogs), Riordan of San Francisco (Crusaders), Montgomery of Santa Rosa (Vikings), St. Ignatius of San Francisco (Bob's Cats), Marin Catholic (Wildcats), and Novato (McGillicuddy Construction).

Adult league teams are Blue Crystal, Taveggia-Brusati, McGillicuddy Construction, Paradise Pharmacy, Flying Tigers, San Rafael Travel, La Tolteca, Perry's Poor Boys, Buresh and Olympic Club.

Safety Classes And Hunting Accidents

By AL GIDDINGS

With the hunting season beginning to roll around, now is the time to enroll in one of the local hunter-safety course classes offered in the county. The Hunter-Safety Program has been a success. Hunting casualties totaled 70 in 1971, including 10 fatalities.

This is below the 16-year average of 101 casualties, which has fluctuated from a former low of 79 to a high of 132. The number of fatalities is also below the 16-year average of approximately 19 per year. How did some of these accidents happen?

A 16-year-old boy in a duck hunting area shot at a sparrow with a .22 rifle. The bullet struck a duck hunter, 150 yards away, in the back.

A double-barrel shotgun discharged when a boy, 12, loaded and closed the action near his home. The shot penetrated the house wall and wounded his father in both legs.

Shooter, 15, stalking ducks, fired his shotgun into decoys thinking they were ducks and wounded a duck hunter in a blind near the decoys.

HUNTER, 16, fatally wounded himself when he fired his faulty 12-gauge shotgun. The shotgun was held together with tape and the safety was faulty. A test of the firearm revealed it would discharge when jarred or dropped.

Shooter, 22, returning from hunting, sat down on the seat of his automobile without unloading his rifle, leaving the door open. His rifle, pointed downward at the auto door, discharged. The bullet passed through the door of the vehicle, striking the roadway, and a fragment of the bullet wounded his companion.

Quail hunter, 72, shot both a quail and his hunting companion in brush when the companion strayed from the prearranged hunt plan.

DEER HUNTER, 27, jumped off a tree stump while carrying a lever-action rifle with exposed hammer on full cock and finger on the trigger. The jar of jumping to the ground caused the hunter to pull the trigger of the loaded rifle, shooting his companion through both legs.

Shooter, 20, a passenger in a pickup truck, had his loaded rifle leaning on the seat between himself and the driver with the barrel pointed upward. As the pickup went over a bump the shooter reached for his rifle, which discharged and seriously wounded a hunter standing in the rear of the pickup leaning over the cab.

Victim, 12, holding his shotgun by the barrel, handed it to his companion, 12. As the companion reached for the stock of the shotgun it discharged, fatally wounding the boy holding the shotgun by the barrel.

Duck hunter, 13, after shooting a duck, leaned his loaded shotgun against some tules. As he went to retrieve the duck, his dog knocked the shotgun off the insecure rest; the gun discharged and wounded the hunter.

DUCK HUNTER, 78, fatally wounded himself when his loaded shotgun discharged as he stumbled and fell on rough, muddy footing.

Rabbit hunter, 25, was killed when his hunting partner, 31, shot in his direction just to "scare" him. The shooter has been charged with manslaughter.

Rabbit hunter, 19, riding in an automobile with a loaded shotgun between the driver and himself, was fatally wounded as he started to step out of the automobile while taking his loaded shotgun out with the muzzle pointed toward himself.

League Wins Tough To Get For Orioles

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The Baltimore Orioles may have easily won the 1971 American League pennant, but they are finding 1972 a bit more trying.

The Orioles, like the Detroit Tigers who lead the Maryland nine by a game in the American League Eastern Division, have found winning difficult, particularly on the West Coast.

The Orioles lost 4-3 to the California Angels, while the Tigers bowed 7-4 to Oakland.

In other American League games, the Boston trounced Texas 12-0, while Cleveland and Minnesota were rained out.

Lee Stanton, who had been hitless in his 20 previous at-bats, tripled home two runs in the sixth inning and scored the winning run on a single by Leo Cardenas as California overcame a 3-0 deficit against Baltimore. Bob Grich hit a two-run homer for the Orioles.

Reggie Smith hit two home runs and Rico Petrolcelli and Danny Cater had one each for the Red Sox, who coasted to victory behind the three-hit pitching of Sonny Siebert. Ted Kubiak collected two of the Texas hits.

Heavyweight Clark In Sacramento Fight

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Henry Clark will defend his heavyweight crown next month in Sacramento against Fred Preacher Lewis, it was announced Monday.

STRE-T-C-H — Detroit second baseman Dick McAuliffe extended his right foot to keep from over running first base as Oakland first baseman Mike Epstein (5) stretched to take a tardy toss in an unsuccessful third inning triple play try at the Oakland Coliseum last night. The play began when Detroit center fielder Jim Northrup lined out to Oakland second baseman Larry Brown. Brown whipped the ball to shortstop Bert Campaneris to double up Detroit pitcher Joe Niekro at second. Campaneris then fired the ball to Epstein, seeking to beat McAuliffe back to first, but McAuliffe returned safely. Oakland won, 7-4.

"I haven't had a chance to review the full opinion, but in my 47 years of experience in professional baseball, I never felt the terms of the uniform players' contract or the assignment of my contract detracted from my human dignity," said Cronin, a Hall of Fame shortstop.

"The reserve clause preserves the absolute integrity of the game, equalizes the competition and gives each club the opportunity to promote its very expensive player development program."

Calvin Griffith, owner of the Minnesota Twins, and Bob Short, owner of the Texas Rangers, also expressed their satisfaction.

"Of course we're delighted with the verdict," said Griffith, and Short said he was "overjoyed for baseball, not that Flood lost."

Marvin Miller,Executive Director of the Major League Players' Association, called upon Congress to step into the matter.

"Like all other pro sports under the safeguard of the anti-trust laws, the present state of the law is an 'aberration' that should be corrected by the Congress," Miller said. "We feel confident that the Congress will accept the court's clear indication to act in this matter and we will be cooperating fully with the Congress to achieve that result."

singer would have had to stop at third, but umpire John Kibler ruled the ball was in play, and Kessicger rounded second as left fielder Bernie Williams ran the ball down.

Williams threw to the cut off man, shortstop Chris Speier, who threw for the plate as Kessinger raced home. The throw was right there. Catcher Dave Rader reached for the ball and spun around to tag Kessinger, but the Cub runner had slid around the backside of the plate a split-second before Rader tagged him, and it was all over.

Cub manager Leo Durocher said that subsequent television instant replay "showed it clearly. The ball hit the home run net and bounced back."

The Cubs installed a net in front of the wall a few years back after some youngsters had fallen off the wall and broken their legs. "There's no way a fan can touch the ball if it's in play," said Durocher. "He'd have to reach across the wall first and the net is four feet wide. The only way a fan can reach the ball is when it's in the net."

The Giants will get another chance today when Juan Marichal (2-10) goes up against Chicago's Burt Hooton (6-4).

Bill Verbiscio of San Rafael was third in the 125 cubic centimeters mixed class and fourth overall at the Virginia City, Nev., Grand Prix motorcycle races Sunday.

In that meet Saturday and Sunday, Bob Candrian of Larkspur took a fifth in the 125 novice category.

Sohner Wins Twice

Sohner Tree Service of San Anselmo edged Greyview Farms, 4-3, and Mertle Chevron, 3-2, in a Santa Rosa "A" Softball League doubleheader.

OAKLAND

As nearly 30,000 watched, Epstein bombed a homer behind a Sal Bando single and then a solo shot off starter Joe Niekro. But Detroit fought back with three off John Odom with Norm Cash's 13th round tripper leading the way. Bob Locker finally quelled a Tiger rally in the eighth.

In the bottom of the eighth, the A's got singles from Joe Rudi, Reggie Jackson and Bando off loser Chuck Seelbach.

Fred Scherman replaced Seelbach and Epstein sweated out the key walk. Dave Duncan also walked and Scherman was yanked for Phil Meeler, who tossed a wild pitch to score Bando. George Hendrick's sacrifice fly made it 7-3.

Detroit got one back in the ninth but Locker still got his fourth win in as many decisions and Oakland had its fourth win in a row while Detroit had a four-game win skein snapped.

In tonight' rematch, it will be Jim Hunter (6-3) for the A's and Joe Coleman (8-5) for the Bengals.

Meanwhile, Larry Brown came up with a back problem and was placed on the 15-day disabled list. In April, starting second sacker Dick Green underwent surgery for a slipped disc and won't be back in action until around Sept. 1.

After Brown's injury, Oakland promptly called up utility infielder Tim Cullen from its Iowa farm club, where he was hitting .275.

Cepeda Back With Atlanta

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

ATLANTA — The management and Orlando Cepeda patched up their differences Monday and the hard-hitting first baseman was reinstated by the Atlanta Braves.

The former San Francisco Giant batting .333 despite trouble with a knee, had stalked out in a huff Saturday when he found he wasn't listed in the starting lineup. The club promptly suspended him.

Eddie Robinson, the Braves recently appointed Director of Player Personnel, said he met with Cepeda and Braves Manager Luman Harris Monday and talked over the problems.

"I am pleased to announce that everything has been resolved," Robinson said.

Football

Tennis

LONDON — Stan Smith of the U.S. and Australia's Evonne Goolagong have been made official favorites for the singles titles in the Wimbledon Lawn Tennis Championships which begin Monday.

They head the seeding lists issued today, which contain several unfamiliar names in the absence of contract professionals who are not competing. Smith was runner-up in the men's event last year.

But the major shock is the omission from the men's singles list of the American Clark Graebner. He will have to fight his way through unseeded despite having, by far, the best all-round grass court record of any of the competitors this year.

Golf

CHICAGO — Twenty golfers earned the right Monday to challenge defending champion Bruce Crampton and other "name" golfers in the $150,000 Western Open which starts Thursday.

Among the qualifiers was Joel Hirsch, an amateur who shot a sparkling 68 over the Rolling Greens Country Club, a course considered similar to the acreage at Sunset Ridge Country Club where the open is to be played through Sunday.

General

WASHINGTON — Howard Cosell says Congress should establish a federal commission to regulate sports with its first job a probe into the high price of tickets.

Cosell, a sports commentator for the American Broadcasting Co., also suggested Monday in an appearance before the Senate Commerce Committee that there be no TV blackouts of major sporting events.

DiMaggio Play Opens Tomorrow

When Dan Abballo went to Redwood, did he take his secret pennant-winning formula with him?

That is the question in the minds of Marin County's Joe DiMaggio League players as they prepare to open their 1972 season with a schedule of four games tomorrow evening.

Abballo coached Drake to South Division championships the past two seasons, but this year moved over to Redwood (sponsored by the Italian Athletic Club). He will have a good nucleus to work with, since most Joe DiMaggio players are the same ones who played high school ball the month before, and Redwood was the Marin County Ahletic League champion.

San Rafael (Holiday Magic) also has a fine history behind it, with two straight North Division titles under coach Dan Maglione.

Somebody's parsonal dynasty must end this year, however.

The league is down to only eight teams and no longer can qualify both its divisional champions for post-season play.

The North-South division will remain, but the two champions will play off at the season's end to determine the representative to the state playoffs. Last year, both divisional winners qualified, but both were eliminated in regional play.

The four teams in the North are San Rafael, Terra Linda (Bank of Marin), Novato (Annex Motors) and San Marin (Villa Builders).

In the South, there is Redwood, Marin Catholic (Toby's Truckers) and Tamalpais, who is supported by an as yet unannounced sponsor.

San Anselmo-Fairfax (formerly Drake) will field a team funded by "independent sources that do not wish to be named" according to coach Dick Creighton.

The 14-game season will run through Aug. 9, and the playoffs will follow.

N.L. ROUNDUP

Pirate Explosion Rips Dodgers, 13-3

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

National League pitchers who are already shell-shocked by the rat-tat-tat attack of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates haven't experienced anything yet if four-time batting champion Roberto Clemente is right about himself.

Clemente went into Monday night's game with the Los Angeles Dodgers with a .318 season average but a feeling that he hadn't yet hit his stride. He felt considerably better after hitting a homer, driving in three runs and setting a club career RBI record in the Pirates' 13-3 triumph.

"For the first time this season I felt really aggressive at the plate," said Clemente after raising his average to .325, and helping the Pirates move back into first place in the National League's Eastern Division.

Manager Bill Virdon's comment probably came closer to reflecting the feelings of the 15,430 fans at Three Rivers Stadium and the national TV audience.

"I don't think there's another 37-year old around who can do the things Roberto can do on a ball field," said Virdon. "To me, it's just impossible."

Al Oliver also drove in three runs for the Pirates who kayoed Don Sutton in 5 2-3 innings and made it easy for Dock Ellis to pick up his sixth victory of the year with relief help from Bob Miller.

Larry Dierker's one-hitter enabled the Houston Astros to beat the New York Mets, 3-0, the Chicago Cubs downed the San Francisco Giants, 7-6, and the Montreal Expos defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 2-0, in other National League games. San Diego at St. Louis and Philadelphia at Atlanta were rained out.

Doubles by Dave Cash, Clemente and Manny Sanguillen and a triple by Oliver produced three runs and a 5-1 Pittsburgh lead in the fifth inning. Clemente's RBI tied him with Pie Traynor for the club career mark of 1,273 and he set a new mark when he homered in the eighth.

Clemente explained after the game that he didn't tip his cap to acknowledge the cheers of the crowd out of respect for Traynor, who died recently. The game was seen on TV in Clemente's native Puerto Rico where he is a hero on the level of Willie Mays and Hank Aaron.

Dierker allowed only a single by Duffy Dyer in the third inning as he turned in the second straight one-hitter by a Houston pitcher. Jerry Reuss also pitched a one-hitter on Sunday and Houston pitchers have allowed only two hits in their last 19 innings.

Cesar Cedeno's double, a walk and singles by Lee May and Tommy Helms gave the Astros two runs in the seventh and May singled home the third run in the eighth.

Mill Valley Netter Earns Pacific Win

Mark Strasser of Mill Valley was both a winner and a loser yesterday in the first round of the Pacific Coast Junior Tennis Championships at the Berkeley Tennis Club.

Strasser was defeated in his match in Boys 18 singles, 4-6, 6-2, 6-2, but won in Boys 16, 6-1, 4-6, 6-1. Sue Beatty of Tiburon was defeated in Girls 18 singles in straight sets, 6-2, 6-1.

All-Female Staff Will Advise Male Customers In A New Shop

A men's fashion store, where an all-female staff will advise the male customer on what looks best on him, will open July 1 at Lark Creek Shoppes near Lark Creek Inn, Larkspur.

To be called Far Out West, it will open at 250 Magnolia Avenue, formerly occupied by Chelsea Handcrafts, which closed last week.

Owners of Far Out West are Janet Silva of Larkspur and Mary Jane Feiner of San Francisco, the energetic young women who started The Little Lark women's shop there about a year ago.

Far Out West will carry contemporary classic clothes, nothing as informal as jeans or as stuffy as suits, but everything in between — sports coats, knit pants, dress shirts, printed shirts and ties. Sports coats and pants will all be coordinated, with an eye to colors and fabrics that appeal to women.

"We will sell only what we like our men to wear," said Miss Feiner. She has had four years experience with Koret of California and a year with Levi-Strauss in San Francisco. She noted that old ideas on men's clothes began to change about eight years ago, with increasing use of colors and fabrics previously monopolized by women.

"We thought we'd incorporate this new trend into action, have an all-female staff and give your male customers positive ideas on what we like to see them wear," said Miss Feiner.

Store hours will be 11:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. six days a week. Later on, the girls plan to have fashion shows at the adjoining Lark Creek Inn, and keep the store open about one or two evenings a week to coordinate with the fashion shows.

LARK CREEK SHOPPES still has space for a fine antique store. Skip Sommer, manager of the property, said 800 square feet are available between the new Far Out West and the Aragorn Art Gallery. Interested parties can reach Sommer at Lark Creek Inn.

W. KENNETH DAVIS of San Rafael, a vice president in Bechtel Corporation's Power and Industrial Division, has been elected to a three-year term on the Council of the National Academy of Engineering.

The academy is an honorary organization whose members are elected in recognition of important contributions to engineering theory and practice.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Upswing Seen For Maker Of Dresses

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I would appreciate your views on Aileen, Inc. (NYSE). What are prospects for this year and next? S.C. & M.N.

A. A drop in earnings and revenues has been reported by this dress manufacturer for the last two quarters. Dyed yarn, which was in short supply, was the major factor in production cutbacks during November and February quarters. This situation is expected to carry over into the May period as well. With backlog and incoming orders at record levels, the production line down-time has been particularly difficult for the company. However, a solution is in sight as in-house dying capacity will be increased sharply by the August quarter when a 400,000 sq. ft. plant addition is scheduled to be completed.

In spite of the vagaries of the world of fashion and the excessive competition in the industry, Aileen has an unusually good earnings growth record. A 15 per cent compound average annual growth rate was achieved in the five years through 1971. Shares should be held for their strong recovery potential.

Q. When cash is paid for a fractional share balance in a stock dividend, what is the payment based on? Is it net worth, market value or an arbitrary figure chosen by the company? — H.D.

A. The fractional shares due in cash are paid on the basis of the market value for the stock on its ex-dividend date.

Q. What are the advantages of a mutual bond fund over a stock fund? Are there any no-load bond funds? — R.S.

A. These two types of funds serve the needs of different types of investors. The former offering above-average income coupled with capital protection and the latter, capital appreciation potential plus a more modest income return. To my knowledge there are no bond funds sold without a load fee. These fees, however, range from 1½ per cent to 8½ per cent. I have prepared a list of recommended income funds including bond funds which might be of interest to you. Please send a stamped self-addressed envelope to Roger Spear, San Rafael Independent-Journal.

Airlines Aid Opening Stock Bids

NEW YORK (UPI)—With a boost from airlines issues, the stock market moved slightly higher during the first two hours Tuesday., Trading was moderately active.

Advances led declines, 680 to 464, among the 1,529 issues crossing the tape. The two-hour turnover amounted to more than 5,750,000 shares.

Analysts said investors have found some issues attractive following recent declines. Airlines apparently received some impetus from an analyst who discussed them, generally in favorable terms, in a Wall Street Journal article.

SEVEN ACCOUNT executives from Marin County will take part in E. F. Hutton & Company's celebration this week of its 67th anniversary in San Francisco and the 50th anniversary in the same building at 160 Montgomery Street.

Hutton, the oldest New York Stock Exchange member firm in San Francisco, was formed in 1904 and was the first New York-based brokerage firm with a direct coast-to-coast wire for the benefit of their customers.

Account executives from Marin, who work in the San Francisco office, include Wallace Sheehan Jr., Jack Loughmiller, Thomas Foley, Allen Wright, Milbrey Casey Jones, John Stark, and Doublas Levine.

How Big Is Your Life Insurance Protection Gap?

Higher prices, higher incomes and higher standards of living have created a fast-widening life insurance protection gap. So much so that if you haven't increased your life insurance in the past year your family is probably under-protected today.

Back in 1950, financial experts recommended that a family man should carry life insurance equal to 2½ times his yearly income. In 1960 they recommended moving up to 3 times income. Today, the experts say your family should now be protected with "life insurance amounting to 5 times your annual income as an absolute minimum."

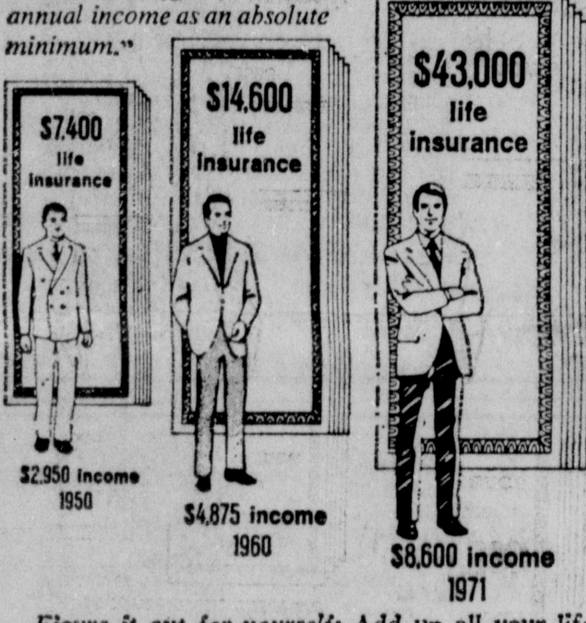

Figure it out for yourself: Add up all your life insurance; then figure your large debts (mortgage, car, etc.). You'll probably be shocked to learn that even "5 times" won't leave your family very much for necessities of life and your children's education. You'll surely see the need for at least $10.000 more protection.

Now Everyone Can Afford $10,000 Extra Protection At These Low Direct Rates

If you're an employer — Chances are you don't carry enough personal life insurance. This plan gives you your own personal policy that you can keep no matter how often you change jobs — an extra $10,000 life insurance over and above any of your company or union benefits — at low direct-from-the-company rates.

If you're an executive — Because your family is used to a high standard of living, the insurance that may have been adequate only a few years ago just isn't enough today. (IRS regulations limit the amount of tax free insurance your company can provide for you.) But now you can easily add an extra $10,000 protection at these low direct-from-the-company rates.

If you're self-employed — You have to provide your own "company benefits" at your own expense. As a business proprietor or a professional practitioner, here for the first time is your opportunity to take advantage of company-type benefits and still get an individual policy. Give yourself an extra $10,000 protection at these low direct-from-the-company rates.

Annual Renewable and Convertible Term to Age 65 Policy PLC-39 with One Month Initial Term Insurance Rider R-39

The face value of this term policy does not decrease as you grow older. It remains level to age 65 for you and your covered wife, and to age 18 for your covered children. Premiums increase as your age increases each year as shown above. Level premium, cash value policies available under policy conversion privilege.

You Can Change To Another Kind Of Policy Later Children Get A Special Conversion Privilege

If you wish, you can convert your term policy to any kind of cash value policy — ordinary, 20-pay, endowment, etc. — any time within 5 years. (This conversion privilege reduces one year for each year you are over age 50 at issue date.) Regardless of your age or health you can convert your full $10.000, your wife her full $5.000, without any qualification whatsoever.

Special $10,000 Conversion Privilege For Your Children: Each of your children at age 18 can automatically convert to a $10.000 cash value policy, without any qualifications at all. This is truly a wonderful future advantage for your children, because it gives the highest value and lowest cost at the earliest adult age!

Full Protection

Extra Security

No matter how often you change jobs or how poor your health may become—we guarantee, right up to age 65, that we cannot refuse to renew your policy unless we refuse renewal on all policies of this form (PLC-39) in your entire state. And, while the rate increases as you grow older as shown in the rate chart above, no other changes can be made in your year-to-year rates unless rates are revised on this form throughout your state. You, of course, may drop your policy any time, for any reason.

You Get These Lower Direct Rates Without Sacrificing Benefits

Not one benefit has been cut out or reduced. The only things we've cut down are our costs of doing business.

By enrolling thousands of people at one time, without using salesmen, we've cut "sales costs" one of the largest single items of expense in life insurance. Secondly, by using the "quick-issuance system" and eliminating expensive examinations, we've cut "issue costs." And finally, because we only insure people in normal, everyday good health, we've been able to cut our rates down even more.

For us, it amounts to higher volume at a lower cost. For you it adds up to maximum benefits at minimum rates.

Direct Personal Service Everywhere Phone "Collect" Any Time

Our biggest "plus" is . . . DIRECT PERSONAL SERVICE! From our Direct Personal Service Center in Santa Monica, California we serve our many thousands of Direct-Rate policyowners all across America quickly and equally.

Friendly personal service counsellors — expertly trained to help you on any question about your policy — can be called any time from anywhere in the U.S. With your policy you'll receive a special "collect call" number. Whenever you call you'll be greeted by your personal service counsellor who will be ready to give you all the information you need.

Pay Nothing Now — Inspect Policy Free No Red Tape — Enroll Now!

You can qualify quickly and easily. Just answer the few questions on the Short-Form application frankly and completely and mail it today.

Qualifications are few . . . adult ages 18-55 . . . children 30 days-18 years . . . non-hazardous occupations . . . normal, everyday good health. If you meet these few requirements, you can qualify without the usual fuss and bother. There's no red tape and no one will call on you.

And there's no risk at all! Please don't send your payment now. As soon as you qualify, we'll send your Direct-Rate Life Insurance Plan for your approval. Take 10 days to make any comparison you wish . . . to talk to anyone you choose. Then mail your first payment. Your policy will go into effect as soon as your first premium is received. If, for any reason whatsoever, you decide you do not want to keep your policy, just return it. There's no obligation at all.

So you see, nothing is gained by waiting. Your rate will never be lower than it is right now and the sooner we receive your Special Short-Form Application, the sooner you'll be covered. A Quick Review of the Direct-Rate Life Insurance Plan

14 IMPORTANT QUESTIONS ANSWERED

1. Why do I need more life insurance now?

Because everything is higher today. The experts say you need insurance equal to "5 times your annual income as an absolute minimum." Add up your life policies, you'll quickly discover that you don't have "5 times," and will need at least $10,000 more.

2. How can I afford $10,000 more?

Enroll for $10.000 during this enrollment period at low monthly direct rates you can easily afford. (Example: age 35, $3.20 is your basic monthly rate. Rates increase each year according to rate chart above.)

3. Can I add $5,000 for my wife? My children for $1,000 each?

Yes. Three combinations are available. Family, includes you for $10.000, your wife for $5.000, your children for $1,000 each. Husband-Wife, includes you for $10,000, your wife for $5.000. One-Parent, includes you for $10.000, your children for $1.000 each. The rate chart above shows how you can protect your whole family for very little money.

4. How can you offer such low rates?

By enrolling thousands of people at one time, without using salesmen, we've cut "sales costs"—one of the largest single items of expense. Secondly, by using the "quick-issuance system" and eliminating expensive examinations, we've cut "issue costs." And finally, by insuring only people in normal, everyday good health, we've actually cut down our rates even more!

5. Will I get service when I need it?

Absolutely. Policyowners across America are served quickly and equally. With your policy, you'll get a "special number" to call "collect" from anywhere in the U.S. and talk with a service counsellor on any question you have.

6. Can I change my policy later on?

Yes. You can convert your term policy to any kind of $10.000 cash value life policy without qualifications. You may convert any time within five years if you are under 50 at issue date — one year less for each year over 50.

7. Can my wife and children convert, too?

Your wife can convert to a $5.000 cash value policy and each of your children at age 18 automatically qualifies for a $10.000 cash value policy.

8. How quickly are beneficiaries paid?

Immediately. The full amount is paid as soon as a claim is received and verified by us. If your wife or children are also insured, you are their beneficiary. You may change your beneficiary at any time.

9. Can I drop my policy? Can you drop me?

You can drop your policy at any time. We guarantee right up to age 65, that we cannot decline renewals or change your year-to-year rates shown in the rate chart above unless we do so on all policies (Policy PLC-39) in your entire state.

10. Is Pennsylvania Life licensed in my state?

Yes. Pennsylvania Life Insurance Company, founded in 1890, is licensed and regulated by 49 states, D.C. and Canada. We are a legal reserve company with hundreds of millions of dollars in force.

11. How is Pennsylvania Life rated?

"Very Favorable" by Best's, the Nation's leading authority on insurance companies. And Dunne's, another leading authority, has given us its highest policyholder's rating, "A Plus (Excellent)."

12. How can I enroll quickly and easily?

Just fill in the short form at the right. Select the plan that suits your needs: Family, Husband-Wife, One-Parent, Individual Adult. Enrollment age limits: 18-55 for you and your wife; 30 days to 18 years for your children. If you're in normal, everyday good health and in a non-hazardous occupation, you should qualify. Simply mail your Special Short-Form Application by midnight of the date on the form. On the "quick-issuance system" there's no red tape and no one will call on you.

13. Can I change my mind?

Of course. If for any reason whatsoever you change your mind, just return your policy within 10 days. There's no obligation.

14. Why should I enroll now?

Because your rate will never be lower than it is right now. Also, since conditions of health change without warning and could affect your qualifications, you should mail your application today! . .

Choose the Plan That Suits You Best

FAMILY PLAN
$10,000 for you
$5,000 for your wife
$1,000 for each child

If you have a young growing family, we recommend the Family Plan. You and your wife and all your eligible children — including future additions — are included under one low monthly direct rate. Example: At age 35 your rate is $3.20 + $1.40 for your wife (50% of the $2.80 rate shown for your wife's age of 32) + 32c for your children (10% of your premium) = $4.92 basic monthly rate for your entire family.

INDIVIDUAL ADULT PLAN
$10,000 for you

If you're a bachelor, career women, college student, veteran just out of service, or if you're a family man or woman and just wish to insure yourself — choose the Individual Adult Plan. You can cover yourself for very little money. Example: At age 35 your basic monthly rate is $3.20.

HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN
$10,000 for you
$5,000 for your wife

If you haven't started your family yet, or if your children are grown — you'll want the Husband-Wife Plan. You and your wife will be covered under one low direct rate. Example: At age 35 your rate is $3.20 + $1.40 for your wife (50% of the $2.80 rate shown for your wife's age of 32) = $4.60 basic monthly rate for you and your wife.

ONE-PARENT PLAN
$10,000 for you
$1,000 for each child

If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the One-Parent Plan. You and all your eligible children will be covered under one low monthly direct rate. Example: At age 35 your rate is $3.20 + 32c for your children (10% of your rate) = $3.52 basic monthly rate for you and all your eligible children.

Regardless of your plan, you may pay any way you choose — monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually. A modest 30c service charge is added to payments other than annual.

Dunne's Insurance Reports, another well-known authority, in its report to policyholders has again given its highest rating of "A Plus (Excellent)."

Budget Study At Midway Point; Trimming Slight

By ERIK M. INGRAM

Marin County supervisors passed the halfway mark yesterday in deliberations on a proposed $47.4 million budget by restoring some $60,000 in previously cut funds. (Other budget stories, page 5.)

The record budget, after four days of shuffling, adding and deleting funds, stands only about $120,000 less than the original document submitted by County Administrator John F. Barrows.

Going into yesterday's session on the public works department request, the board had made about $180,000 worth of cuts — reducing the anticipated tax rate of $2.765 per $100 assessed cluation to about $2.74 cents. By adding $60,000, that estimated rate jumped nearly 1 cent to $2.749.

The increase came in the Gnoss Field allocation for expansion of the airport to accommodate about 30 more airplanes.

Elsewhere in the multimillion-dollar spending program for public works, cuts equaled additions including $25,000 to financially troubled Survival Inc., a waste recycling firm.

Largest request in public works department came from its roads division, where $4,119,000 was recommended by Barrows and $4,121,000 approved by the board.

The $2,000 increase was inserted at the request of Supervisor Arnold M. Baptiste to finance roadside cleanup in West Marin by high school students this summer.

Major point of contention in the roads division request was prompted by Public Works Director Ray W. Foreaker's request for $450,000 for improving Bon Air Road in Greenbrae.

Barrows recommended the project be spread across two budgets to reduce the cost to taxpayers this year when several other major projects will be started.

The Bon Air Road project eventually will improve the intersection with Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and reroute the road further away from Marin General Hospital.

Foreaker told the board it would be cheaper to bid the total project at one time — during the spring — as opposed to delaying half of it.

In answer to supervisors' questions, Foreaker and his staff said the realignment of the road must be done to fulfill a contract with the hospital which is planning future expansion near the existing roadway.

The project was approved years ago when former hospital director Ernest N. Kettenhofzen was a supervisor.

The board, unwilling to go the extra funds this year, approved $225,000 and formed a special committee of Supervisor Baptiste and Winifred S. Frederick of the Irate Taxpayers Association to check with hospital officials on whether the road really must be realigned.

Other major road projects approved for funding are Sir Francis Drake widening, North and South San Pedro roads, Miller Avenue extension and Wolfe Grade improvements.

Under the newly formed land development and county surveyor division (previously engineering), the board rejected a recommendation to add two junior engineers, saying one is enough.

The approved engineer will work primarily in enforcement of various grading, creek and zoning ordinances. Barrows had recommended both be approved as part of his countywide environmental protection program which calls for additions also in the planning and health departments.

The land development and county surveyor division proposal, which includes the $25,000 for Survival Inc., was approved for $291,450, or $1,680 more than recommended. The difference is mainly the cost of Survival Inc., minus the deleted engineer.

The county buildings division, responsible for maintenance, including janitorial, was approved as recommended at $864,460. The division has 28 county buildings under its jurisdiction and contracts about $450,000 worth of janitorial services.

The board saved $2,700 from the $86,000 request from the county garage division with the deletion of a new pickup truck.

Supervisor Peter R. Arrigoni Jr., opposed, but was outvoted on purchase of a pair of three-wheel scooters costicg $3,250.

The approved budget for new vehicles includes trucks, mowers and a $45,000 vacuum for pickup up roadside brush clippings. Cost of operation is charged against other departments through vehicle "rental schedules."

Under flood control district budgets, $10,000 was added by Supervisor Michael Wornum to the Richardson Bay Flood Control District request to cover wet-weather drainage work.

Arrigoni, despite requests there be no taxes in the Ross Valley Flood Control District Subzone 9-A, included a 1-cent rate for creek maintenance.

Another creek inspector was added to the staff at the request of the Novato Flood Control District which will pick up the tab.

MOUNTAIN OF LOOT — San Anselmo Police Lt. Albert Howenstein checks part of the stolen property recovered from the home of David R. Massagli. Investigators said Massagli took $60,000 to $70,000 worth of belongings from Morningside Court area homes in the past two years, squirreling it away in his house, or possibly burying some of it in his carefully tended garden. They were continuing a search today with metal detectors.

Pilots Are Back On The Job

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Pilots went back to work today, ending a 24-hour worldwide strike demanding stronger action against airline hijackers. The walkout hit hard in Europe, Canada and South America, but the United States and Asia suffered only minor disruption.

The strike ended at 2 a.m. EDT.

In the United States, where the Supreme Court ordered pilots to remain on the job, only 1,500 Eastern and Northeast Airlines flights were canceled. All other U. S. carriers— including Pan American World Airway and Trans World Airlines, which fly abroad— operated normally.

Eastern said it was resuming normal service with the end of the strike and had used the past 24 hours to carry out maintenance work on its planes.

Canadian pilots joined the walkout.

The strike grew out of demands by the International Federation of Airline Pilots (IFALPA) that the United Nations take some action to stop airline hijacking. When the U.N. Security Council failed to take action by Monday despite several meetings between pilots' representatives and U.N. officials, the walkout was called.

However, members of the U.N. Security Council—composed of permanent representatives from the United States, the Soviet Union, China, Britain and France and 10 temporary members—met Monday and planned another meeting today.

U.S. Ambassador George Bush said after the closed meeting Monday that the five permanent members were not

$60,000 In Loot Found In Home

San Anselmo police today were toiling to sort $60,000 to $70,000 worth of burglary loot found in a home in the Morningside Court neighborhood.

They also were planning to use a mine detector to discover if David Richard Massagli, 33, whom they arrested, had other plunder buried in the back yard of his home at 23 Brookside Drive.

Rare fossils, seashells, rocks and scientific books stolen more than a year ago from Dr. Gordon L. Chan, College of Marin biologist, were among "a mountain" of loot recovered inside the house, Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani said today.

Chan said each of the rare objects had been carefully relabeled and mingled with Massagli's own collection, and the owner's name erased from Chan's books.

The house also contained numerous encyclopedia sets, 30 cameras, 13 television receivers, 10 sewing machines, power mowers, paintings "and even kids' shoes," Buchignani said.

San Anselmo police found Massagli hiding in the kitchen of the Laura Ratto residence at 30 Broadmoor Avenue, after the occupant heard the intruder and called officers. When caught, Massagli had a box of foodstuffs he had pilfered, officers said.

He later became violent in a patrol car, although handcuffed and dived out the vehicle's window while it was stopped near Sir Francis Drake High School. He was chased down on foot, officers said.

Massagli was to appear today in Marin Municipal Court on charges of suspicion of burglary, possession of burglary tools and obstructing an officer. He was held in lieu of $2,500 bail.

The variety of the loot in Massagli's home — all taken from homes in northern San Anselmo in the past two years, was unbelievable, Buchignani said.

Massagli, though unemployed, apparently didn't sell or get rid of the booty, the chief added. Neither did he drive a car —he used legpower or a handtruck. After the arrest, neighbors told police they recalled seeing him coming home late at night with large boxes, the chief said.

Scientist Chan and his wife said they were pleased at recovery of the scientific collection, but some of the family jewelry had not been recovered by this morning.

Arizona Denies Miranda Parole For Fourth Time

FLORENCE, Ariz. (UPI) — The Arizona Parole Board yesterday denied freedom for the fourth time to Ernest A. Miranda, who made legal history in 1966 when the U. S. Supreme Court overturned on constitutional grounds his 1963 kidnap and rape conviction.

The parole board voted unanimously to deny Miranda's parole from his two concurrent 20-to-30 year prison terms for kidnaping, rape and robbery.

When the decision was announced, Miranda was on the verge of tears and angrily asked if his parole denials would continue.

Laird Pins 'If' On Pact With USSR

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird testified today Congress should reject the missile agreement signed with Moscow unless it is willing to pay $1.3 billion more for new U.S. bombers and submarines.

Pressed at a Senate Armed Services Committee hearing on the strategic arms limitation talks (SALT), Laird said he could not recommend approval of the treaty unless Congress appropriates funds for the new B1 bomber and Trident submarine.

If Congress refused to fund the costly projects, he said he would recommend the construction of all 12 antiballistic missile sites originally contemplated. The SALT agreements limit the United States and the Soviet Union to two ABM sites each.

Construction of all 12 sites would mean rejection of the accords which President Nixon signed with the Soviet leaders in May.

All three programs —the SALT treaty limiting defensive ABM missilery, the executive agreement freezing deployment of offensive missiles for five years and the new strategic weapons —are tied together, Laird said.

"Without one, I believe the national security requirements are jeopardized," he said. "I do believe it would be a great mistake to refuse to provide funds for the new weapons."

Laird testified the Soviet Union has initiated a series of

Plans Set On Recall Of Mayor

A group of Corte Madera residents, embittered over a large townhouse development on the eastern side of the town, prepared yesterday to recall the town's mayor, Holmes S. (Pete) Norville. (See other Corte Madera stories, page 8).

The move was led by Larry P. Weingarth, president of the Marin Estates Homeowners Association, who filed with the town clerk a notice of intent to circulate petitions calling for a recall election.

The Meadowsweet Station development, a 528-unit project for which initial plans have been approved, was only the final straw, Weingarth said today. The larger issue, according to Weingarth, is "preservation of Corte Madera's remaining open spaces . . ."

The homeowners' group president said "we have given consideration for some time" to recalling Holmes along with Councilmen Harold B. Wagstaff and Edward W. Colthurst.

It was decided, however, he said, to limit recall action to the mayor "in the belief that the other councilmen will take warning that we will no longer tolerate a nonresponsive council."

Only the two newest council members, Robert J. Flahive and Herber C. Leney, elected in April, who have voted against Meadowsweet plans, escaped the wrath of Weingarth's group.

Weingarth said in the notice filed yesterday "that the actions of the mayor of Corte Madera do not reflect the wishes of the people of Corte Madera. The mayor has supported developers and multiple density housing against the expressed will of the people who now live in Corte Madera."

Furthermore, according to Weingarth, "the mayor has not acted effectively to preserve the open space required to maintain the quality of life in our town for those who live here now."

These charges were denied today by Norville, who termed the recall effort the work of "a relatively small group of very strong-willed people who are insisting on having their own way."

Norville said the recall effort will "tend to polarize many of the feelings in the town to no really beneficial purpose."

Norville has seven days to respond to the statements in the notice, which then must be published along with the intent to circulate recall petitions. Twenty-five per cent of the registered voters must sign petitions before a recall election can be scheduled, Weingarth said.

Moratorium Put On New Development

By NELS JOHNSON

The San Rafael City Council slapped a sweeping moratorium on new development last night as it served notice on county government that the city will go it alone in preservation of open space. (Another San Rafael Council story, page 9.)

The city council, backing its unanimous move to save presently undeveloped large parcels of land in the city, also set for Sept. 19 an election on a $2.3 million bond issue to buy that land. The bond issue would add 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation to the city's tax rate. A two-thirds favorable vote is needed to pass it.

The moratorium and bond proposal came after the city fathers adopted a resolution requesting that the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission exclude San Rafael from the proposed countywide regional park district.

San Rafael, with an assessed valuation of some $160 million, would pay 22 per cent of the park district's proposed funding and with no assurance or proportionate benefit to the city.

The council and staff agreed with Mayor C. Paul Bettini that "the quickest way for San Rafael to acquire what's left of our vanishing open space is to float our own bonds."

"The rest of the county has a couple of hot spots and we have about 10," added Councilman John A. Miskimen.

The council then set the date of the special election and the

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien announced today a $1 million damage suit against the Committee to Re-elect the President and five men accused of breaking into Democratic party headquarters.

O'Brien filed the suit in behalf of all Democratic voters in his capacity as party chairman. It cites civil rights laws protecting voting rights, charges invasion of privacy, and violations of the 1968 Safe Streets Acts forbidding wire tapping by private parties.

"As far as I am personally concerned, there is certainly in every sense a clear line (in this incident) to the Committee to Re-elect the President and therein developing a clear line to the White House," O'Brien told a news conference.

The suit named the committee, headed by former Attorney General John Mitchell, together with James W. McCord, a security officer for the committee who was one of those arrested early Saturday, and McCord's firm, McCord Associates Inc.

Also named were four other men arrested with McCord by police who said they found them in Democratic Party offices at the Watergate Office Building about 2:30 a.m. Saturday.

They are Bernard Barker, Eugenio R. Martinez, Frank Sturgis, and Virgilio R. Gonzales. All five men are now in the District of Columbia jail.

"We know that as of the moment of his arrest at gunpoint just 10 feet from where I stand Mr. McCord was in the pay of the committee for the reelection of the President, where he has an office, and of the Republican National Committee," O'Brien said.

Judge Rules Brown Act Applies To Public Agencies' Committees

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — A superior court judge ruled yesterday that the state's Ralph M. Brown Act applies to committees of public agencies even when they meet with less than a quorum of the parent board.

The rulling, affirming an opinion by the state attorney general's office, was issued by Judge Joseph Karesh.

The decision came in a suit brought by Harold Treskunoff, a San Francisco resident who protested being ejected from a meeting of the youth and education committee of the San Francisco Human Rights Commission two years ago.

Karesh said, "All standing committees are subject to the Brown Act and must be held in the open regardless of the fact there may be less than a quorum present."

His ruling overturned an opinion by former City Atty. Thomas O'Connor that the Brown Act did not apply when a committee met with less than a quorum of the parent board.

Deputy City Atty. Edmund A. Bacigalupi, who argued the case in the human rights commission's behalf, told the Independent-Journal today it was undecided whether the city would appeal Karesh's ruling.

He said the committee which was the target of Treskunoff's suit occasionally meets in private to discuss matters such as discrimination in employment. By gathering in closed session, he said, committee members have "determined they can be more effective" in deliberations.

State Atty. Gen. Evelle J. Younger affirmed in February an opinion by his predecessor, Thomas Lynch, that the Brown Act, the state's antisecret-meeting law, did not apply to committees without a quorum. Legislative Counsel George H. Murphy, however, said earlier that it did, expressing the belief that Lynch had misinterpreted an act exemption dealing with

Good news, Mrs. Cook. You've just won $43 by correctly naming the star of Channel 44's movie of the day, "Bad Day at Black Rock." The money may be picked up anytime in the next two hours from the trust department of Wells Fargo Bank in San Francisco.

Bad news, Mrs. Cook. It was a hoax.

That's what Chatty Cook of 30 Montecito Drive in the Country Club section of San Rafael went through June 12 when a caller told her she could win the jackpot by naming the star of the movie.

When she named Kirk Douglas, another voice purporting to be Jack Hunt, a station employee, told her where to pick up the money, according to sheriff's deputies.

She arranged for her husband to pick up the winnings, but before he went, he checked with the television station. They told him it was a phony. The movie, by the way, starred Spencer Tracy and Robert Ryan. Douglas didn't appear.

Alioto Wins In Tacoma

TACOMA, Wash. (UPI)— Cleared of bribery charges, San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto said he's going after "substantial" damages from government officials he accused of prosecuting him as part of a plot to keep from becoming governor of California.

Alioto, claiming Monday's federal court decision makes him the only elected official in the United States "with a certified record of purity," said he would file a malicious prosecution suit against former Attorney General John N. Mitchell and other officials.

U.S. District Judge Ray McNichols dismissed bribery, conspiracy and mail fraud charges against Alioto, former Washington state Attorney General John J. O'Connell and his former aide, George Faler.

The judge said that in the four weeks the government spent presenting its case, "I am left with an abiding conviction that a reasonable person would have reasonable doubts with regard to the guilt of the defendants." His decision cannot be appealed.

The three defendants were indicted by a grand jury in Seattle on charges resulting from a fee-sharing arrangement in antitrust suit settlements. In those cases, Alioto won $16.2 million for Washington public utility districts and municipalities from electrical manufacturers found guilty of price fixing.

A jury in Vancouver, Wash., earlier this year found in favor of Alioto and the two codefendants in a civil trial in which the state and several utility districts sought to recover fees paid for the antitrust case.

On his return Monday night to San Francisco, where he was elected to a second four-year term as mayor in 1971, Alioto labeled the prosecution in the latest case "political indictments."

Wiretap Decision Being Followed

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Justice Department said today it has halted all wiretaps of suspected domestic subversives which were outlawed as unconstitutional Monday by the U.S. Supreme Court.

The department still must consider whether to drop charges against several leftist militants or hand over evidence obtained by wiretaps.

Attgrney General Richard G. Kleindienst ordered wiretaps halted shortly after the court issued its 8-0 opinion banning the administration's growing use of eavesdropping without a court order in the name of "domestic" security.

Kleindienst said further surveillance will be undertaken under procedures that comply with the court's opinion. The court ruled wiretapping does not fall under the 1968 Safe Streets Act.

SENATOR SMITH

Maine Voters Back Veteran

PORTLAND, Maine (UPI)— Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, 74, the nation's only woman senator, kept intact her rapport with the Maine voters Monday by defeating a rich challenger half her age in the Republican primary.

Mrs. Smith, who swamped millionaire industrialist Robert A. G. Monks, 38, by a better than 2-1 margin, will face U.S. Rep. William D. Hathaway, 48, in the November election as both battle for political survival.

"Words cannot express my gratitude," the four-term senator said in a statement issued from her Washington office. "I sincerely appreciate the graciousness of my opponent...He waged a most vigorous, imaginative and impressive campaign."

Hathaway pledged to conduct "a tough campaign and to spend as much time as possible in Maine." The lawyer, who gave up his House seat to challenge Mrs. Smith's grip on the Maine electorate, said he has visited more than 40 Maine cities and towns since January and planned even more visits before November.

Hathaway beat Portland landscape consultant Jack L. Smith in the Democratic Senate balloting.

Returns from 602 of 629 precincts gave Mrs. Smith 71,107 votes and Monks 34,527. In the Democratic race Hathaway got 54,601, and Smith 5,653.

The silver-haired Mrs. Smith first went to Congress in 1940 and her trademark is a red rose pinned to her dress. With typical Yankee frugality, the childless widow campaigned only on weekends, spending just $10,000, had no professional campaign workers, no campaign literature and no television commercials.

B52s Give Support In Quang Tri's Recapture

SAIGON (UPI) — American B52s carried out a record number of raids inside South Vietnam today with nearly half of the strikes in support of a South Vietnamese drive to try to recapture Communist-held Quang Tri province.

B52s also pounded North Vietnam for the 13th consecutive day.

The U.S. command said the Stratofortresses flew 30 raids in the 24 hours ending at noon today compared with the previous record of 28 such strikes on April 30.

The bombers struck 13 times in Quang Tri province along with nearly all of the raids against Communist positions west of Highway 1.

South Vietnamese Marines heve been on the attack since Sunday against North Vietnamese positions on the coastal plain east of the highway. The B52 strikes in the foothills west of the road appeared aimed at squelching North Vietnamese 130mm artillery fire from high ground positions against the Marines.

The South Vietnamese drive was the first by the government to try to wrest back territory captured by the Communists in their offensive which began nearly three months ago. More than 2,000 South Vietnamese Marines were committed to the drive in Quang Tri and 123 Communist troops were reported killed Monday.

The U.S. command announced today the loss of one F4 Phantom jet to antiaircraft fire over North Vietnam and two helicopters shot down in South Vietnam with a total of five Americans killed and one wounded. The F4 was hit over land on Monday but the pilot got the plane over the Gulf of Tonkin and both he and his radar officer parachuted into the sea and were rescued.

Both crewmen were killed when an AH1 Cobra was shot down early today seven miles south of An Loc. Military sources said the Cobra was apparently downed by a Soviet-made SA7 Strella heat-seeking missile.

Flights of B52s struck North Vietnam for the 13th consecutive day, flying two missions within 40 miles of the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) separating the two Vietnams.

In the 24 hours ended at 5 p.m. Monday U.S. Air Force, Navy and Marine fighter-bombers flew 220 strikes against North Vietnam, most of them in the panhandle area far south of Hanoi.

Military sources said the South Vietnamese Marines "intend staying" in the northernmost Quang Tri province. President Nguyen Van Thieu announced Monday a three-month campaign to force all North Vietnamese troops from South Vietnam "permanently."

PANAMA CITY, Fla. (UPI)— Hurricane Agnes quickly fizzled in the tall pine country of the Florida Panhandle after it slammed inland from the Gulf of Mexico Monday, but it left an uncertain death toll in its path.

At least 13 persons died in Florida and Cuba from the storm. Authorities said an undetermined number of persons still was missing in the Okeechobee area, where tornadoes smashed six mobile home retirement parks.

Agnes, meanwhile, was blustering through South Georgia today with peak winds of 45 miles per hour, getting weaker as it moved further over land. The National Hurricane Center in Miami said at midnight the storm was in the vicinity of Albany, Ga., moving northnorthwest at 14 m.p.h.

The National Hurricane Center today also was watching a strong tropical depression 185 miles southwest of Bermuda which was threatening the finish of the Newport-to-Bermuda yacht race Ocean race gale warnings went into effect as the leaders of the 177-boat fleet, racing from Newport, R.I., were halted as they approached a 50 m.p.h. gusting wind, nearing the Bermuda finish line.

Agnes, the first hurricane of the 1972 season, killed six persons in Florida and seven in Cuba. But, for some fallen tree limbs and water damage, it did little property damage in the Florida Panhandle.

Panama City, with its huge resort beaches, escaped damage, although the beach hotels were emptied when tourists fled the onrushing storm Sunday. "We've had worse storms in winter," said Panama City Beach Mayor Dan Russell.

But at Okeechobee, where tornadoes struck six mobile home retirement parks killing four persons and injuring 41 more, workers still were searching for the missing.

Three tornadoes destroyed about 60 planes and heavily damaged 60 homes around an airport in Brevard County on the Atlantic coast—home of the Kennedy Space Center. Sheriff Leigh Wilson estimated damage at $10 million, but there was only minor damage at the space center.

Clashes Close Schools

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UPI) — All Rochester public secondary schools were officially closed today for the remaining three days of the school year following two days of racial clashes in a junior high school.

School Supt. John M. Franco said he took the action to avoid further disturbances. The decision was announced last night. Franco said he was acting on a recommendation by Police Commissioner John Mastrella in closing the schools.

Earlier yesterday, Charlotte Junior High School was closed after racial fighting broke out there for the second time in a week. Twenty-one persons were injured, none seriously.

Sihanouk Sounds Off

HONG KONG (UPI) — Prince Norodom Sihanouk, head of the Cambodian government-in-exile in Peking, says he will never accept a reconciliation, a compromise or partition of the Cambodian territory.

In his 35th message issued on Sunday, before he left Peking for a trip to Eastern Europe and Africa, Prince Sihanouk said. "I do not wish and will never wish to return to Phnom Penh to live by the side of the Lonnolite 'dogs'," referring to Cambodian President Lon Nol and his associates.

The message broadcast in full by New China News Agency (NCNA) today said the Phnom Penh government has become so "stupid" as to hope that certain "big powers will have the means and possibility to save it from final destruction by realizing a "reconciliation" or "compromise" between it and the Khmer resistance."

Rain Toll Climbing

HONG KONG (UPI) — The death toll in Hong Kong's worst torrential rain disaster in nearly a century climbed steadily today as rescuers reported finding more bodies under tons of mud and rock that slithered down a mountain side and buried an entire village.

The death toll stood at 90 and officials said at least 166 persons were still missing in the two hardest-hit areas. They held out little hope that any would be found alive.

More Hospital Time

SILVER SPRINGS, Md. (UPI) — Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace will not be moved until he recovers from surgery which removed a bullet lodged near his spine, according to his wife, Cornelia.

Building Blown Up

BELFAST (UPI) — Gunmen in their second attack on the Strabane Town Council blew up its office building today on the County Tyrone border with the Irish Republic.

Incendiary bombs badly damaged the Strabane Town Hall recently and the Council moved its offices to a three-story building. Today, three gunmen entered the building, ordered out the staff, mostly women, and then lit the fuse to a bomb.

Despite the warning several persons were hurt. Nearby shops were wrecked and downtown streets were blocked by debris.

A bomb explosion was reported during the night in the predominantly Protestant town of Ballymena, 40 miles north of Belfast, and 13 persons were wounded.

Tunnel Being Cleared

SOISSONS, France (UPI) — A diesel engine today began clearing the wreckage from the Vierzy tunnel in France's worst train wreck in nearly 40 years. Officials abandoned hope of finding any more survivors.

The 2,000-horsepower diesel pulled two mangled coaches from the southern end of the tunnel and officials said no one was found inside. The diesel will follow the same procedure until the tunnel is cleared.

The accident, which occurred Friday night 60 miles northeast of Paris, claimed 64 lives and injured 86. An estimated 50 persons were still missing.

TV's Dr. Welby Hailed As Family Doctor Boom

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The family doctor, who seemed to be going the way of the house call, is making a comeback in American medicine because his patients and peers have started to appreciate him.

And television's Marcus Welby also gets a little credit for the growth in both the number of general practitioners and the respect for them, a panel of family physicians told the American Medical Association today.

"I no longer feel that I'm the low man on the medical totem pole," said Dr. Sidney J. Kohle of Valley Stream, N.Y.

"People didn't realize how important the family doctor was because they could always get him," added Dr. Edward J. Kowalewski of Baltimore. "Things started changing when he wasn't there any more."

The changing attitudes are also found at medical schools, where degrees in family doctoring were granted for the first time this spring, and at hospitals, where nonspecialists once again find themselves welcome, the panelists said.

Black Will Leave White Neighborhood

GOODLETTSVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—Dr. Flournoy Coles Jr., a black professor at Vanderbilt University, says he's leaving the white neighborhood where his new $85,000 house was heavily damaged by arson fire.

Coles, who said none of his his neighbors "had shown any animosity," will use the same floor plan to build another home in an all-black section of this Nashville suburb. Fire Chief Jack Hunnicutt said the house, which was gutted Friday, was doused with coal oil.

Medical Uses Found For War TV Camera

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A camera developed to give American GIs in Vietnam eyes at night is helping doctors find out what goes on inside the stomach.

A $70,000 color television camera, complete with instant replay capability, is being used by doctors as a diagnostic and teaching tool, the American Medical Association was told Monday.

Color telecasts from within a living human stomach or other "hollow" organs with outside access are helping doctors detect early cancer, small ulcers and bleeding caused by aspirin or other medicine that can't be spotted by X-rays, Dr. J. Alfred Rider of San Francisco told the AMA annual convention.

'WE WERE WRONG'

Southern Legislator Switches On Racism

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI)— When he led Louisiana's fight against court-ordered school desegregation 12 years ago, State Rep. Risley Claiborne "Pappy" Triche thought he was doing the right thing. Monday he said he realized he was wrong.

Triche stood up to speak for two bills designed to protect racial minorities from employment discrimination. But first he said he had to explain his change of heart.

"I know what some of you think. I know what some of the people outside the halls of this House are going to think—'Oh, but listen to that segregationist. Isn't that the guy who offered all the segregation bills in 1960 and fought the battle to preserve segregation in our public school system?'

"The only reply I can make to that, gentlemen, is that yes, that occurred. And at that time in the state of development of the history of our state we thought that we were correct.

"And now we find that we were wrong."

Triche, who represents the southern Louisiana bayou country around Napoleonville, said he retired from the legislature in 1968, ending a 13-year tenure with no plans to run again.

"But there's one thing that drove me back," he said. "I did not want to leave my children with the legacy that their daddy was a bigot and a racist.

"I am not a bigot and a racist. I want my family and my citizens and my friends and my constituents and the citizenry of this state to grow out of racism and bigotry.

"Let us join hands with all the people of this state, black and white, regardless of race, creed or color, for the advancement and betterment of our state and nation."

During the early 1960s, Triche was Gov. Jimmie Davis' floor leader when the Louisiana Legislature was called into a marathon special session in an attempt to ward off federal court orders to desegregate public schools.

During the current session of the legislature, Triche is the chief House floor leader for Gov. Edwin Edwards, who has made racial equality one of the policies of his administration.

Moratorium Plea Will Be Considered Tonight

The San Rafael Planning Commission will meet at 7:30 p.m. today to consider extending a building moratorium to allow Mont Marin and Twelveoak Hill homeowners additional time to form an assessment district to preserve the balance of the Pimental Ranch as open space.

The planning commission meeting will be followed at 8 p.m. by a city council meeting on extension of the 90-day development ban.

Thieves Lift 'War' In Opera House Sign

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Thieves who may also have been pacifists have altered the raised bronze letters identifying San Francisco's "War Memorial Opera House."

There has been no immediate replacement because a city official said, "the climate hasn't been right" and the cost is estimated at between $300 and $400.

Dates For Story Hour

The Larkspur Library story hour series for preschoolers will be held on Thursdays, July 6 through Aug. 10, from 10 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. in the children's room, Janice Huey, librarian, has announced.

An Open Land Survey Slated

The Marinwood Community Services District board last night directed its open space committee to draw up a questionnaire and conduct a survey of community attitudes on open space acquisition.

"The committee was directed to find out, how much open space people want and how much they're willing to pay for it," Genevieve T. Bolding, district business manager, said.

She said that the committee, which has been working on the Marinwood open space situation since last March, last night presented the board with a preliminary inventory of open lands in the area.

She said that tax levies and short term bond issues were discussed as means to finance open space land acquisition, but that no action was taken pending the community doorbell effort.

The committee will meet next Monday in the community center at 8 p.m. to draw up a detailed questionnaire, she said.

Results of the community open space survey will be presented to the bgard in July.

The Marinwood Community Services District board also:

TRAFFIC — Directed staff to write a letter to the county department of public works pointing out traffic hazards on Lucas Valley Road. The board wants the county to install a flashing amber light at the intersection of Lucas Valley and Miller Creek roads, plus red stripes on all fire hydrant curbs.

SPRINKLER — Approved a $500 expenditure for the purchase of sprinkler heads requested by the parks and recreation department.

CONTRACT — Approved a $566 per month contract with the Upper Lucas Valley Homeowners Association for planting maintenance work, up 10 per cent from this year's $515.

APPOINTMENTS — Reappointed Robert Mann, George Whitaker and Wilbur Wright as fire commissioners, and Doris Overmyer, Irving Schwartz and John Bryan as district parks and recreation commissioners.

ADJOURNMENT — Adjourned to June 26 to discuss salaries and fringe benefits for district staff.

Hub Trustees Will Review Budget Again

The San Anselmo School District board will take another look at a preliminary $2,048,704 budget for 1972-73 when it meets today at 7:30 p.m. in the Red Hill School library.

Although the board reviewed the proposed spending program "item-by-item" without any cut or addition last week, Supt. Ivan D. Chappell said yesterday that "there may be some changes" made at tonight's meeting.

Trustees will consider the addition of a nonvoting student to the board, and will review the district's "alternative classes" program.

Popular Day Care Center Figure Loses Service Bid

By PAT ANGLE

A popular custodian and maintenance man, who has been like a father to many youngsters at three children's day care centers in the county, learned last night that his services will not be required next year.

Norman Gray of Sebastopol, who has held the contract for maintenance work at children's centers in Marin City, San Rafael and Novato, lost the contract to a San Rafael firm which underbid him.

Despite pleas from parents and staff members that the well-liked Gray be retained, the Marin County Board of Education (which operates the facilities) last night awarded the maintenance-custodial contract to Hagel Services of San Rafael.

The board acted after its legal counsel declared the State Education Code required that it must either give the contract to the low bidder or reject all bids and call for new ones. Two board members, Glen E. Robinson and Lee C. Richardson Jr. cast dissenting votes.

The 40-year-old Gray, who owns and operates Gray's Building Maintenance Service, had bid $22,680 for the work, while Hagel's offer was $20,640.

Gray's supporters contended that money should not be the prime consideration in awarding this particular bid.

Many children at the centers, which provide day care for children of low income families, do not have fathers and parents say that Gray (who has six children of his own) has stepped into that role for a lot of the youngsters.

In addition to his regular custodial-maintenance work Gray spends many hours playing with children at the centers, accompanying them on field trips and even bringing some of the youngsters to his small Sebastopol ranch for weekends. He also encourages the children to help him in his work and, for the last several years, has provided five or six summer jobs for youngsters in the neighborhood youth corps.

On several occasions he has delighted the children by bringing calves, goats and sheep from his ranch to the centers to show the children.

"Most of the kids even call him 'Daddy,' " said Marie Hendrix of Marin City whose daughter attends the Manzanita Center in that community. "He's really fond of the kids. If he goes, they will really miss him."

In a letter to the board of education, 22 staff members from the three centers also pleaded that Gray receive the maintenance contract.

They wrote that Gray "would not only be seriously missed, but create a void." They also said that, because of Gray's connection with the centers break'ins and vandalism have been "drastically reduced."

Gray himself said today he did not know if there was anything he could do to convince the board to reverse its decision on the contract, but said he intends to consult an attorney on the matter.

$2.3 million amount of the bond issue.

The tax hike — enough money to cover the annual principal and interest of the bond issue — would cost the owner of a $50,000 home $12.50 in additional taxes each year.

The council's initiation of the bond proceeding was made over the objections of Pierre W. Joske, county parks and recreation director, who warned that if the city issued $2 million in bonds "it would cost $4 million before you paid them off.

"Open space does not respect city boundaries," Joske said.

Councilmen agreed that the city would cooperate with the countywide district on overlapping open space parcels.

The council directed staff to develop an open space priority list, then turned its attention to an urgency moratorium ordinance and adopted the measure in short order.

The action bans development on any undeveloped parcel of two acres or more, or on any five undeveloped adjoining parcels, regardless of acreage. The ban, which includes all grading, excavation, filling and piling work — applies regardless of current regulations or zoning.

Lands on which development plans have been approved within the past 18 months, or where building permits have already been approved, are exempt from the measure.

The urgency moratorium — which runs for four months but may be extended for up to two years — was enacted to allow the city time to revise its general plan and zoning, slope and subdivision ordinances.

"At the time the 1966 general plan was developed, much less thought and concern existed in the community at large for such items as the preservation of open areas and degree of density," said City Mgr. James H. McCown.

McCown said state law requires that the city's general plan and its zoning ordinance be updated and "in conformity to one another" by January 1973. He pointed out that while the general plan would allow some 1,800 units on a 148-acre parcel near Smith Ranch Airport, the zoning of the site is unclassified.

Planning Director Herbert G. Hotchner said action was just "another protective layer" between the city and any proposed development. "Unless a developer can demonstrate that what he proposes is harmonious with our as yet unformed general plan, he can't get a use permit," he said.

Although Hotchner said that a "new development could be approved tomorrow," the city's ban action effectively puts a lid on all large parcel development until the general plan is revised.

The council authorized the soliciting of proposals from planning consultant firms for the general plan work, and then unanimously adopted the ban action — an across-the-board zoning measure entitled "general plan conflict combined district."

"I am pleased to note that the Justice Department may take this case before a grand jury," O'Brien said. "But I was appalled to hear that John Mitchell, a former attorney general who is now Mr. Nixon's campaign manager, tried immediately to make it appear that James McCord's employment by the Nixon re-election committee ended some months ago.

O'Brien charged "it's apparent to us now that there's been more than one incident. There are indications that this has been a continuing, long term activity."

He said the Democratic National Committee had information that a group of up to nine individuals, including some of the five arrested, were located in the Watergate Hotel between May 26-29.

Opens On Thursday

A headline in yesterday's Independent-Journal incorrectly stated that the Sonoma-Marin Fair opens Thursday. The fair opens Wednesday, as the accompanying article correctly said.

Warrant Issued In Attack Case

A bench warrant has been issued for the arrest of Jerry Amos Smith, 18, of Santa Venetia, who failed to appear in Marin Municipal Court on a charge of assaulting a sheriff's deputy with a knife. Bail on the warrant was set at $1,000.

Smith was arrested June 2 by sheriff's deputies who went to his home at 827 Hacienda Way to quiet a disturbance. Smith reacted by fending off two deputies with a knife, according to the officers.

He threw a knife at one deputy in the living room, but missed by about two feet, then rearmed himself and fled into the bedroom, but missed.

Smith surrendered only after being maced and tear gassed, deputies said.

IFALPA has threatened further strikes if the United Nations does not agree on some sort of international solution to the problem.

While most U.S. passengers were not inconvenienced, flights in Europe came almost to a standstill except in the Arab countries, where officials claimed the strike had "political implications," and in the Soviet Union, where the strike was ignored.

Paris' big Orly field was all but deserted, as were Rome's Leonardo da Vinci and Tel Aviv's Lod. The British Airline Pilots Association left it up to its members whether to fly or not and only 154 of 522 scheduled flights on British carriers left London's Heathrow airport.

Other airports that had almost no traffic were in Stockholm, Madrid, Brussels, Athens, Johannesburg, Belgrade, Zurich, Vienna and Frankfurt. Lisbon operated normally, as did Warsaw, which reported only one cancellation.

In Latin America, Mexico City closed its airport for the day, as did Montevideo, Willemstad and Caracas. In Buenos Aires, a bomb scare delayed the first of a small number of scheduled flights and in Panama City flights went out as scheduled.

Asia suffered little disruption. Japan Air Lines did not join the strike, nor did pilots in Australia or Vietnam. However, pilots for Air India and Air Ceylon joined the strike.

More Winners At Sunday Show

Antique car clubs, San Rafael Antique Car Club; 4-H floats; Point Reyes-Olema 4-H Club; club floats, Girl Scouts; commercial floats, Petaluma Cooperative Creamery.

Majorette over 16, Ramona Ann Winter; Majorette group under 12, Mindy Marionettes; Majorette groups 12-16, Vanettes Rockets; lady's drum corps, St. Mary's Chinese Drum Corps; senior pipe band, Cameron of San Francisco; junior pipe band, San Francisco Boy Scouts; ladies pipe band, Prince Charles Pipe Band.

Boy Condition Good After Pool Mishap

Mark Israel, 15, of 264 Via La Cumbre, Greenbrae, was reported in good condition today in Marin General Hospital, where he is being treated for a skull fracture suffered in a swimming pool accident Sunday morning.

Hospital spokesmen said Israel would go home today or tomorrow. No details of the accident were available.

SALT

The Russian testing disclosed by Laird was not covered by the strategic arms limitation treaty Nixon signed in Moscow in May.

But Laird pointed to the new testing as underscoring his contention that U.S. spending in areas not covered by the treaty and other accords must increase by $1.3 billion this year.

The money he seeks is chiefly for a new strategic bomber and a new submarine system which would be put into service in the late 1970s.

"Peace cannot be bought cheaply," Laird told the Senate Armed Services Committee, meeting to consider Senate ratification of the arms treaty.

Laird touched on the new Soviet testing in only one paragraph of a prepared statement he read to the committee. He said:

"During the past several weeks, the Soviet Union has been conducting a series of tests involving new ballistic missile programs, including multiple warhead technology. In addition, continued testing of existing systems is moving ahead."

That choice of language left unclear whether the Russians were testing a MRV (Multiple Re-entry Vehicle) or a MIRV (Multiple Independently Targetable Re-entry Vehicle).

In the case of MRVs, a single missile can carry several warheads to a target. With MIRVs, each of the multiple warheads can be aimed at a different target if desired.

The Soviets are known to have deployed MRV's in their huge SS9 missiles. But Soviet testing of a MIRV would be a new develolment.

The United States has MRV's in its Polaris submarines and Minuteman I missiles. It has completed testing of the MIRV and is deploying them in the new Poseidon submarine and Minuteman III warheads.

Mill Valley Pair Jailed In Gun Theft

Two Mill Valley residents have been arrested on suspicion of possession of stolen property after allegedly being seen by police with antique weapons stolen yesterday from a Mill Valley home.

Kevin P. Quinn, 18, and Thomas K. Lester, 19, both of 180 Cascade Drive, were arrested near the Del Casa Drive home of Andrew Goodard, police reported.

Goddard had reported earlier that his weapons collection of more than 30 guns, knives, swords and shells had been taken from his home between 1:20 p.m. and 4:45 p.m.

Police found the missing collection in woods near the Goddard home and remained to stake out the area. At about 8:50 p.m., according to a police account, Lester and Quinn showed up.

Lester was additionally booked on suspicion of possessing marijuana, said to have been found in his car nearby.

Bail was set at $1,000 for Quinn and $1,500 for Lester. Both remained in jail to appear in Marin Municipal Court today.

Schedule Changes For Buses On Tap

Changes in schedules and routes for local bus service in Marin will be presented to the Golden Gate Bridge District's transportation committee at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in toll plaza offices.

Also on the agenda is a request for bicycle racks at Marin and Sonoma bus stops and a proposal to route more midday buses in San Francisco via downtown instead of via the Civic Center. The change would encourage shoppers to use midday buses, according to the district's staff.

Vote Light For Reed Trustees

Voter turnout today for the Reed School District trustee election between Charles Patterson and Mark Noble was extremely light as of 11 a.m.

At the Granada School, where 476 voters are registered, only 26 had voted, according to an Independent-Journal survey.

A total of 7,652 registered voters are eligible to vote in the special election to fill the board seat vacated by James B. Richwagen.

The polls are open until 8 p.m.

Subdivision Rezoning Approved

The Rohnert Park City Council last night approved rezoning 75 acres for a future subdivision.

City Clerk Kathryn Logue said the council approved the rezoning request of Forhim Corp. by a 3-2 vote with Louis Beary and Vernon Smith dissenting. Both said plans should be delayed until the area master plan for California State College, Sonoma, is final.

Plans include 270 homes, a school site, bicycle paths, neighborhood parks and a series of miniparks.

The Rohnert Park City Council also:

SNYDER LANE — Approved plans to reconstruct and widen Snyder Lane between Southwest Boulevard and East Cotati Avenue. City Mgr. Peter M. Callinan estimated project cost at $30,000 and said the County of Sonoma may pay half.

COLLEGE — Approved a resolution urging that the projected ultimate enrollment at California State College, Sonoma, be reduced from 12,000 to 10,000 students and that local residents be given preference for admission.

RECREATION — Accepted the resignation of Ronald Rasmussen from the recreation commission and named Richard Driggs as his successor. The other six commissioners were reappointed.

MEETINGS — Set a joint meeting with the recreation commission for June 27 at 7:30 p.m. and with the planning commission the same day at 8:30 p.m.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, who had sought Younger's opinion, said through a spokesman today he would ask the attorney general's office to take another look at the issue in view of Karesh's decision.

The San Francisco-Oakland Newspaper Guild had entered a brief before Karesh supporting Treskunoff, a waiter who has run unsuccessfully for supervisor, lieutenant governor and mayor.

Ferry Rescues 7 From Yacht

The Golden Gate ferry boat made an unscheduled stop on the 5:30 p.m. commute run yesterday, rescuing seven persons from a sinking yacht.

The seven East Bay residents were delivered to the Sausalito ferry terminal. The Coast Guard kept their 27-foot cabin cruiser afloat and took it to Clipper Yacht Harbor for repairs.

The boat was the "Seaducer," owned by Joseph Domino of San Leandro, the Coast Guard reported. It apparently lost its rudder and water started pouring in through the rudder post hole.

Stanley Koleski of the Golden Gate Bridge District said the ferry was delayed 10 to 15 minutes by the rescue. He said the unscheduled passengers weren't charged fare.

"It's senseless for me to appear here every six months if it is just going to end in frustration each time," he said.

Board member Keith Edwards told Miranda, "as far as I'm concerned I wouldn't say you'd be denied in the future, but we felt we should turn you down now."

During his hearing earlier in the day, Miranda told the board he has graduated from drafting school at the State Prison and that he felt he was rehabilitated.

Miranda was convicted in 1963 of the kidnap and rape of an 18-year-old Phoenix, Ariz., woman and was sentenced to 20 to 30 years in prison.

In June of 1966 the U. S. Supreme Court voted 5-4 to overturn the conviction and vacate the sentence on grounds that police had not advised Miranda of his rights to remain silent before he made a confession.

The court also ruled that police had not advised him that he was allowed to have an attorney present while being questioned.

Miranda was retried in Phoenix in March of 1967 on the charges and again was convicted and sentenced to 20 to 30 years in prison.

Last September he was tried on a 1962 robbery charge, convicted and sentenced to a 20 to 25-year prison term to run concurrently with his first sentence.

He has been in prison since 1963 and with Monday's ruling it will be at least December before he has another chance for parole.

Court Date For Armed Robbery

A 21-year-old San Francisco man charged with robbing a motorist who gave him a ride has been bound over to Marin Superior Court to appear tomorrow.

Steve John Pappas was arrested May 2 on a warrant charging him with the armed robbery of Thomas Scott Robertson of Tiburon in the Larkspur Canyon on April 15.

Robertson picked out Pappas's picture when Larskpur police asked him to identify the hitchhiker who threatened him with a knife and a gun while another hitchhiker took $75 from him after forcing him to drive up Baltimore Canyon.

Novato Rock Concert Friday

The Novato Youth Commission and the Novato Parks and Recreation Department will present a two-band rock concert to start the summer youth program at 8 p.m. Friday at The Church in Ignacio, 400 Ignacio Boulevard.

Featured will be The Burgess Brother and The Riot. Rev. Joseph Kennedy, church minister, and members of the youth commission and city recreation staff will be present to answer questions about the summer program.

Innocent Plea To Grand Theft

A 27-year-old Oakland man charged with the grand theft of $1,500 in painting equipment from a San Rafael paint company pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Municipal Court.

A preliminary hearing for Floyd Everett Raley was set for June 27.

Raley was arrested last week on a warrant charging he had taken the equipment — a pump, hose and a tape machine — from the Frank Fullam Painting Co., 77 Larkspur Street, on March 24.

Recycling Firm Gets Boost From County

The Marin County Board of Supervisors agreed yesterday to pump $25,000 into a near-bankrupt recycling firm provided its youthful promoters can keep it afloat another year. (Another story on the supervisors and the budget, page 1).

Directors of Survival Inc., who had requested nearly $140,000 in county aid, expressed doubt that the 15-month-old business could continue operating at full steam if given less than $45,000.

"But we'll take whatever you give us," said executive director Roger Bockrath, adding that some of the firm's five collection depots may have to close.

Board approval of the $25,000 taxpayers' subsidy came as supervisors resumed hearings on the record $47.4 million budget proposed for fiscal 1972-73.

In a related action, the board approved unanimously a $5,000 grant to the Marin Ecology Center, which hopes to receive a like amount in matching funds from the National Ecology Foundation.

The ecology center will then establish a centrally located educational-informational headquarters to "educate the public" on the values of recycling.

Survival Inc., which operates collection depots on five local high school campuses, was awarded a $7,800 county grant earlier this year to see it through June.

When supervisors approved the first grant, spokesmen for the recycling firm indicated they would return during budget hearings with a proposal for about $40,000.

The supervisors, after confessing some ignorance on the future of "solid waste management," formed a special committee headed by Public Works Director Ray W. Foreaker Jr. to delve further into the matter.

Foreaker told the board yesterday his group had been unable to recommend a specific course of action other than formation of a permanent committee.

Bockrath, in outlining the new $140,000 proposal, told the board the total amount would provide funds for a full scale campaign to inform Marin residents of the need for recycling.

Not only recycling, he said, but the need to purchase products in reusable containers, thus doing away with the need for recycling.

Survival Inc. drew opposition from Joseph Garbarino of the Marin Sanitary Service who maintained recycling in Marin would never be feasible unless expensive equipment were installed.

He urged the board to "save the taxpayers money" by rejecting Survival's proposal and instead work with various sanitary firms in acquiring and placing a $250,000 recycling machine at the Novato land fill.

If the county could require all garbage be dumped at the Novato site, he said, the sanitary firms could economically purchase the needed machinery and recycle about 8 per cent of the county's garbage.

Survival Inc., he continued, even with $140,000, could hardly scratch the surface of recycling Marin's solid waste.

"It would be better to put that money into open space and preserve something" than give it to Survival Inc., concluded Garbarino, also a member of the special county committee studying recycling.

Bockrath, joined by his associate, John Van Daam, countered that their goal wasn't recycling as such but rather informing the public — using recycling as a means.

In approving the $25,000 grant, supervisors said the funds were not to be released from county coffers until Survival had submitted an outline for specific use of the funds and signed a contract.

Supervisors Agree To Plans For Gnoss Field Expansion

Marin County aviators won approval yesterday from county supervisors for expansion of Gnoss Field near Novato to accommodate parking for another 30 airplanes.

The action, approved on a 2-1 vote, was recommended by Public Works Director Ray W. Foreaker Jr. as a compromise between a more expensive project uupported by the county's aviation commission and no project at all, the recommendation of County Administrator John F. Barrows.

Foreaker's proposal, to fill and pave about three acres adjacent to the airfield, drew opposition from Cpairman Peter R. Arrigoni Jr., who joined Barrows in questioning the "cost-benefit" value to taxpayers.

"I can't see $60,000 for something that will benefit 1 per cent of the (county's) population," Arrigoni said after the meeting.

Supervisors Arnold M. Baptiste and Michael Wornum differed, however, both maintaining the airport should be expanded a little each year. (Supervisors John F. McInnis and Louis H. Baar were absent.)

Consideration of the airport expansion project came as supervisors struggled through their fourth day of hearings on the county's proposed $47.4 million budget submitted by Barrows.

As outlined by Foreaker — himself an aviator — the improvement project could draw about $40,000 in federal grants and much less than the $270,000 project proposed by the aviation commission.

The aviation commission's proposal, which got no support from the supervisors, called for filling and paving seven acres.

Foreaker, who noted that some of the paved area could be leased for construction of private hangers, said that if the county budgeted the funds, free fill could be acquired from the spoils of the Novato bypass project.

William W. Schwarzer, chairman of the aviation commission, voiced support for Foreaker's proposal after getting nowhere with the larger $270,000 proposal.

Schwarzer said figures showed that there was a "cost-benefit" ratio to expansion since the added parking spaces would bring in more than $6,000 per year.

Another $6,000 could be derived from indirect revenues such as sales and gas taxes paid by airplane owners for a total 20 per cent per year return on the original $60,000 investment, he said.

With Arrigoni dissenting, the board approved a total budget for Gnoss Field of about $203,000 — half of which will be covered by operational revenues and federal grants. Supervisors approved a total of $80,000 a year ago.

Supervisors Cut Landscape Fund At Civic Center

Is the late Frank Lloyd Wright too expensive for Marin County?

After pouring millions of dollars and years of time into the late architect's controversial Marin County Civic Center, supervisors agreed yesterday maybe he was — or is.

Cause of the board's latest reflection is a $600,000 price tag set by the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation to complete landscaping around the Hall of Justice over the next three years.

"It's too expensive," commented Supervisor Arnold M. Baptiste.

"I've been at the point for some time of saying 'to hell with the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation' and getting a new landscape architect," added Supervisor Michael Wornum.

While things fell short of Wornum's sarcastic proposal, the board after some 30 minutes of discussion on the philosophy behind the architect's design unanimously agreed to slash next year's landscaping allocation from $254,000 to about $165,000 and seek advice on cutting corners in the future.

"I think we should cease and desist with plans for formal landscaping and go more to a natural setting," said Baptiste, adding that cheaper indigenous trees and shrubbery would better carry the theme of the buildings, as opposed to more exotic plants.

At his urging, the board referred the matter for further study to Pierre W. Joske, director of parks and recreation.

County Administrator John F. Barrows said the foundation, while demanding high standards of landscaping, had yet to provide plans which were due in 1965.

Another major civic center improvement in the budget was continued to today to give the board an opportunity to tour the hall of justice and administration building before voting on $288,000 to remodel and finish certain parts of the buildings.

Appointment Policy For Board Vacancy

The vacancy on the Petaluma Board of Education will be filled by board appointment rather than in the November election, schools Supt. Lesly H. Meyer reported today.

Meyer said the Sonoma County's Counsel's office ruled that a replacement for Sol Fishman must be appointed by the board since it operates under provisions of the Petaluma City Charter. Fishman, a veteran of 11 years on the board, announced last week he would leave by July 7 due to increased business pressures.

Meyer said that any resident of the district interested in the appointment should contact him or a board member. Applicants will be considered in a closed session at the board June 27.

Robin Potter, 10, of 223 Eighth Street, Petaluma, was reported in satisfactory condition at Hillcrest Hospital with a broken right leg suffered in a car-bicycle accident at 7:30 p.m. yesterday at Petaluma Boulevard South and D Street.

New Commander For Squadron

Lt. Col. Philip S. Prince has assumed command of the 41st Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base, according to the base public information office.

Prince recently arrived at Hamilton from Scott Air Force Base, Ill., where he served as director of research and equipment development planning at aerospace rescue and recovery headquarters.

Prince, a member of the Air Force since 1954, is a native of Monterey Park, Los Angeles.

He attended the Air Command and Staff College at Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala., in 1968 and during the same period earned a master's degree in political science at Auburn University.

Patrolman In Trouble For Shooting A Dog

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI)— A patrolman who shot a dog whose barking, he said, kept him awake will remain on the force but will have to work two of his regular days off without pay.

Police Chief Wendell Nichols said officer Timothy Cunningham displayed "not the best judgment in the world." Cunningham was off duty when he used his revolver to shoot the dog, which belonged to the former wife of a fellow policeman.

WET FIELD, YOU SAY?

There was no Little League action in Elmsford, N.Y. yesterday as games were called because of wet grounds. One youngster (foreground) checked the field himself, wading hip-deep between home plate and the pitcher's mound. At least two persons are dead from the heavy rains which began yesterday in the tristate area of New York, Connecticut and New Jersey. The forecast is for more downpours.

Bolinas Fire Budget Adopted

An $18,530 final budget for 1972-73, approximately $400 less than this year's $18,905 figure, was adopted last night by the Bolinas Fire Protection District board.

Board member Sherman R. Smith said there was no way to tell if the current district tax rate of 33.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation would support the spending program since there has been some reduction in the tax base in the Bolinas area over the past year. "We won't know for sure what the tax rate is until the county auditor sets it," he said.

The budget adopted by the board includes $3,200 in salaries for volunteer chief Jose A. Silva, the district's secretary and money paid to volunteers who attend drills.

Other expenditures are $1,500 for capital improvements (new fire hose and equipment), $1,000 for maintenance, $1,500 for equipment and $2,000 for utilities.

Emergency Powers Bill Sent To House

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Senate passed and sent to the House today a bill to extend emergency powers of the President for two years.

The powers include authority to allocate materials for defense contracts, and make loans and purchases to maintain defense capacities.

The powers were scheduled to expire June 30.

Foes Of Meadowsweet Development Set Back

Foes of the Meadowsweet Station development in East Corte Madera lost another skirmish last night in their battle to halt the 528-unit townhouse project on 75 acres.

The Corte Madera Town Council refused to ask the town's planning commission to rezone the remaining four phases of the project as R-1, which would permit only single-family residences.

Opponents of the development also failed to get the council to rezone to R-1 the first phase, on which grading has already begun.

The matter came up for discussion last night in response to a letter from Lois E. Miner, who told the council she liked the "ticky-tacky" of single-family developments like those already existing in Corte Madera.

Councilman Herber C. Leney moved that the first phase, on which a superior court judge has ruled that grading may continue, be rezoned R-1. He was warned, however, by attorney John Rosenberg that such a rezoning was probably illegal.

He then rephrased his motion as a recommendation to the planning commission that later stages of the development be zoned single-family, but he found only one supporter, Robert J. Flahive, for this motion.

Councilman Edward W. Colthurst said he voted against the proposal because he didn't want to "prejudge the planning commission."

The Corte Madera Town Council also:

LANDSCAPING — Postponed to July 17 discussion of an ordinance aimed at enforcing landscaping maintenance.

SIGNS — Learned that the People's Gallery had withdrawn an appeal of planning commission denial for 14 freestanding triosk signs in the Corte Madera Center. The planning commission denial was upheld.

INDUSTRIAL — Set a public hearing for 7:30 p.m. July 17 on a proposal to require all industrial developments to go through a conditional use permit process.

STREET — Approved a $22,796 street improvement project for Edison Avenue.

AGENCY — Unanimously opposed veto power of municipal plans proposed for the City-County Planning Council review agency.

PARKING — Postponed discussion of parking problems at Cinema I theater to the July 5 meeting.

MEETINGS — Decided to seek out larger meeting quarters for town council meetings expected to draw great public interest; as proposed by the Marin Estates Homeowners Association.

RESIGNATION — Accepted the resignation of Morgan J. Griffiths from the town's board of design. Griffiths wrote that his "views on town development are so divergent from that of the rest of the town government, my services only offer frustration to myself and obstructions to the town government . . . "

DIVISION — Approved a land split for the fully developed Luce property on Meadowsweet Drive so that the owner can sell a parcel.

Group Wins On Open Space: Corte Madera To Study Issue

City fathers of Corte Madera, a town of prosperous businesses, low tax rates and a tidy park, last night heard a plea from a group of residents who are apparently willing, like many other Marinities, to pay for open space.

City councilmen had planned on referring a letter signed by 17 persons to the planning commission without comment, but, instead, were drawn into a discussion of preserving open space.

The residents finally won their request that the town staff identify undeveloped parcels in Corte Madera and find out their purchase prices.

Any immediate plans to purchase property in order to keep it as open space in the town were met with scepticism by the councilmen, however.

Longtime Councilman Edward W. Colthurst said "the thrust has to be toward the open space measure on the November ballot," where countywide residents will be asked to approve a 10-cent tax increase to purchase property.

"It's not easy to sell a 10-cent tax rise," Colthurst said, adding that the Northridge property sought as open space by Corte Madera, Larkspur and Mill Valley, seems to have high priority in the county project. Furthermore, he said, the countywide plan envisions the largest purchase of open space in West Marin.

Asking Corte Madera residents to "do it alone," (purchase town property) would only cloud the issue of countywide open space, Colthurst said. (In San Rafael's decision to do it alone see story, page 1.)

Councilman Herber C. Leney said that Corte Madera already has more park space than most cities and that "we are going to have to stick to low density zoning to maintain a small town atmosphere."

Mayor Holmes S. Norville said he wanted "to see some dollars first," in order to learn if Corte Madera citizens are willing to pay for open space.

Jana Haehl, one of the signers of the letter, explained to the council that the request was only to have the undeveloped parcels investigated and then "to figure out if there is support (for buying) any of these."

Although Colthurst warned the group, "You don't get nuthin' for nuthin'," he moved and the other councilmen agreed to have the town staff make an appraisal of open space.

Surplus Property Eyed

Directors of the Stinson Beach Fire Protection District will meet in special session at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow in the district office to consider a resolution making it eligible for possibly surplus federal property, according to board member Otto Reutinger.

Two Deputy Counsel Appointments Made

The appointment of two deputy counsel has been announced by Marin County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney.

Allen A. Haim, 31, is a former deputy city attorney for the City of Inglewood. He and his wife, Barbara, presently live in Manhattan Beach, Los Angeles County and will move to Marin next month. He is a graduate of the University of California, Los Angeles and Hastings College of Law.

John M. Cohan, 41, is newly admitted to the Bar, after attending the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, and the University of California, Boalt Hall School of Law. He and his wife, Diana live at 43 Billou Street, San Rafael.

Maloney has also announced the promotion of Thomas G. Hendricks to the position of chief deputy county counsel.

Teak Grating Stolen From Berthed Sloop

Custom made teak grating valued at $350 was stolen last week from a sailboat berthed in the Clipper Yacht Harbor's Basin 2, Sausalito police reported today. Owner John A. Alford of Santa Rosa said the grating was taken between June 13 and 16.

And a color television, valued at $340, was stolen between June 13 at 4:30 p.m. and June 14 at 11 a.m. from a sloop berthed in Anderson's Boat Works at the Clipper Yacht Harbor, according to police who said owner Jean L. Taylor of San Francisco reported the craft was entered by breaking a lock.

WANTS TO STAY

Parolee, 20, Finds Jail To Advantage

The parolee from the California Youth Authority yesterday turned down a sentence on a car theft charge that would have meant his release from jail in less than two months.

Kruger said he wanted to stay in jail until after Oct. 25 when his parole expires so the youth authority won't revoke that parole, and Judge Samuel W. Gardiner of Marin Superior Court obliged him.

The judge had planned to give him six months in jail with credit for 130 days he served while awaiting sentencing, but, after Kruger's plea, sentenced him to jail until Nov. 15.

He also placed the youth on probation for three years and ordered him to pay $100 for the legal service of the public defender.

Kruger was arrested Jan. 9 in Anaheim driving a car he stole from a roommate in San Anselmo. Police in the Orange County city said Kruger and a girl tried to flee when the car was stopped for having two bald tires and a cracked windshield.

"A car theft doesn't ordinarily call for six months, but this man has been slapped on the wrist too often. I'm not going to slap him on the wrist," the judge said.

Kruger had agreed to a maximum of six months in jail when he pleaded guilty last month.

Donation To Novato Group

The Allstate Foundation, through Allstate's Menlo Park office, has contributed $500 to Kids in Need Seek Help In People, a Novato organization aimed at diverting youngsters from embarking on criminal careers, according to Dyanne Bohner, project director.

Under its program, KINSHIP uses trained volunteers from the community to work individually with troubled youngsters, Mrs. Bohner said.

Additional funds are needed and anyone wishing to contribute should make checks payable to KINSHIP, 917 Sherman Avenue, Novato, she said. Donations are tax deductible.

I-J Erred In Monday Story

The Independent-Journal erred yesterday in stating that a person arrested on suspicion of having a dangerous drug is to appear before Judge E. Warren McGuire in Marin Municipal Court for arraignment Wednesday.

McGuire is a superior court judge and does not handle municipal court arraignments such as that scheduled for Jeanne Louise Proteau, 25, of Fairfax.

She was arrested Saturday by Larkspur police who said they found two packages of white powder thought to be a drug in her car during a traffic stop.

Air Piracy Charge Draws Innocent Plea

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (UPI)—A man accused of hijacking an airliner last month and bailing out with $303,000 in ransom money over Honduras has pleaded innocent to air piracy, kidnaping and assault charges.

U.S. District Court Judge Oren Lewis Monday scheduled a trial for Sept. 12 for Frederick W. Hahneman, 49. Hahneman is accused of hijacking an Eastern Airlines jet May 5. An FBI agent quoted him as saying he gave the money to unidentified "causes" in Latin America.

Future Of Salt Marsh Turns Into Hot Issue

By PAT PERRY

The collective feet of Tamalpais High School District trustees were hastily withdrawn last night from the salt marsh south of the football field at Tamalpais High School when it promised to turn into hot water.

What was billed on the board's agenda as "superintendent's report into parking facility at Tamalpais High School" swiftly became an emotion-charged shouting match between the board and members of the audience who wanted to speak. (See page 28 for related story on Mill Valley City Council.)

The controversy revolved around a recent proposal by Robert Burton, Mill Valley city councilman, that the district turn over its vacant land at the corner of Homestead Boulevard and Miller Avenue for use as a commuter parking lot.

"It turned out there is a lot more interest than I was aware of in this land," said the superintendent.

Included in a sheaf of protests about turning the land into a parking lot was a petition from 185 registered voters and 80 Tam high school faculty. A letter from Tam's science department said the land includes typical salt marsh, which supports rodents, snakes, blackbirds, finches, dragonflies, damselflies and small fish in the water.

Requesting exclusive use of the area for ecological Chamber the science department noted "the rapid demise of local salt marsh systems."

As members of the audience vied in vain to get up and speak on the subject, Trustee Jerrold M. Lader complained: "It's unfair this board being asked to get involved in a heated issue until we know if Mill Valley is interested."

Samuel W. Schneider, president of the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce, rose and said the merchants were all in favor of the land being used for commuter parking.

Schneider said the Golden Gate Bridge District would maintain the parking lot if the City of Mill Valley filled it. A poll of merchants had supported the Tam High lot in preference to using two vacant lots in the town's business area.

Ignoring the board's protests that it was not ready to discuss the proposal, a woman spokesman for the Almonte District Improvement Club distributed a protest letter to each member and read it to the audience.

ExchangePlan For Kentfield, Ross Schools

The Ross School District board last night heard plans for next fall in which Ross and Kentfield pupils will participate in programs in each other's districts.

Ross Supt. Thomas A. Anderson said Kentfield youngsters will take part in Ross's ecology program and that Ross children will receive instrumental music instruction through Kentfield schools.

He said the two districts hope to carry the cooperation further in the future in an effort to supplement each other's programs.

In other action last night, the Ross school board granted raises to Anderson and Ross School Principal William Cooper, which will add $2,090 to next year's budget.

Anderson's salary will be $21,100; Cooper's, $18,990.

Other minor additions to the proposed 1972-73 budget brought the tentative figure to $569,581, Anderson said. He said he did not think the tentative budget, approved last night, will increase the $3.35 tax rate and might even result in a decrease because of increased assessed valuation in the district.

The board set its next regular meeting for July 6, instead of the normal third Monday date.

Therapy Center To Stay Open Despite Protests

A San Rafael psychiatric therapy center, subject of bitter neighborhood opposition, was permitted last night to survive.

The San Rafael City Council upheld the use permit of the Marin Center for Intensive Therapy on the condition that it be open Mondays through Thursdays until 9 p.m. with no overnight patients. (Another San Rafael Council story, page 1)

The action capped a months-long struggle by neighbors to close the establishment at 1715 Lincoln Avenue because of what they called noisy therapy sessions and patients walking away "in a daze".

Neighbors also had complained that patients sometimes stayed overnight in the center.

Councilman Fred Jensen, who urged that the matter be referred back to the planning commission, cast the lone dissenting vote in the 4-1 ruling.

The planning commission had previously unanimously voted in favor of the center.

The center and its Lincoln Avenue neighbors, previously requested by the city council to reach a compromise on their own in the matter, had been unable to do so, and so the council acted for them.

A Haul Of Cartridges

A burglar took 2,500 blank cartridges from the gym under construction at Miller Creek School in Marinwood June 9, sheriff's deputies said yesterday. The 25 boxes of blanks, worth $125, were being used by the Roma Hardwood Floors Co. to shoot nails into the concrete floor, deputies said.

The San Rafael City Council also:

ASSESSMENT DISTRICT — Passed a resolution of intention allowing preliminary engineering work to begin on the Bahia de Rafael Industrial Park assessment district.

BIDS — Awarded a contract for the publication of legal notices to the Independent-Journal for fiscal 1972-73. The Pacific Sun also submitted a bid.

APPOINTMENT — Appointed 22-year-old Pamela L. Morosi, of 11 Manderly Road, San Rafael, as the city's representative on the Environmental Quality Committee of the City-County Planning Council.

REDEVELOPMENT — Met for 10 minutes as the city's redevelopment agency, and elected Mayor C. Paul Bettini as the agency's chairman; Councilman Fred Jensen as vice chairman; Asst. City Mgr. William J. Bielser as executive director; and City Clerk Marion A.Grady as secretary. The council also adopted a resolution establishing a redevelopment agency administrative fund, and seeded the fund with a $20,000 loan from the city's general fund.

DRAINAGE — Authorized the city attorney to acquire the needed properties — perhaps by condemnation — as necessary in the East San Rafael Drainage Assessment District.

CODE — Adopted the 1971 edition of the Uniform Fire Code.

SEWAGE PROJECT — Unanimously approved the San Rafael Sanitation District's formation of an assessment district aimed at expanding the Peacock Gap sewage facility. The expansion will add 1,000 hookups to the plant's 450 connection carrying capacity, at a cost of $950,000.

STOP SIGN — Approved the installation of a stop sign at the intersection of Laurel Place and Wilkins Street westbound.

PLANNING COMMISSION — Reappointed Alan Kay to the planning commission. Kay's present seat expires June 30.

PATROLMAN — Put Harry R. Barbier, son of Councilman Harry A. Barbier, and Michael A. O'Brien on the regular monthly police payroll as patrolmen. The pair will receive $844 monthly.

Nixon's Greeter In Moscow Dies At 48

Pilot Shot Twice Before Crash; Death Note Found

GONZALES, Tex. (UPI)—A pilot was shot twice before his plane crashed during the weekend, killing him and four other persons, a medical examiner's report revealed Monday. Police said an apparent suicide note was found in the home of a woman who died in the crash.

Four of those killed in the crash Sunday were members of one family, including two small children. The fifth victim, Eugene Davis, was the pilot.

The autopsy showed he was shot twice in the back with a .22-caliber weapon.

The plane nosedived into the ground and struck with such force that it was buried up to its tailfins. Rescue workers spent 12 hours digging out the wreckage. The others killed were Joe Morales, 27, his wife, Maria, 24, and their daughters, Belinda Jo, 4, and Shelly Ann, 2, all of Harlingen, Tex.

Harlingen Police Chief Guy Anderson said officers found what appeared to be a suicide note written by Mrs. Morales in their home.

"The note indicated she was tired of living and was having mental problems," Anderson said. He said he had sent it to authorities in Gonzales and could not quote it directly.

Morales had moved to Harlingen from Dallas a month ago and worked for a mobile home company. His boss, Bobby Gosnell, said he was an "excellent salesman."

Two Policies To Be Studied

Policies of street musicians and ferryboat terminals in Sausalito will be among items considered by the Sausalito City Council at 8 p.m. today in city hall.

Last week the council asked the city staff to report on possible sites where musicians might be allowed to play in the city and any legal ramifications which might result from permitting such activity.

A public hearing on a variance request by Robert Cranston to allow him to increase the seating capacity of his Deck House restaurant without providing additional off-street parking will also be held at the meeting.

Bill-Payers Absent At Budget Session

Last week the Marin County Board of Supervisors opened its annual review of the county administrator's budget recommendations. At the outset, its session was attended by a sprinkling of representatives of citizen groups urging that the budget and consequent tax rate be reduced.

They idn't stay long, however. After presenting their statements urging reduced county spending, all but two of them went away — presumably to work to try to make some money to pay the inflated tax bills which appear inevitable.

As the supervisors got down to the business of trying to make some cuts here and there (concentrating principally on small items, rather than on large categories of spending that might be reduced appreciably), only two representatives of the concerned public remained in the chambers: Winifred Frederick of the Irate Taxpayers of Marin and Birdie Schneider of Sleepy Hollow.

THERE WERE on hand, however, plenty of representatives of the county departments whose budgets were under discussion — all there on "county time," being paid by the taxpayers to appear to protect their department budgets from cuts that might eliminate their jobs.

As the hearings continued, public attendance picked up now and then — but not by those interested in saving public money. As usually happens, the audience was augmented by pleaders for special causes, each advancing his or her pet project as something that should be financed from the public purse.

THE SAME SORT of thing happens at budget hearings of other bodies. When a school board meets to discuss budget, rarely are more than a handful of the public present; but the room generally is well filled by faculty and administration representatives — all of whom, of course, have a vested interest in preventing cuts.

If the school board finds it lacks the money to raise salaries, the teacher organizations are quick to propose cuts to finance the raise: elimination of pupil transportation, of athletics, of necessary building maintenance. Scarcely ever do they propose cutting out an experimental program that is costly but of doubtful value.

Then, outmaneuvered, the public is given the choice of losing things it deems necessary or voting for a tax increase.

City councils have ever fewer of the public present at budget sessions, as a rule. They become in effect mere in-house conferences, with department heads pleading for more money and nobody pleading to hold down costs.

IT WOULD BE well if every board of supervisors, every city council, school board and other taxing agency would have a large placard displayed at each budget session, reading:

REMEMBER — YOU WERE ELECTED TO REPRESENT THE INTERESTS OF THE TAXPAYERS WHO ARE NOT PRESENT.

Oven Bird

Towhees are the color of well-browned toast, with a few dabs of orange marmalade on it. Nothing splashy, but subtly beautiful. They are stay-in-one-place birds. Friendly and curious, they often venture inside our homes through doors carelessly left open. A bit on the stolid side, they have been compared to peasants. With luck, many generations will make their home in your garden as they have in ours for more than a quarter century.

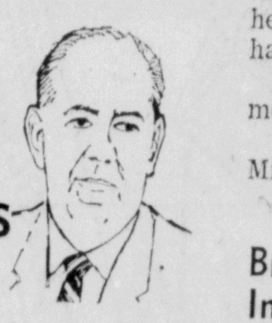
'No Fault' Insurance Won't Guarantee Lower Premiums



By EARL G. WATERS

It is now almost a foregone conclusion that some type of "no fault" auto insurance will be enacted this year. The public pressure, brought on largely by unprecedented promotional spending on the part of insurance companies, has overwhelmed the Legislature.

This sloganized "cure-all" approach to the motorists' complaints of the high cost of auto inuurance gained tremendous momentum last year following a huge advertising campaign by the proponents. It was finally stopped by the Senate Judiciary Committee. Subsequently, the members of the committee were subjected to great abuse, including attacks upon their personal motives.

The basic reason behind the committee's rejection of the proposals was an unwillingness on the members' part, all being experienced lawyers and conscientious legislators, to sacrifice the legal rights of citizens for redress for injuries caused by the negligence of another.

BUT THE STORMY reaction of the public, listening to the promises of the insurance companies for lower rates, has compelled the legislators to yield. Even Governor Reagan gave endorsement to some type of reform in auto insurance although he wisely refrained from outright approval of any particular plan.

In seeking to find some method of satisfying the public need while avoiding the forfeiture of legal rights to court adjudication of personal injury damages, the lawmakers labored devotedly. To call the bluff of the insurance companies' "pie in the sky" pledges of lower rates, they have attempted to write into the law a requirement that insurance rates will be reduced after the effective date of "no fault" laws.

The opponents claim such provisions will be meaningless. "Sure, they will reduce the rates," a spokesman for the Trial Lawyers Association said, "but only after they have imposed terrific increases before the mandate goes into effect."

THE TIP-OFF that "no fault" is no guarantee of reduced premiums has already been signalled by the insurance companies. They have shifted ground and are no longer making loud claims that lower rates will follow the new laws. Even their chief advocate, Assemblyman Jack R. Fenton, D-Montebello, who has been sponsoring the "no fault" concept for several sessions, is now quoted as saying, "There could be premium reductions but everybody's guessing."

More positive is Sen. Alan Gegorio, D-San Mateo, who maintains, "Whatever reduction in premium cost of the property damage and personal liability sections may develop in an insurance contract, they are more than offset by the increased costs of medical premiums." And, while "no-fault" insurance will pay personal injury claims, Gregorio acknowledges, "It will not pay property damages so there will be little, if any, reduction in premiums there. Obviously, then, the overall premium cost will rise."

Parents Should Awaken To School Shortcomings

Both my wife and I want you to know of our backing of your editorial on the Redwood High social studies situation as recently appeared in your paper. We have two sons at Redwood and continue to be shocked at the weakness of the administrative staff in controlling what is being taught, how, and where. Through articles such as yours, hopefully, the parent and taxpayer will wake up to the fact today's schools need a good housecleaning.

Keep up your good work!

Frank Lloyd Wright Would Approve Swallows

With all the expensive changes being made in the name of ecology, your short editorial, "Our 'Bird Loving' County," was timely. With the ban on DDT at the federal level, it is obvious to me that we must do more to attract swallows for mosquito control. True, their nests are not designed by Frank L. Wright, but I believe he would approve them as a natural decor. His whole concept in the Civic Center was to accommodate the design to nature, now nature is only trying to accommodate to the center.

On the subject of ecology conflicts at several levels of government, I believe the most expensive conflict is between the GSA and the states, counties, and the consumer-taxpayers as a whole. GSA does a lot of testing, principally to determine what items have the best overall performance/ecology index, and the feds purchase on the basis of these tests. The people and governmental bodies below are not made privy to those results, so much waste in purchasing of poor equipment results and the fact that mostly it ends up high-price junk which fills out trash heaps too quickly doesn't help what little environmental quality we have left.

Waste is the highest form of environmental/ecological disaster.

Breaks For Elderly In Fairfax (Virginia)

I would like to call your attention to the tax differences in Fairfax, Calif., and Fairfax, Va. (county). See enclosed clipping from my association, American Retired People's news bulletin regarding personal property taxes for senior citizens (a substantial tax relief for renters, too). An existing ordinance grants elderly home owners with assets not exceeding $20,000, excluding their home and an acre of land, exemption from payment of real estate taxes.

Most elderly home owners have contributed to this state for years, and are asked to share our pensions with newcomers (welfare recipients) who have never contributed a dime. In many cases, the elderly not only are taxed out of their pensions, but are dipping into their savings as well.

At the rate we are going, it won't be long and a substantial number of elderly tax-paying home owners will join the ranks of those on welfare.

All of this to feed an ever-growing bureaucracy that does not care where the money comes from as long as they get it! Perhaps, as has been suggested by many, it is time to vote every incumbent out of office, regardless of party.

ROBERT J. LEACH
Fairfax

(The enclosed clipping told of a Fairfax County, Va., ordinance extending to apartment dwellers over the age of 65 with annual incomes below $7,500 exemption from personal property and auto license taxes. It noted exemption from real estate taxes for the elderly under an existing Fairfax County ordinance. — Editor.)

Annual Disillusionment At Budget Hearings

Here we are again in "Marin County Budget Session." Those representing John Q. Taxpayer of Marin made their annual plea for the board of supervisors (elected to represent ALL the people of Marin) to make personal evaluations into departmental requests for increases and reduce the proposed County property tax increase. Once again, the board of supervisors made the promises we wanted to hear — mainly that our pleas were heard and would be acted upon. This was Wednesday morning, June 14, after which budget proceedings started.

After three days of hearings with little reduction in department increase requests, we had better become alarmed! I would like to outline two requests which have met with approval from the board of supervisors.

First came yesterday in the Probation Department request for a new children's treatment center to replace the preplacement unit in Juvenile Hall which accommodated 10.8 daily population last year. The new program is estimated to fill a need for 20 clients daily (almost double last year's actuality), and requires budgetary funding of about $15,000 per mont per child... The supervisors approved this new program, even though there are other agencies in Marin and the Bay Area who can provide this service to the county at less cost.

Another departmental increase request approved today (June 16) was during hearings on the Health Department reorganization budget. Last year the supervisors initiated a reorganization of the Health Department with the stated policy of "economy through the ending of duplication, and providing mora efficient methods!" With the passage of today's health budgets, the two-year policy economies are minus about $400,000...

Proposed Bill Makes Massive Slaughter Legal

Jaques Cousteau recently testified before Congress that marine life has decreased 40 per cent in the last 20 years. Of this marine life, we know that the sea mammals are in the greatest peril, and bills for their protection have been introduced in both houses of Congress.

Unfortunately, powerful commercial interests have been so effective that the Senate bill is now amended until it is useless, — in fact worse, because it legalizes massive slaughter of seals, dolphins and porpoises. What was to have been a moratorium on all killing and importation of ocean mammals into the U.S. is now full of loopholes. The Pribiloff Islands slaughter begins again, July 1. Hundreds of thousands of seals killed abroad — including "baby white coats" from Canada — are permitted import into the U.S. The tuna fishermen's "accidental" suffocation of hundreds of thousands of dolphins and porpoises in the purse-seine nets is allowed. And permits to kill may be issued at the "discretion" of the secretary of commerce.

Time is running out. Will concerned readers write at once to their senators, urging that these destructive amendments should be erased. Public pressure is the one influence that will count at this juncture.

Laird's Tough Talk May Be Doing Service To Disarmament

WASHINGTON — All the old scarecrows of fear and suspicion are being trotted out of the warehouse where they are perennially refurbished and given a fresh coat of phosphorescent paint to try to defeat the nuclear arms limitation treaty. Half-truths and just plain myths about the alleged superiority the Russians' will have under the treaty are trumpeted by the little band of weaponeers and standby alarmists.

Yet, as the hearings on the agreements began before the senate Foreign Relations Committee, a careful check indicated ratification of the antiballistic missile treaty with far more than the required two-thirds and approval of the agreement freezing offensive missiles by an overwhelming majority.

IN LIGHT OF THIS it is hard to see why Sec. of Defense Melvin R. Laird seems to be practicing a kind of blackmail by threatening that unless Congress approves his full defense budget, with $1.3 billion for development of new weapons systems, he will oppose the agreements. What is more, as part of this extraordinary operation by a leading member of the Nixon administration, he indicates that he would take with him the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Two explanations for this behavior with at least a semblance of reason occur. One is that with the President's approval Laird is giving the right-wingers a taste of appeasement. A doubting senator can say, "Yes, I was for the treaties but at the same time I voted for money for those new weapons that are going to keep America strong."

But underlying this explanation is a belief that the right must be appeased. That a right wing is ready to spring into action in substantial numbers is a myth, as was proved by the largely favorable reaction to the Nixon missions to Peking and Moscow. That the old China lobby, the Committee of one Million, might jump out of the woodwork was quickly shown to be an illusion of the timid traditionalists.

Another explanation for the Laird charge up Capitol Hill has slightly more logic behind it. The costly new weapons systems are being pushed as bargaining counters to be offset against similar Russian developments when the SALT talks resume in the fall. This was the strategy on the ABM missiles, with the Pentagon putting in for four sites instead of the two already accepted, so the extra multibillion-dollar chips could be bargained away. That was just what happened after Sen. John Sherman Cooper persuaded most of the antiweaponeers not to fight over ABM.

IN ONE SENSE Laird is doing a service to the cause of nuclear arms limitation. There is nothing in the five-year interim agreement on offensive missiles to prevent development of the fantastic new systems Laird is championing. How are these systems go on the road of a nuclear arms race his advocacy makes abundantly clear.

The interim agreement is the smallest possible beginning. Unless, as President Nixon has said, the momentum out of Moscow carries over into a new round of SALT talks, the hope for any real pause in the race toward annihilation is dim. Under the code names of SCAD and SRAM, two new missiles systems are in the early stages. These would be standoff missiles fired from an airplane used as a platform without intruding over the enemy's borders.

The B-1 supersonic bomber is the love child of the Air Force. As a replacement for the B-52 it has a command staff that will keep the force with a promotion system up to the present scale or better. The new ultra-long-range submarine, the Trident, is well advanced in research and development. Each new weapons system will cost an estimated $12 billion if deployed. The price tag for each copy of the Trident is $1.2 billion.

President Nixon's great achievement at Moscow can be eroded away. Unless there is momentum toward a comprehensive agreement on the offensive side, new weapons systems will unbalance the deterrent and start the arms spiral upward again. Momentum can come out of effort by the American delegation, headed by Gerard C. Smith, that worked so intensively through the three years of the SALT negotiations.

Those 'Older Americans' Are Mostly Still Active—And Voting

But government and industry have found it expedient to draw an arbitrary line to designate normal retirement age. It is now 65.

It is inaccurate, as well as offensive, to refer to all people over 65 as "old" or "elderly," because many of them maintain a mental and physical vigor quite incompatible with such terms. In an effort to get around this semantic problem, we have coined such phrases as "the aging" and "older Americans."

Both these euphemisms are unsatisfactory from a purely grammatical viewpoint. But one cannot expect politicians to be purists about grammar, so it comes as no great shock that the Senate should have a "Special Committee on Aging" and that this committee should issue a thick (395 page) report on the status of what it invariably refers to as "older Americans."

THE REPORT is full of interesting data.

For example: at the start of the century, there were only 3 million "older Americans," comprising 4 per cent of the population. Today, we have close to 20 million Americans over 65, comprising 10 per cent of the population.

This has obvious economic and political importance. Our economy must be geared to bear an increasing burden of retirement benefit costs to provide adequately for one-tenth of the population that is officially labled too old to work. If the government doesn't recognize this need, it will be forcefully reminded of it by what is proabably the most cohesive and singleminded bloc of voters in the electorate.

The Senate committee found that half the "older Americans" are between 65 and 73. A third are under 70. Four out of five are healthy enough to get along well on their own. So the typical "older American" is not doddering into senility. He or she still is mentally and physically robust, capable of being a participating, contributing member of society.

Moreover, they can expect to be around for a while. Average life expectancy for Americans at age 65 is 13 years for men, 16 years for women.

MANY "OLDER AMERICANS" have serious financial problems. The 1970 census showed the median income of families headed by persons over 65 was $5,053 a year. More than a quarter of the "older Americans" live below the official poverty line. Even those who are better off financially have budget problems because they have to spend substantially more than younger families on medical care.

One of the more shocking findings of the Senate study is that Medicare covers only 42 per cent of the actual health care costs of "older Americans." The rest comes ost of their own pockets.

Of special interest to politicians in an election year is the finding that "older Americans" are very active participants in democratic processes. Although they comprise only 10 per cent of the population, they cast 17 per cent of the votes in the last election.

One Option Still Open To Teddy: Conductor Of National Symphony

WASHINGTON — No matter how you slice it, when people start talking about the Democratic convention, Teddy Kennedy's name invariably comes up. Last week it was reported that he said he would take the vice-presidential spot if it meant the difference between victory and defeat for the Democratic Party. Then he spent the next day denying he was a vice-presidential candidate.

The one option that Teddy Kennedy still has left open is his availability as conductor of the National Symphony Orchestra. It is no secret that Kennedy has been seriously considered for the leadership of the National Symphony, and it is rumored that if there is a deadlock at the next meeting of the National Symphony Board in July, Kennedy could be the compromise candidate.

I WENT TO SEE Senator Kennedy on Capitol Hill to discuss it with him. He seemed very relaxed as he tilted back in his leather chair.

"Senator, are you running for conductor of the National Symphony Orchestra?"

He shook his head. "I have no interest in running for the National Symphony at this time."

"When you say this time, does that mean you might consider it later?"

"I have said on many occasions that I am very happy in the senate and I have no musical ambitions."

"Does this mean you wouldn't even consider being first violinist with the orchestra?"

"No one has discussed the first violinist job with me, so I believe the question is hypothetical."

"SENATOR KENNEDY, there are some people in Washington who say you are the only person who can bring the National Symphony together."

"I don't subscribe to that. I think we have many fine people who could lead the National Symphony, and I am prepared to support the candidate whom the board nominates."

"I know you have said this many times, senator, but members of your staff and friends have said that while you would not openly seek the position as conductor, there is always a possibility that you could change your mind."

"My staff and friends are not speaking for me."

"COULD YOU POSSIBLY conceive of any conditions where you would accept a draft as conductor or run for first violinist with the orchestra?"

"I would not exclude the possibilities. If I believed my accepting the position as conductor or first violinist could have a dramatic effect on the orchestra, I would have to reconsider my position."

"What would make you change your mind?"

"Well, if, for example, the subscription series for 1973 did not sell out, or if I felt Lawrence Welk was going to get the job, I would then have to re-evaluate my stand."

"I notice you have a lot of musical scores on your desk, Senator. Can we infer anything from that?"

"No. I happen to like to read musical scores when I'm not working on new legislation."

I WAS ABOUT to ask another question when Senator Kennedy's secretary buzzed him on the intercom. She said, "Leonard Bernstein is on the phone."

The senator picked up his phone: "Lenny? In the third movement of Beethoven's Fifth, do I bring in the strings before the flutes, or do I point to the kettle drummer first?"

Big City Democrat Mayors' Plank Pleas

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Democratic mayors of the nation's big cities want gun control, mass transit and the promise of more jobs to be on the party's campaign platform for the November elections.

While participants of the U.S. Conference of Mayors were telling the Democratic party Platform Committee Monday what causes they wanted the party to champion, President Nixon sent a telegram citing his administration's efforts on behalf of revenue sharing, welfare reform, mass transit, and crime fighting.

But Nixon had no plans to attend the conference in person. No first-term president since Franklin D. Roosevelt has failed to attend the mayors' meetings.

New York Mayor John Lindsay asked that the party platform favor banning the sale and possession of hand guns. He also called for a tougher party stand against the Vietnam war, but he did not elaborate on specifics.

"The first priority is to end that awful, that immoral war," Lindsay said.

Atlanta Mayor Sam Massell said the federal government ought to stop supporting highway construction and start subsidizing urban mass transit.

"The pro-highway, antimass transit federal bias of the past has prejudiced local planning and decisions," he said.

Mayor Kenneth Gibson of Newark, N.J., where unemployment has ranged from 12.5 to 16.4 per cent during the past two years, said the platform ought to deal with jobs.

"When the Democratic platform is written and acted on in Miami, let it be a blueprint for the life and survival of our cities," Gibson said.

Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien chided Nixon for going "halfway around the world" on summit meetings to China and Russia but not making the trip to New Orleans.

Speedy Action Is Asked In Lead Gasoline Ban

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In most major U.S. cities thumb-sucking children or those who eat without washing possibly can consume enough dirt to get seriously ill—all because of lead in gasoline.

Forty-nine members of Congress cited those possibilities today in a letter urging the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to step up its proposed ban on leaded gasolines.

A measure to ban lead in paint—purported to kill or cripple thousands of children annually—was passed unanimously, 82 to 0, in the Senate last week.

The letter, drafted by Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said EPA's gradual reduction proposals would leave lead levels in dirt in 84 tested areas of the nation at more than 500 parts per million as late as 1977.

"Virtually all residual lead in urban dirt comes from auto exhausts," Hart said in releasing the letter.

"Even at 500 parts per million lead," the letter said, "a child would need to ingest only one-eighth of a teaspoon (about one-quarter of a gram) of dirt daily to exceed the maximum daily permissible dose for lead, the dose above which actual poisoning could occur."

The letter cited studies which said an ordinary child consumes that amount of dirt every day.

A child with pica, the craving for unnatural substances because of nutritional deficiencies, "could be expected to eat considerably more," the letter said.

$500,000 Suit Names Landlord

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A $500,000 damage suit was filed Monday against a landlord who allegedly turned off the gas, removed water pipes and the front door, locked the garage and raised the rent in an effort to discourage Negro tenants.

The suit was filed in Superior Court by William Patrick Fearon, whose family lived in a house rented to them by the defendants, Joseph and Clara Zadravetz, between last January and March.

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Like many visitors to the Los Angeles area, Prince Sulta Ibn Abd Al-Aziz Al Saud, defense minister of Saudi Arabia, spent Sunday afternoon at Disneyland.

The prince, who visited Northrup and Lockheed aeronautic plants today, started his Disney holiday with a ride around the grounds on the miniature railroad and then visited a number of the rides and exhibits.

Reporter Asks Tribunal To Boot Contempt Count

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Los Angeles newsman Monday asked the U.S. Supreme Court to overturn his conviction on a contempt of court charge resulting from his refusal to disclose news sources.

Los Angeles Superior Court Judge Charles H. Older convicted William Farr on 13 counts of contempt last July 19 for refusing to name the person who supplied material for a story he wrote during the Charles Manson murder trial. Farr was sentenced to an undeterminent jail term.

Farr had been a reporter for the Herald-Examiner when he wrote the story reporting that Manson follower Susan Atkins had told a cellmate that the "Manson Family" had planned to kill Frank Sinatra, Elizabeth Taylor and other celebrities.

Older ruled that Farr's immunity under California law had expired because he had left the newspaper to take a job with the Los Angeles Times.

The Supreme Court petition was filed by attorneys F. Lee Bailey of Boston and Mark Hurwitz of Orange County, Calif. A state appeals court previously upheld the conviction and the State Supreme Court refused to hear an appeal.

'THE GOLDDIGGERS'

Rebecca Jones Gets Television Role

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

REBECCA JONES, selecting music at the piano with her father Byron Jones of San Rafael, has been chosen as a lead singer and dancer on the upcoming television show, "the Golddiggers." Her hair was dyed for the part, which upset the performer, who prided herself on looking natural.

(Independent-Journal photo)

Once a brunette dancer and singer, Rebecca Jones of San Rafael is now a strawberry blonde dancer and singer. She will be seen on the television show "Chevrolet Presents The Golddiggers" scheduled for the fall season on Channel 44 (KBHK.)

The startling change in her appearance was a result of her selection for the show. She was chosen from 200 applicants in auditions held in Hollywood for the show and will be a lead singer and will also dance.

"Gregg Garrison, the producer of the show, said he needed a blonde, not another brunette, and so the first thing they did was dye my hair," she explained. "I had always prided myself on looking natural, and when I first saw myself as a blonde, I cried about half an hour. Now I'm just another Hollywood girl."

"Oh, it's not so bad," her mother comforted, adding, "Her father says she looks like a real Welsh girl now."

Rebecca's father is Byron Jones, who is proud of his Welsh ancestry. His baritone voice is heard in performances in major concerts throughout the Bay Area. Head of vocal music for San Rafael schools, he has been a vocal instructor at the College of Marin.

REBECCA HAS sung in many concerts with him at San Rafael High School and the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael, where he is also director of music.

Though only 19, the five-foot-six-inch singer-dancer has appeared in various leading roles.

She studied ballet for seven years with Leona Norman and for five years was one of the top dancers with the Marin Civic Ballet founded by Miss Norman.

A soprano, Rebecca also studied three years with Marin's opera soprano Gwen Curatilo, and was a soloist with the Marin Youth Orchestra. While she was studying dancing she performed professionally at the Central City Opera House in the Colorado mountains.

After graduation from San Rafael High School last year Rebecca majored in vocal music and studied acting and dancing at the Institute of the Arts in Valencia, near Los Angeles, which was founded with money willed by Walt Disney.

"It is now in its secong year," she said, "and it offers training in all the arts — music, dance, drama, cinematography and others. You can get a bachelor's and master's degree there."

Just before she left the institute last April Rebecca had the leading role in the musical "The Fantastiks." Her acceptance as a Golddigger will mean quite a change in direction for her talents.

"There may be some opportunity for ballet type dancing, but mostly it will be popular and jazz," she said.

"THE GOLDDIGGERS," she explained, "were featured two years ago on the Dean Martin show," but now they are an independent singing and dancing group of eight girls which travels all over the country and presents the syndicated variety show that will be on CBS TV in the fall."

The group recently was in a television special with Burl Ives, she added.

"We will be traveling all over the United States and Canada this summer putting on shows in night clubs," she said.

Rebecca's show business career will not be her first experience out in the world from a sheltered home situation. She has a close relationship with her parents and a particularly warm friendship with her 16-year-old brother, Byron Will Jones.

"My parents are my best friends" she said, "but they understand I want to be on my own."

In addition to her professional dancing engagement in Colorado, Rebecca had further away-from-home experience one summer on a bicycle tour of youth hostels in Europe.

As for her future plans, she said, "I love living for right now — a sort of existential point of view, but eventually I want to be a serious actress on Broadway and in the movies."

She isn't much concerned with romance at present. "So far, 'My Heart Belongs to Daddy,'" she said with a smile.

GENERATION RAP

by Helen and Sue Bottel

Starting Off Letter With 'Dear' Sounds Corny To One Teen-Ager

HELEN AND SUE:

I haven't started a letter "Dear soandso" since my last note to Santa. Well, anyway, in two years. It's just "Dan:" or "Mary:" — almost nobody uses "dear" any more.

How come you still start your letters with "Dear . . . "? I'll bet at least half of them don't come to you that way.

Luv your column, but — NO "DEARS" PLEASE

DEAR NO: (Wups — scratch "dear"; try again)

NO: —

Habit is a powerful thing. Since I write the final drafts of "Generation Rap," and I've been using "Dear" in salutations both to and from correspondents for 14 years, the word springs from my machine automatically.

Will try to change, but don't expect a totally "dearless" column — unless all out letters come to us that way. — HELEN

N. "D," P.:

Not quite half our letters still begin with "Dear . . ." Maybe your note will help change that.

I kinda think plain "John:" or "Mary:" sounds more personal and less corny. And it's pretty ridiculous when we get, "Dear Helen and Sue; Drop Dead!" — Maxine Which does she mean? — SUE

SUE AND HELEN:

I need some motherly and sisterly advice since I have neither and I can't talk to my Dad or a priest.

You see, every time a guy wants to meet me, I get frightened, because I know that the minute we're alone he'll be all over me, so close that I can't breathe.

Maybe you think I meet the wrong kind of guy. Not true. They come from different backgrounds, religions, etc., but they all have one characteristic — they all "try."

I'm not afraid of every man, just guys who want to date me, and a few I baby-sat for, who made passes at me while driving me home. Even though my budget couldn't stand it, I refused to work for their families again.

I'm 16, not bad looking, am on the honor roll, and I don't lead boys on. So why do they act this way? — ANN

ANN:

If all guys try the "minute you're alone," you're giving the wrong signals. Maybe your suspicions come across as "expectations." Check out your actions and you may not need to watch out so much for theirs SUE

DEAR ANN:

Those passes by older men: perhaps they frightened you so much that you read "sex" into every little action. If not, then you're somehow asking for it, and you should practice up on friendly conversation. It's a great cooler — HELEN

By CAROLYN S. MURRAY
General Features Corp.

If the idea of a four-poster bed conjures up images of ruffles and tie-back hangings, you may need to broaden your knowledge of decorative history. The first four-posters were probably knock-down beds designed for use by military campaigners. You know the type, Napoleon, for one. When those important personages had to sleep in the field, they took the best bedding available at the time and had a bevy of aides set up headquarters in style.

The posts were attached by horizontal poles which supported rope slings. The mattress pad rested on this rope sling. When camp had to be broken due to a turn of events on the battlefield, the bed could be easily dismantled; all component parts could be strapped together and whipped off to safer territory.

Some four-posters come with canopy tops. Even so, the top does not imply frills and ruffles, since a totally tailored look is very much in keeping with the simple design principles of the four-poster.

The Chinese people of affluence produced a bed that was a total environment and it's been called the Ming bed, after that dynasty. One reason there were so many variations of this bed-enclosure idea is that wealthy or noble travelers had to carry their own comfort with them.

And the structure allowed individualized hangings, pillows and comforters to be packed, then utilized in drafty inns and castles. The idea caught on with people of lesser rank and income, until today anyone may want a four-poster or canopy bed for his or her very own.

Contemporary designers have found substitutes for the ready-made four-poster. They use floor-to-ceiling posts, aluminum or chrome tubing, even fiberboard tubing to emulate the vertical parts of the four-poster canopy bed. Beds are just about the most uninteresting objects we purchase for the home.

And the queen and king-size jobs are even more unattractive. So the use of architectural lines and added advantage of height that comes from posts and canopy, make the bed worth looking at. And the handsomer the bed itself, the less the need for other decorative devices in the bedroom.

Some Advice To No. 2 Wife From The No. 1 Wife

(I-J Special Report)

NEW YORK — Author Jean offers advice from first wives to their successors in a new book, "The Second Wife," recently published by Doubleday and Co., Inc.

She suggests that step-mothers discipline children when they visit but tells them not to pry about their mothers.

In a humorous vein she suggests, "Be nice about taking the children, especially over holidays and at vacation time." If the first wife has freedom to travel and husband hunt, it may mean more money for the second wife, she said.

"Be reasonable about money. How do you think the first wife feels when her former husband refuses to pay or orthondontia and then goes off to Paris on a vacation?

12,000 New Skin Cancer Cases Forecast

The American Cancer Society estimates in California in 1972 there will be 12,000 new cases of skin cancer, according to Mrs. Jacqueline Linn, public information director of the Marin County Unit.

Skin cancer can be prevented by practicing good sense in the sun. The society cautions those who spend a good deal of time outdoors and persons with fair skin to take the sun in small doeses, use a screening lotion and or cream and, if you are exposed for long periods, wear a broad brimmed hat and a long sleeved shirt.

Workout In Water Can Tone Muscles

I-J Special Report

NEW YORK — An exercise workout in the water can pare, tighten and tone the body, according to Helen Nash of the Neutrogena Corp.

To slim the waist, face the ladder in the pool, grasping sides firmly with legs outstretched in back. Swing the body from side-to-side, pushing against the water with a swishing fishtail action. The exercise should be done for five minutes to help trim away excess and tone stomach muscles.

To reduce hips and outer thighs, grasp the ladder, bracing the left leg against the pool wall with knee bent. Keep the right leg straight out from the wall and swing the right leg in a wide arc from right to left. Reverse the legs and repeat for five minutes.

Lie on your back in the pool and hold the ladder with both hands. Bicycle kick, lifting feet out of the water with each kick. Give an extra hard push on the down kick to strike the water forcibly. This exercise strengthens the ankles and pulls at the calf muscles.

ART REVIEW

'People Picture Contest' Photos Warm, Filled With Humanity

By LAURA DEVENDORF

When San Anselmo's Marin Institute, a non-profit, out-patient psychotherapy clinic decided to celebrate its seventh anniversary with a "People Picture Contest," they did it right. The directors personally gave $200 for cash prizes to assure a good entry. Then they invited a prestigious jury composed of Ernest Braun, Emme Gilman, Michael Bry and Thomas C. Johnson.

The juried results of 67 photographs have now moved to the Marin Civic Center where they will be shown through July 21 in the Supervisors' gallery on the third floor.

Criteria for the contest specified "people showing moods, emotions, feelings — such as trust, surprise, contentment, anger, joy, love, grief, welcome, thoughtfulness." And while this attitude never interferes with photographic standards of excellence, it is definitely the human qualities which draw and hold you.

Naturally, the almost 30 winning entries have it in abundance. There is the wild mixed feeling of terror and delight caught by Tom Fleming in the faces of children roaring down a roller coaster. There is the wrenching pathos photographed by Barbara Elsasser as an elderly bed-ridden woman holds hands with a social worker. And there is the moment of hope caught by Ilka Hartman as the rumpled figure of an old man emerges from a rundown building marked by a sign reading "social contact helps bring single lonely people happiness, love, romance, marriage."

Throughout the show the emotion in the people photographed and the viewer's response to them extends from tears to amusement. There are many charming shots of children. Young love blows like a fresh wind through flying streams of long, straight hair and glows in happy half-shy smiles. But the moment belongs most poignantly to the very old and parents of the very young.

There are surprising exquisite moments of fathers with their babies. It might be that time when he doesn't move so as not to disturb the worn-out 2-year-old sprawled, sleeping in his lap. It might be a moment of rich tenderness when a father stretches out beside his baby on the grass and tentatively touches him on the forehead. Or it might come when a father gazes with total involvement into the face of his newborn son.

The near-old have a certain toughness, at times a proud, challenging look when they are caught off guard. But it is when age has become the most articulate thing there is about a person, when it draws its experience, wisdom and gentle acceptance into the lines in waiting faces, that the aged grip you with their silent beauty. And you stand there wondering how they know so much.

Marin City Master Plan To Be Studied

A proposed master plan for Marin City will be discussed at a joint meeting of the Marin County's housing authority and redevelopment agency boards at 8 p.m. today in the planning chamber of the Marin County Civic Center in San Rafael.

Extension Of One Street Is Approved

Preliminary plans to extend Baywood Drive to Lakeville Highway were approved last night by the Petaluma City Council.

City Engineer David A. Young said negotiations were going well with Atlantic Richfield Oil Co. to buy land for $33,000 to extend the street. He estimated total project cost at $130,000 but said property owners and the state would pay a portion with the city's share estimated at less than $70,000.

City Mgr. Robert H. Meyer said that gasoline tax funds would not be available for two years, but that the Atlantic-Pacific Building Corp. has agreed to advance the city $100,000 to get the project going. Road work must be completed before the company can go ahead with plans for a shopping center on Baywood Drive.

Young estimated the project could be completed by next June. Work will include a complete signal system at Baywood Drive and Lakeville Highway.

The Petaluma City Council also:

SALARIES — Heard that city firefighters had accepted a 1972-73 contract calling for an average salary increase of 5 per cent and for new negotiations to begin in November on a possible reduction of the work week.

SHOPPING — Approved rezoning land on East Washington Street at the Petaluma River and Weller Street to permit a shopping center.

STREET — Set a hearing for July 17 at 7:30 p.m. on plans to close a portion of English Street between Western Avenue and Post Street.

SEWER CLAIM — Approved the claim for $40 by Edward P. Hansen on sewer line repair work done at his home at 12 Seventh Street.

BUS SERVICE — Heard Gravensen Brothers ask the council to consider allowing Saturday jitney bus service to be discontinued because of low profits.

BELLS — Approved the traditional resolution urging residents to ring bells at 11 a.m. on the Fourth of July to celebrate the nation's founding.

BENTON — Approved a resolution commending Fire Chief Roscoe A. Benton who has resigned effective July 1.

MEETINGS — Rescheduled the July 3 meeting for July 6 at 3 p.m. to be adjourned to July 10 at 7:30 p.m.

FUTURE LAGUNITAS PUMP STATION

Drawing by Crawford and Banning, San Rafael architects, indicates the probable appearance of the Marin Municipal Water District's major pump station at Lagunitas after remodeling is completed. The enlarged station will increase the capacity of water service to the district's northern lines as well as to the Ross Valley. District staff and the architects are discussing plans to make the pump station area into a small park, if safety problems can be solved. The district board recently authorized payment of $1,250 for the architectural design, but construction bids have not yet been ordered.

Rezoning Of Land Near Sorich Park Rejected

The San Anselmo Planning Commission last night rejected the controversial rezoning of a 15-acre parcel adjoining Sorich Park and instead recommended that the property be annexed to the city.

Neighbors, who appeared in force last night, had opposed rezoning the single-family residential property to the planned multiple development requested by owner Max D. Schenk.

Schenk had proposed a 48 townhouse units for three acres of the parcel, which lies in an unincorporated area.

Commissioners ruled that the proposed development's impact on the traffic pattern of nearby Francisco and Sir Francis Drake boulevards would be unacceptable, according to Thelma Foster, commission secretary.

The commission also opposed the overall density of the proposal, said that fire protection was inadequate in the unincorporated area and objected to the development's "bisection" of a natural parkland.

The commission's recommendation that the parcel be annexed to the city will be considered at the June 27 city council meeting.

The San Anselmo Planning Commission also:

TENNIS COURT — Granted fence and retaining wall variances to Robert Thompson, 85 Angela Avenue, who plans to construct a tennis "playcourt" in his backyard.

LOT SPLIT — Approved Donald E. Wudtke's application for a three-lot subdivision near Oak Avenue at Chipman Place.

COFFEE HOUSE — Approved Ted S. Smith's application for a use permit for an outdoor eating area and coffee house at 634 San Anselmo Avenue.

DECK — Denied Russell Johnson's variance application to retain an already constructed open deck at 205 Oak Springs Drive. The deck will remain in Johnson's backyard, pending a city council appeal.

PINTO RIDGE — Recommended to the San Rafael Planning Commission that the 182-acre Pinto Ridge project proposed in San Rafael be denied. The North Pacific Construction Co. proposes to build 270 townhouse units and 25 single-family homes on the ridge parcel in West San Rafael, bordering on San Anselmo.

Education Board Hikes Pay For Nonteaching Employees

The Marin County Board of Education last night approved a 5 per cent salary raise for its 180 nonteaching employees.

According to Robert E. Spain, assistant superintendent, no board member asked exactly how much the increase would cost. There was no need, he said, "because the budget figure for these salaries is in the $800,000 region, so they can figure out how much five per cent involves."

In January classified employees of the county board got raises averaging 2.8 per cent. These were not across-the-board raises, said Spain, but increases resulting from reclassification of positions.

The county has about 122 full-time classified employees, and part-timers, bringing the total to 180.

The board of education has so far approved a proposed budget of $1,412,640 for 1972-73, which represents a tax rate of 20 cents per $100 assessed valuation as opposed to last year's tax rate of 23 cents, said Spain.

The board stood firm last night in its policy of refusing to disclose names of applicants for vacant board positions despite advice from Asst. County Counsel Richard V. Godino that names could now lawfully be kept confidential.

Names of the other four applicants for the board seat given to William L. Sisk of Novato last month will not be released, said Spain.

The Marin County Board of Education also:

TRANSPORTATION — Approved a budget of $307,274 for transportation in the fiscal year 1972-73, up from this year's total of $301,616.

REGIONAL OCCUPATION — Approved part C of the regional occupation program budget in the amount of $372,158; the increase over this year's figure of $238,987 includes provision for three new classes — motorcycle repair and maintenance, auto air conditioning, and marine maintenance and repair — and increased student attendance.

CHILDREN'S CENTER — Authorized application for $48,107 in federal funds for the children's center at College of Marin.

BASIC STUDY — Delayed approval on adoption of the Basic Course of Study for Marin County Elementary School districts after asking to see more thorough documentation.

MAINTENANCE — Awarded the bid for custodial and mainteance services at the three children's centers at Manzanita, Novato and San Rafael to Hagel Services, 80 Belvedere Street, San Rafael, low bidder at $20,040.

MEETING DATES — Changed board meeting dates from the first and third Mondays of each month to the first and third Tuesdays; the board's next meeting will not be until July 18.

Planned Shopping Area — $8 Million To Larkspur'

Location of the new regional shopping center in Larkspur's Bon Air site would mean $8 million worth of improvements to the community, the Larkspur City Council decided last night.

Sitting as the city's redevelopment agency board, councilmen committed the city to spend $8 million under the Redevelopment Act by the use of tax increment bonds — contingent upon the shopping center being located at Bon Air.

City Mgr. Kent B. Bathurst said councilmen declared the money would be spent on perimeter road improvements to the shopping center, including modification to access roads.

Other city improvements would include construction of a pedestrian bridge across Corte Madera Creek from South Eliseo Drive to Piper Park; development of Piper Park itself; relocation of the coproration yard; improvements to Magnolia Avenue, and the acquisition of four acres of land to house a new public safety building, a library and city hall.

Bathurst said the construction of the fire and police building is included in the $8 million.

Formal commitment to finance the bonds by the redevleopment agency is contingent on development of the Bon Air site with a shopping area of between 800,000 and a million square feet, Bathurst said.

Councilmen repeated their objection to the town of Corte Madera's proposal to extensively remodel the Lucky Drive intersection at Highway 101 if the shopping center should be located on Corte Madera's site, he said.

Road Upgrading Is Cut At Novato

The project was planned to extend from Lu Sutton School to Wilson Road, but nine property owners in the center of that stretch opposed it because they didn't want to dedicate property and also pay for frontage improvements.

Councilmen reviewing the $2,831,530 budget for 1972-73 last night agreed to reduce the project so it will extend from Wilson Avenue to just past Margery Court, City Mgr. Charles A. Brown said.

Brown said the council also received a request from the city's downtown implementation committee to include $1,500 in the budget for legal fees in the event the city should decide to enter into a redevelopment project in the downtown area.

During budget deliberations the past week, the council had cut $7,150 from the recommended budget and added $8,500, Brown said.

The council will hold a public hearing on the preliminary budget at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Novato Community House.The Novato City Employees Association is expected to make its recommendation on salaries, and local organizations are expected to make their bids for city funds.

Novato Area Growth Seen As Swelling

The Novato Planning Commission, which has been revising the city master plan with an eye toward a population of 70,000 by 1990 in the Novato area, now feels it may have to plan for 90,000 persons.

Planning Director Brian W. Mattson reported that commissioners last night reviewed potential limits on growth such as airport noise, an earthquake fault and bay plain restrictions.

Setting a population goal of 70,000 would mean 27,000 more persons, occupying about 9,000 housing units, settling in the Novato area in the next 18 years, Mattson said.

This would mean about 500 new housing units a year and Novato is growing at a faster rate than that, so commissioners instructed the staff to study the 90,000 population, Mattson said. A "refined" study on growth limitations at both 70,000 and 90,000 population will be presented to the commission July 3, he said.

The commission is working on revisions to the Novato Area General Plan, based on a future population of 147,000. The area extends beyond the city coundaries and includes Black Point.

Teacher Salary Plan Adopted

A new salary schedule for teachers in the Tamalpais High School District was adopted by district trustees last night with an across-the-board raise of 3.25 per cent and a .97 per cent increase in medical-dental plans, a total settlement of 4.2 per cent.

Trustee David D. Ring said that the cost-of-living increase would absorb the $117,000 previously anticipated surplus in the district's proposed 1972-73 budget.

No other action was taken on the $10,810,063 preliminary budget, scheduled for a special meeting next Monday. However, trustees spent nearly an hour on a largely philosophical discussion over the relationship between educational planning and budgeting.

The board's meeting was held in Tamalpais High School's new $349,000 student center, the first formal function there.

Designed to form a focal point for school activities, the building is for both student and faculty dining and meetings and entertainment.

Raymond J. Bell, Tam High's principal, formally dedicated the center to the memory of Mary McCurdy Baker, the assistant principal who died in January, and the faculty dining room to Edmund D. Thomas, a district board member for 26 years.

A reception before the board meeting was hosted by the Tamalpais High School Parent-Teacher Association, in honor of the school's new educational leader, Dr. Lawrence Sehppard.

The Tamalpais High School District Board also:

UPHOLSTERY — Was asked by William G. Fleckles to retain the adult upholstery class after the district's lease on a facility on Miller Avenue expires in September and told Supt. Wilber D. Hawkins to seek housing for the class.

NEW COURSES — Gave first hearing to two new courses for Tamalpais High — home repairs and maintenance, and cross-age teaching.

CANADIAN TRIP — Gave a first hearing on a proposed summer trip to Canada by Redwood High School Students.

VOCATIONAL — Adopted the vocational education plan for the district which will submit the district's application for $47,000 in federal funds.

'Save Schools' Fund Plea Short

The Petaluma Save Our Schools Committee netted $1,000 from a benefit theater party last night, but the group believes its fund drive has fallen short of a $34,000 goal.

Committee members today began tallying proceeds from various fund-raising events and said they would present a full accounting to Petaluma Schools Supt. Lesly H. Meyer late today or tomorrow.

The group was formed in May to raise money to keep six elementary schools off double sessions and to halt the closing of a seventh, Grant School due to fund shortage in the district.

Committee member Gwendolyn Adkins said initial reports indicate the goal has not been reached, although reports are not complete. She said persons who returned pledge cards but have not yet sent checks to the committee will be contacted later this week to bolster the drive.

A Council Designed For The Seniors

The following was prepared by Ed Ryken, executive director of the Marin Senior Coordinating Council, Inc.

"In Marin County there has been more than a decade of activity by and in behalf of the county's 20,000-plus older adults which has resulted in a county-wide awareness of their problems, the liabilities which hamper them, and the assets they possess.

"In 1966 after three years of exhaustive study, the Citizens Advisory Committee developed and published 'A Master Plan for Older Adults in Marin County, California.' At this time, with the help of an Older Americans Grant from the California Commission on Aging, the Marin Senior Coordinating Council, an incorporated non-profit group, was assigned by the County of Marin the work of implementing the Master Plan. Early in 1967 this council, now under professional staff, was designated by the board of supervisors as its committee on aging. In April 1969 the Marin Senior Coordinating Council, Inc. was appointed as the citizens advisory committee for the Workable Program. The council has made rapid advancement in the implementation of its assigned projects.

"There is a need to increase public concern with the special needs of the aging in Marin County, to recognize the challenges these needs present to public and private organizations and to understand the largely untapped resource that our older citizens represent for the improvement of our society. While old age itself is not preventable, some of its problems are. The need to help the older members of this community in their search for constructive answers to problems has been recognized and is the aim of the Marin Senior Coordinating Council.

"Donations to Marin Senior Coordinating Council, Inc. are tax deductible and can much aid its work.

Roth Cited By Patrol For Accident

Attorney Hadden W. Roth, a former Marin County Municipal Court judge, was cited yesterday by the California Highway Patrol for unsafe passing, after a collision with a 19-year-old motorcyclist on Nicasio Valley Road.

The cyclist, Dennis A. Nuttman, of 75 Valley Road, San Anselmo, was treated at Marin General Hospital for bruised thighs.

According to the highway patrol, Nuttman at about 8:30 a.m. was making a left turn off Nicasio Valley Road, about one half-mile south of Lucas Valley Road when struck by Roth's car.

Roth had pulled out to pass the motorcycle, then noticed that it was making a left turn into the Mar Ghi Ranch, the patrol reported. The car's brakes locked and it skidded into the cycle, knocking it more than 80 feet, according to the patrol.

Roth, 42, of 29 Rock Ridge Road in Woodacre was a municipal court judge from 1966 to 1971. He is currently a member of the San Rafael law firm of Goldstein and Roth.

Airlines Find HAFB Building T-93 Unfit

Two commercial airlines have indicated no interest in renovating building T-93 at Hamilton Air Force Base, Marin County supervisors were told today.

Public works director Ray W. Foreaker Jr. told the board that representatives of Hughes Air West and Air California both have inspected the aging building and found it unfit for repair.

The board, on Foreaker's recommendation, voted unanimously to lift its hold on destruction of the entire building. (Supervisor John F. McInnis was absent due to ill health.)

The building, which has been in the eye of a storm over joint military-civilian use of the air base, originally was considered as a possible civilian airline terminal.

Last week, at the request of the Air Force, the board lifted its opposition to destruction of the southern one-third of the building to make way for new construction.

Benjamin R. Ostlind, a long-time proponent of joint use and opponent to destruction of T-93, told the board today another building is in the offing.

Burglar Takes Antiques

A burglar, who pried open a window to gain entry, took about $600 in wares from a display case at Judy's Antique Shop in Almonte between 4:30 p.m. June 10 and 10:30 a.m. June 12, sheriff's deputies reported yesterday.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

A Player Must Always Be On The Alert Of The Breaks

You must play a hand for a key suit to break well if a normal break leaves you with no real chance for the contract. Abandon this reliance on good luck if an extra play for your contract suddenly develops. As a Roman bridge player by the name of Horace once wrote the man of true virtue is not dependent on good fortune — but he never despises it.

EAST FORCES ACE

West opens the deuce of diamonds, and East's ten forces out your ace.

You immediately lead a low spade toward dummy. You must tackle spades before drawing trumps because dummy's king of hearts may be your final entry to some good spades.

West plays a low spade, and dummy's queen wins. You lead a low trump to your ace and lead another spade.

WEST MUST TAKE

West must take the ace of spades. He now leads the jack of diamonds. You cover with dummy's queen, and East wins with the king of diamonds. East now returns a low club.

You cannot afford to play low, for the opponents would take a spade, a club and two diamonds. Hence you hop up with the ace of clubs and lead the queen of hearts. You plan to cash the queen and then the king of hearts, after which you will lead the king of spades from dummy in the hope of running the suit.

CHANGE OF MIND

Just then West follows suit with the ten of hearts, and you change your mind. This lucky break allows you to reach dummy twice in the trump suit. It is no longer necessary to hope for good luck in spades.

You overtake the queen of hearts with dummy's king and ruff a low spade with the jack of hearts. Then you lead the three of hearts to dummy's eight. This leaves you in position to cash the king and ten of spades, assuring the contract.

You have 11 points in high cards, but the values in clubs and diamonds are doubtful. Avoid opening a borderline hand if you must count points for queens and jacks that are not accompanied by higher cards.

Dike Building Hit; Big Pollution Case

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The State of California has filed a Superior Court suit charging this city's Port Commission with polluting San Francisco Bay and demanding fines totaling $2.1 million.

The suit was filed by the attorney general's office in behalf of the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board and concerns a shipping terminal the commission is building at India Basin.

In dispute is a dike being built around the terminal to protect barges. The board says the dike is being built of "decomposable, organic materials, particularly small pieces of wood."

Port Director Miriam Wolff declared, "we say and our chemist says that wood does not decompose."

The complaint by deputy attorney general Roderick Walston holds that some debris is allowed to float away, releasing sulfide which starves the water of oxygen and leaves a "highly odorous" condition."

In his suit, Walston noted the board on June 10, 1971, had issued a clean up and abatement order against the commission and later a cease and desit order.

Since the commission has "failed to adopt measures that would correct the violations," the suit asks that the commission be fined $6,000 a day from June of last year for the $2.1 million total.

Judge Carl Allen ordered the commission to show cause June 30 why it shouldn't be restrained.

Cyril Magnin, Port Commission president, said the suit came as a surprise since corrective measures had been ordered months ago.

"If nothing else, the staff has been negligent in keeping us informed."

"If someone is found at fault, they will be disciplined," he added.

Mrs. Irving Goes To Jail

Mrs. Irving and her husband, 41, were sentenced Friday on mail fraud and conspiracy. Irving was sentenced to 2-1-2 years in prison and is scheduled to begin serving his time Aug. 28. In addition, each was fined $10,000. Irving's researcher for the bogus autobiography, Richard Suskind, received a six month jail sentence.

Irving's attorneys indicated they will file an appeal for him.

Russians Study Air Pollution

DETROIT (UPI)—A team of Russian scientists flew to America's automotive capitol today after a special visit to Los Angeles Monday to study the city's air pollution problems.

The four Russian scientists, on a special exchange program tour of the United States as guests of the Environmental Protection Agency, had especially asked to visit Los Angeles.

"They were concerned about all phases of air pollution," according to Jim Birakos, director of special services for the Los Angeles County Air Pollution Control District—the largest local pollution fighting agency in the world.

Restrooms At Pentagon Now Say 'Private'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — To confuse any bomb-bearing visitors to the Pentagon, the "Men" and "Women" signs on several of the restrooms nearest the offices of top defense officials have been replaced by signs reading "Private."

The bulk of the 280 restrooms —including the rebuilt ladies' room blasted by a bomb May 19—remain prominently marked "Men" or "Women." The "Private" signs have begun appearing only on the smaller restrooms as the Pentagon is being repainted and new door signs put up throughout the world's largest office building.

Any potential bomber deciding to walk into the first door marked "Private" might be further confused when he stumbles over a business conference, because dozens of doors to ordinary offices are also marked "Private."

Marshland Development Opposed

By JAY GOODWIN

The Mill Valley City Council last night reaffirmed its opposition to filling four acres of marshland in East Mill Valley — between the Hi Ho Motel and Goodman's Lumber Co. — and recommended that the Bay Conservation and Development Commission withhold a permit for the proposed project.

The council previously had opposed the application for a filling permit on March 20, before the municipal election in April swept three new councilmen into office.

The application before BCDC was submitted by Bayside Properties, a four-man partnership which owns seven acres of marshland west of Highway 101. According to its representative, M. Reed Hunter, Bayside Properties wants to construct an office park on four of those acres.

Councilman Robert E. Capron led the charge against the filling application. He grilled Hunter for specific details of the proposed office development and the suitability of the existing dry land as a building site.

Capron and Councilman Robert E. Burton stressed the importance of preserving the marshland rather than covering it with dirt or asphalt.

Hunter told the council that Bayside Properties had not finally determined what it would construct on the proposed site. He stated that three of the seven acres were already partially filled, so the present application was only requesting permission to fill an additional one to two acres.

Hunter further stated that if the council prevented Bayside Properties from using its property, the partnership might seek a remedy in court.

Burton replied that he resented what he took to be a threat of a lawsuit by Hunter.

Hunter appealed to the council to uphold the owners' right to use their land for commercial development. "I think the property owners were entitled to assume that they would be allowed to use the property consistent with the zoning," said Hunter.

Burton disagreed, stating that community attitudes on the preservation of ecologically valuable marshland were changing and that such assumptions were unwise.

On a motion by Capron, the council unanimously repeated its recommendation to the BCDC that the application be denied.

The matter comes before the commission July 6.

In a related action, the council heard a staff report on a draft ordinance which would enable the city to prohibit all excavation, filling and construction in the marshlands area in East Mill Valley.

Modeled after a county filling and excavation ordinance and the legislation that created BCDC, the draft ordinance would permit the city to prohibit filling projects like the one requested by Bayside properties.

Currently, the city has no such authority.

Mill Valley Parking Studied

The Mill Valley city council last night mulled the possibility of a commuter parking lot at the south end of the Tamalpais High School athletic field, but took no formal action on the idea. (See page 9 for related story on Tamalpais High School District board).

The vague concept was not a formal proposal for the council's consideration but it still aroused opposition from the Almonte Improvement Club.

An improvement club representative said the commuter lot near the Almonte bus stop would "constitute an island in the middle of our neighborhood."

The idea of the commuter parking lot grew out of the independent research of Councilman Robert E. Burton. He told the council he had sought out possible sites for a commuter lot that could replace parking spaces lost in the Miller Avenue reconstruction project.

The site near Tamalpais High School, Burton said, belongs to the Tamalpais High School District. He said he already has approached the district superintendent inquiring about the property.

When the Tamalpais board was presented with the idea, said Burton, "All hell broke loose."

According to Burton, the board said the district had plans to use the area for science classes. The Little League claimed it had plans to use the area for a ballfield, he added.

Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce President Samuel W. Schneider said he had spoken to the engineer of the Golden Gate Bridge District about the parking lot idea.

The engineer, according to Schneider, expressed interest in the concept. He further indicated that the bridge district might be willing to pay all costs of constructing a parking lot if the City of Mill Valley pays to fill in marshland, Schneider said.

The total cost of the proposed 220-space lot was estimated at $88,000, of which about $15,000 would be spent on fill.

The Mill Valley City Council Also:

SEWER FEES — Denied a request from H and C Electronics to refund $1,000 in sewer fees, stating that the two additional $500 fees were applicable to both new tenants in the firm's building at 250 Camino Alto.

ARTS FESTIVAL — Granted final approval to the fall arts festival organizing committee to use Boyle Park Sept. 30 and Oct. 1, subject to conditions arranged with the police, fire and parks and recreation departments.

ZONING — Referred to the planning commission the task of drafting an ordinance that would significantly strengthen the city's authority to regulate the use of property in commercial zones.

YOUTH JOBS — Endorsed a proposal by Steven A. Bajor to create a youth job cooperative designed to locating employment for Mill Valley youths, but rejected Bajor's request for financial support.

ENCHANTED KNOLLS — Referred to the planning commission a request for an appropriation of $15,000 for the development of a playfield near property owned by Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

MEETING — Adjounred to a closed meeting at 6 p.m. today to meet and confer on labor negotiations.

For one thing, there are actual words printed on it. Not just code numbers you have to chase all over the page.

Words like checking account. Each check is listed in numerical order. And if one is missing, there's an asterisk to call your attention to it. (A little thing like that can save a lot of time when you're trying to reconcile your account.)

Words like daily balances. Any day that anything happened to your account, there is a daily balance listed. In order, of course.

And Ready ReservAccount/ Master Charge. This part shows charges, payments, advances, transfer fees, interest, everything. And again, there are real words! Not hieroglyphics.

If you like, we can even include your savings account summary and/or your loan summary for the preceding month. Including interest paid, deposits, withdrawals and balance for each savings account you have, as well as loan number, payment and balance for each loan you have with us.

Plus the usual stuff you're already used to seeing, like beginning checking account balance, ending balance, and Ready ReservAccount/Master Charge credit line summary.

In short, Ready Reference is banking-made-easy. It's sort of like painting by the numbers. It doesn't make you an expert, but at least now you can do it.

Court Fight In Baseball

WASHINGTON (UPI) — As could be expected, ballplayers lined up on one side of the field and management on the other today following the refusal of the U.S. Supreme Court to act against baseball's antitrust exemption and the controversial reserve clause.

There was also indication that further court action may come from the players.

Perhaps the strongest reaction came from St. Louis catcher Ted Simmons, who refused to sign his contract with the Cardinals earlier this year. Simmons was obliged to play anyway when Cardinal management invoked the renewal clause.

After hearing of the Supreme Court's decision on Monday, Simmons said in St. Louis that if he was forced to play again under the same clause he would seek support of the Major League Players' Association and perhaps initiate suit to test the legality of the contract provision.

"I want to sign my contract," said Simmons, who was offered $25,000 by the Cardinals but wanted $30,000. "Being a free agent is not my intention right now. If my contract is renewed again, I'd have reason to take action."

By a 5-3 vote, the Supreme Court ruled Monday that professional baseball is immune from antitrust law, although conceding that the sport is now a "big business" engaged in interstate commerce.

In the majority opinion delivered by Justice Harry A. Blackmun, the Court said the antitrust exemption "rests on a recognition and an acceptance of baseball's unique characteristics and needs."

This latest challenge of baseball's protective reserve clause had been brought by Curt Flood, who refused to report to the Philadelphia Phillies after being traded in 1970 by the Cardinals.

Flood brought a damage suit against the two major leagues on grounds of violating both federal and state antitrust laws, charging specifically that the reserve clause amounted to slavery.

The baseball establishment, which was threatened by the possibility of overhauling its oyerations in dealing with players, was overjoyed at the decision.

"The determination of the Supreme Court is helpful to all of us in professional sports in that the court has clearlq restated its views on a number of important sports matters," said Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.

"I think the decision is constructive in its recognition that baseball has developed its present structure in reliance on past court decisions. The decision opens the way for renewed collective bargaining on the reserve system after the 1972 season. I am confident that the players and the clubs are in the best position to determine for themselves what the form of the reserve system should be and that they will both take a most responsible view of their respective obligations to the public and to the game.

"Any desirable changes should be the product of mutual agreement so that there will be assurance that all concerned are prepared to live with and support the result."

American league president Joe Cronin said he was "very

TOMORROW

Net Tourney At Mill Valley

Youth will not be served in Mill Valley tomorrow.

Tennis balls will, however, as the 14th annual National Men's 35 Hardcourt Championships get underway at the Mill Valley tennis club. Top players from across the nation in the 35-and-over age bracket will compete.

Most notable entry will be Don Kierbow of Carmichael, who won in singles and doubles last year and will be back to defend both titles. He is seeded No. 1 in both events. His doubles partner is Whitney Reed of Alameda.

Play will continue for five days, with finals scheduled for Sunday.

Only one Marin player is seeded in the tournament — John Williams of Tiburon, who along with Jack Bowker of Sacramento is rated eighth in the doubles.

The doubles seeds after Kierbow-Reed are Mayne and Hugh Ditzler; Landin and Schmidt; Don Gale and Bob Hill; Greg Grant and Jerry De Witts; Nelson and Gil Rodriguez; Pete Berwick and George Yardley; and Bowker and Williams.

A total of five Marinites will be involved in singles play tomorrow. At 9 a.m., Hugh Tierney of Belvedere will play Terry Cooke of San Mateo. At 10, David Sheldon of San Rafael will meet Reed, and at 11:15 Bob Seymour of Mill Valley will confront Van Smith of Newport Beach.

In the afternoon, Jack Barone of Mill Valley will face Brown at 12:15 and Keith Klussman of Mill Valley will confront Grant at 1:30.

Doubles play begins Thursday. Marin teams involved include Jack Barone and Mike O'Neill of Mill Valley; Bob Sockolov of San Rafael and his brother, Morrie, of San Francisco; Tierney and Ed Atkinson; Howard Morehouse of San Rafael and Bill Hoogs of Berkeley; Stan Altschuler of San Rafael and Dick Dresel of Greenbrae, and Bowker-Williams.

Top seeded singles players Kierbow and Landin draw first-round byes. Mayne will meet Larry Goldbeck of Vallejo at 10 a.m. Schmidt will play Frank Johnson of Pacific Grove at 11:15 a.m. Collas will battle John (Sandy) Walker of San Francisco at 2:30 p.m. and Nelson will confront Barry Nathan of Palo Alto at 3:45.

BIG KICK — eight-year-old Jeff Mayer stepped forward to boot a soccer ball held by a Marin soccer instructional camp colleague yesterday in Ross. The five-day instructional program, geared to promoting soccer interest in Marin, concludes Friday; the program runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. under a staff headed by Stanford University soccer coach Fred Priddle, his assistant Marty Krumm, and Lowell High School of San Francisco soccer coach Ernie Feibusch.

Nine Marin Golfers In Tournament

Nine Marin County golfers will be among 212 top amateurs who will compete Monday in regional qualifying for the 61st California Amateur Championship.

The 36-hole, medal play qualifying will be played on the Ocean and Lake courses of the Olympic Club in San Francisco.

The Marinites are Robert A. Joyce of San Rafael, James C. Fitzpatrick of Novato, Robert M. Ireland of Sausalito, Mat Palacio Jr. of San Rafael, Bob Cranston of Sausalito, Pete Nielsen of Mill Valley, Richard Thompson of Sausalito, John Steddin of San Rafael and Gary Shemano of Tiburon.

The 95 low scorers Monday, plus five who are exempt because of high finishes in last year's tournament, will advance to the state qualifying July 10-11 at Pebble Beach and Cypress Point.

There, the the field of 200 (100 Northern Californians, 100 Southern Californians) will be pared to 64 for the match play championship at Pebble Beach July 12-16.

Novato's Elijah Win In 7-Mile AAU Ridge Run

Novato's Ron Elijah won the Amateur Athletic Union's Novato Ridge Run Saturday at Hill Junior High School in Novato, and he goes on to the Junior Nationals steeple chase at Denver Friday.

He turned in a 39:35.0 clocking over the seven-mile course in defeating a 190-man field. Elijah won the Mill Valley Dipsea cross country race last year.

BIG KICK FOR KIDS IN SOCCER CAMP

Stanford University head coach Fred Priddle and assistant Marty Krumm join Ernie Feibusch, coach at Lowell High School of San Francisco, in directing a soccer clinic at Katharine Branson School in Ross daily this week through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Some 40 boys are learning the soccer fundamentals of trapping (catching), passing, shooting at goal, defensive and offensive tactics, plus other individual and team skills.

Feibusch, who is the director of United States Olympic soccer development activities in Northern California, works with the Stanford coaching tandem in seeking to promote soccer with this clinic, according to Bob Braghetta, a Marin soccer promoter and clinic spokesman.

"We're trying to develop Marin youths' interest in this game. This (clinic) is one way we hope to accomplish this goal," Braghetta said.

He added, the program includes working on individual skills in the morning, lunch followed by afternoon games. The soccer contests will often be broken down into various parts or "bits," according to Braghetta.

"By 'bits' I mean that in one game, we might have all the kids kick the ball strictly with their left foot, or, maybe, just their right foot.

"This way," he continued, "we are exposing the kids to the important aspects so they will know what to do when situations come up in a game."

Certainly, the youths can't kick about that.

Epstein Blasts Two Homers In Win, 7-4

A's Beat Tigers At Oakland

OAKLAND (UPI)—Muscular Mike Epstein has banged 1,250 feet of homers in two days, but he still says the Oakland Coliseum is a pitcher's park.

He whacked circuit clouts 10 and 11 Monday night and then walked with the bases loaded to lead the A's to a 7-4 win over Detroit Monday night in the battle of division leaders. The triumph shoved Oakland four games up in the American League West while Detroit is one length up on Baltimore in the East.

Like homer number 9 Sunday, Epstein's two shots Monday were tape measure jobs well over 400 feet in length.

But he grumbled after the contest that the Coliseum "is the worst hitter's park in the American League...You've got to hit it all to get a homer here. There are no lucky home runs in this park."

Manager Dick Williams always likes the purist's plays over crudities such as homers and so it was not surprising that Epstein's blasts did not excite him as much as the

Beckert's Disputed Hit Lifts Cubs Past Giants

CHICAGO (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants, a team which used to live by the long ball sword, is now dying by that weapon.

Chicago Cub second baseman Glenn Beckert yesterday belted a controversial double to help the host Cubs edge the San Francisco Giants.

In what turned out to be a legal 11th inning homer —but a hotly disputed one —the Cubs came from behind Monday when Beckert doubled home Don Kessinger in the 11th inning to give the Cubs a 7-6 victory.

The Cubs stretched their winning streak to six games and the pitching victory went to Jack Aker, the third Cub reliever after starter Bill Hands was routed in the fourth inning. It was Aker's second win in two decisions. The loser was Jerry Johnson, who came on for the Giants in the ninth and yielded only one hit until Kessinger singled after one out in the 11th.

Jim Hickman drove in two runs with his seventh homer of the season in the first inning and Ron Santo belted his eighth to pen the four-run fourth.

Garry Maddox hit a three-run homer for the Giants in the second inning and the Giants scored three more runs in the fourth on singles by Willie McCovey, Maddox, Al Gallagher and Jim Howart.

Beckert's 11th inning homer wasn't as safe as looked, though. After the game, there was considerable speculation about whether or not the ball was in play —as it was eventually ruled.

Beckert hit the ball to Wrigley Field's 368-foot sign in left center. Giant Centerfielder Garry Maddox leaped for the ball, and it bounced above him and back into the playing field.

"A fan touched it," said Maddox after the game. "He reached out and grabbed for it. That's why I couldn't get it."

Had it been ruled a ground rule double at that point, Kes-

Sonoma Vs. Marin Grid Set Nov. 18

The "Super Bowl" of local high school football — a post-season contest between the Marin County Athletic League and North Bay League champions — will be held Saturday evening November 18, at Santa Rosa Junior College, MCAL commissioner George Corson confirmed today.

A four-man committee, with two representatives from each league, met yesterday at the Petaluma Inn to finalize arrangements for the season-ending gridiron battle.

"They (The NBL) will be the host this year," Corson said, "But we expect to play back and forth in the future," if all goes well.

The revenue from the gate, after expenses, will be split 50-50 between the two leagues, Corson said.

The "bowl" will take place one week following the close of the league football slate for both representatives, according to Corson. He admitted that the extra week of football might hamper wrestling and basketball practice schedules, but said, "We don't have any league matches or games for the winter sports until January, so it shouldn't have too great an effect."

Each league is to determine its own process for determining a representative in case of a tie. The MCAL, according to Corson, is considering a tie-breaking recommendation by the coaches and athletic directors consisting of the following points:

1) In the case of a two or three-way tie, the team that had the best record in games against the other tied teams would be the league's representative.

2) In case the game(s) between the tied teams were also ties, the "best league representative" would be determined by a vote of the other league coaches.

Drake Basketball League Tonight

It's becoming fashionable to gripe about the ever-lengthening basketball season, which is spreading out across the calendar like crabgrass across your once-noble lawn. At Drake High School, however, nobody's complaining.

In fact, the time has come for another annual installment in Drake's flourishing summer basketball league.

Play will open tonight in the high school division and tomorrow night in the adult division, and will run until the end of August.

In the adult division, Olympic Club of Marin will attempt to retain the championship it won last year. It figures to get strong opposition from Buresh, Vallarino, Costamagna and Claxon — which is not the roster, but merely the name of the sponsoring law firm.

Buresh, as it is known for brevity's sake, will feature Drake all-everything Reg Carolan and former Golden State, nee San Francisco Warrior George Lee. Former Warrior and Cardina Cougars coach Tom Meschery, visiting Lee for the summer, may also play.

The adult division ends with a contorted playoff system designed to keep things interesting. The first-place team plays the third-place finisher, No. 2 plays No. 4, and the winners of those games meet in the finals. If the first-place team wins the playoffs, it is crowned league champion. If not, the first-place team and the playoff winner have a post-playoff playoff, and the winner of that is the champ. Whew.

In the high school league, teams are composed essentially of players from one high school. Redwood, a perennial power in the Marin County Athletic League, flies the banner of Shaw's Ice Cream in the summer league and is defending champion.

Other high school teams are San Marin (Chuck Moore Insurance), Drake (the Pirates), Lowell of San Francisco (Cardinals), Tamalpais (Gilmore Photo), Terra Linda (Trojans), San Rafael (Bulldogs), Riordan of San Francisco (Crusaders), Montgomery of Santa Rosa (Vikings), St. Ignatius of San Francisco (Bob's Cats), Marin Catholic (Wildcats), and Novato (McGillicuddy Construction).

Adult league teams are Blue Crystal, Taveggia-Brusati, McGillicuddy Construction, Paradise Pharmacy, Flying Tigers, San Rafael Travel, La Tolteca, Perry's Poor Boys, Buresh and Olympic Club.

Safety Classes And Hunting Accidents

By AL GIDDINGS

With the hunting season beginning to roll around, now is the time to enroll in one of the local hunter-safety course classes offered in the county. The Hunter-Safety Program has been a success. Hunting casualties totaled 70 in 1971, including 10 fatalities.

This is below the 16-year average of 101 casualties, which has fluctuated from a former low of 79 to a high of 132. The number of fatalities is also below the 16-year average of approximately 19 per year. How did some of these accidents happen?

A 16-year-old boy in a duck hunting area shot at a sparrow with a .22 rifle. The bullet struck a duck hunter, 150 yards away, in the back.

A double-barrel shotgun discharged when a boy, 12, loaded and closed the action near his home. The shot penetrated the house wall and wounded his father in both legs.

Shooter, 15, stalking ducks, fired his shotgun into decoys thinking they were ducks and wounded a duck hunter in a blind near the decoys.

Shooter, 19, shot at a rabbit with a .22 rifle. The bullet ricocheted off a rock and wounded his brother, who was hunting to the right and a little ahead of the shooter.

HUNTER, 16, fatally wounded himself when he fired his faulty 12-gauge shotgun. The shotgun was held together with tape and the safety was faulty. A test of the firearm revealed it would discharge when jarred or dropped.

Shooter, 22, returning from hunting, sat down on the seat of his automobile without unloading his rifle, leaving the door open. His rifle, pointed downward at the auto door, discharged. The bullet passed through the door of the vehicle, striking the roadway, and a fragment of the bullet wounded his companion.

Quail hunter, 72, shot both a quail and his hunting companion in brush when the companion strayed from the prearranged hunt plan.

DEER HUNTER, 27, jumped off a tree stump while carrying a lever-action rifle with exposed hammer on full cock and finger on the trigger. The jar of jumping to the ground caused the hunter to pull the trigger of the loaded rifle, shooting his companion through both legs.

Shooter, 20, a passenger in a pickup truck, had his loaded rifle leaning on the seat between himself and the driver with the barrel pointed upward. As the pickup went over a bump the shooter reached for his rifle, which discharged and seriously wounded a hunter standing in the rear of the pickup leaning over the cab.

Victim, 12, holding his shotgun by the barrel, handed it to his companion, 12. As the companion reached for the stock of the shotgun it discharged, fatally wounding the boy holding the shotgun by the barrel.

Duck hunter, 13, after shooting a duck, leaned his loaded shotgun against some tules. As he went to retrieve the duck, his dog knocked the shotgun off the insecure rest; the gun discharged and wounded the hunter.

DUCK HUNTER, 78, fatally wounded himself when his loaded shotgun discharged as he stumbled and fell on rough, muddy footing.

Rabbit hunter, 25, was killed when his hunting partner, 31, shot in his direction just to "scare" him. The shooter has been charged with manslaughter.

Rabbit hunter, 19, riding in an automobile with a loaded shotgun between the driver and himself, was fatally wounded as he started to step out of the automobile while taking his loaded shotgun out with the muzzle pointed toward himself.

League Wins Tough To Get For Orioles

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The Baltimore Orioles may have easily won the 1971 American League pennant, but they are finding 1972 a bit more trying.

The Orioles, like the Detroit Tigers who lead the Maryland nine by a game in the American League Eastern Division, have found winning difficult, particularly on the West Coast.

The Orioles lost 4-3 to the California Angels, while the Tigers bowed 7-4 to Oakland.

In other American League games, the Boston trounced Texas 12-0, while Cleveland and Minnesota were rained out.

Lee Stanton, who had been hitless in his 20 previous at-bats, tripled home two runs in the sixth inning and scored the winning run on a single by Leo Cardenas as California overcame a 3-0 deficit against Baltimore. Bob Grich hit a two-run homer for the Orioles.

Reggie Smith hit two home runs and Rico Petrolcelli and Danny Cater had one each for the Red Sox, who coasted to victory behind the three-hit pitching of Sonny Siebert. Ted Kubiak collected two of the Texas hits.

Epidendio shot 189-179-209-170 in her four games and is averaging 178 for the tournament with 2,861 total pins.

Heavyweight Clark In Sacramento Fight

STRE-T-C-H — Detroit second baseman Dick McAuliffe extended his right foot to keep from over running first base as Oakland first baseman Mike Epstein (5) stretched to take a tardy toss in an unsuccessful third inning triple play try at the Oakland Coliseum last night. The play began when Detroit center fielder Jim Northrup lined out to Oakland second baseman Larry Brown. Brown whipped the ball to shortstop Bert Campaneris to double up Detroit pitcher Joe Niekro at second. Campaneris then fired the ball to Epstein, seeking to beat McAuliffe back to first, but McAuliffe returned safely. Oakland won, 7-4.

pleased" with the ruling.

"I haven't had a chance to review the full opinion, but in my 47 years of experience in professional baseball, I never felt the terms of the uniform players' contract or the assignment of my contract detracted from my human dignity," said Cronin, a Hall of Fame shortstop.

"The reserve clause preserves the absolute integrity of the game, equalizes the competition and gives each club the opportunity to promote its very expensive player development program."

Calvin Griffith, owner of the Minnesota Twins, and Bob Short, owner of the Texas Rangers, also expressed their satisfaction.

"Of course we're delighted with the verdict," said Griffith, and Short said he was "overjoyed for baseball, not that Flood lost."

Marvin Miller,Executive Director of the Major League Players' Association, called upon Congress to step into the matter.

"Like all other pro sports under the safeguard of the anti-trust laws, the present state of the law is an 'aberration' that should be corrected by the Congress," Miller said. "We feel confident that the Congress will accept the court's clear indication to act in this matter and we will be cooperating fully with the Congress to achieve that result."

singer would have had to stop at third, but umpire John Kibler ruled the ball was in play, and Kessicger rounded second as left fielder Bernie Williams ran the ball down.

Williams threw to the cut off man, shortstop Chris Speier, who threw for the plate as Kessinger raced home. The throw was right there. Catcher Dave Rader reached for the ball and spun around to tag Kessinger, but the Cub runner had slid around the backside of the plate a split-second before Rader tagged him, and it was all over.

Cub manager Leo Durocher said that subsequent television instant replay "showed it clearly. The ball hit the home run net and bounced back."

The Cubs installed a net in front of the wall a few years back after some youngsters had fallen off the wall and broken their legs. "There's no way a fan can touch the ball if it's in play," said Durocher. "He'd have to reach across the wall first and the net is four feet wide. The only way a fan can reach the ball is when it's in the net."

The Giants will get another chance today when Juan Marichal (2-10) goes up against Chicago's Burt Hooton (6-4).

As nearly 30,000 watched, Epstein bombed a homer behind a Sal Bando single and then a solo shot off starter Joe Niekro. But Detroit fought back with three off John Odom with Norm Cash's 13th round tripper leading the way. Bob Locker finally quelled a Tiger rally in the eighth.

In the bottom of the eighth, the A's got singles from Joe Rudi, Reggie Jackson and Bando off loser Chuck Seelbach.

Fred Scherman replaced Seelbach and Epstein sweated out the key walk. Dave Duncan also walked and Scherman was yanked for Phil Meeler, who tossed a wild pitch to score Bando. George Hendrick's sacrifice fly made it 7-3.

Detroit got one back in the ninth but Locker still got his fourth win in as many decisions and Oakland had its fourth win in a row while Detroit had a four-game win skein snapped.

In tonight' rematch, it will be Jim Hunter (6-3) for the A's and Joe Coleman (8-5) for the Bengals.

Meanwhile, Larry Brown came up with a back problem and was placed on the 15-day disabled list. In April, starting second sacker Dick Green underwent surgery for a slipped disc and won't be back in action until around Sept. 1.

After Brown's injury, Oakland promptly called up utility infielder Tim Cullen from its Iowa farm club, where he was hitting .275.

Cepeda Back With Atlanta

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

ATLANTA — The management and Orlando Cepeda patched up their differences Monday and the hard-hitting first baseman was reinstated by the Atlanta Braves.

The former San Francisco Giant batting .333 despite trouble with a knee, had stalked out in a huff Saturday when he found he wasn't listed in the starting lineup. The club promptly suspended him.

Eddie Robinson, the Braves recently appointed Director of Player Personnel, said he met with Cepeda and Braves Manager Luman Harris Monday and talked over the problems.

"I am pleased to announce that everything has been resolved," Robinson said.

Football

Tennis

LONDON — Stan Smith of the U.S. and Australia's Evonne Goolagong have been made official favorites for the singles titles in the Wimbledon Lawn Tennis Championships which begin Monday.

They head the seeding lists issued today, which contain several unfamiliar names in the absence of contract professionals who are not competing. Smith was runner-up in the men's event last year.

But the major shock is the omission from the men's singles list of the American Clark Graebner. He will have to fight his way through unseeded despite having, by far, the best all-round grass court record of any of the competitors this year.

Golf

CHICAGO — Twenty golfers earned the right Monday to challenge defending champion Bruce Crampton and other "name" golfers in the $150,000 Western Open which starts Thursday.

Among the qualifiers was Joel Hirsch, an amateur who shot a sparkling 68 over the Rolling Greens Country Club, a course considered similar to the acreage at Sunset Ridge Country Club where the open is to be played through Sunday.

General

WASHINGTON — Howard Cosell says Congress should establish a federal commission to regulate sports with its first job a probe into the high price of tickets.

Cosell, a sports commentator for the American Broadcasting Co., also suggested Monday in an appearance before the Senate Commerce Committee that there be no TV blackouts of major sporting events.

DiMaggio Play Opens Tomorrow

When Dan Abballo went to Redwood, did he take his secret pennant-winning formula with him?

That is the question in the minds of Marin County's Joe DiMaggio League players as they prepare to open their 1972 season with a schedule of four games tomorrow evening.

Abballo coached Drake to South Division championships the past two seasons, but this year moved over to Redwood (sponsored by the Italian Athletic Club). He will have a good nucleus to work with, since most Joe DiMaggio players are the same ones who played high school ball the month before, and Redwood was the Marin County Ahletic League champion.

San Rafael (Holiday Magic) also has a fine history behind it, with two straight North Division titles under coach Dan Maglione.

Somebody's parsonal dynasty must end this year, however.

The league is down to only eight teams and no longer can qualify both its divisional champions for post-season play.

The North-South division will remain, but the two champions will play off at the season's end to determine the representative to the state playoffs. Last year, both divisional winners qualified, but both were eliminated in regional play.

The four teams in the North are San Rafael, Terra Linda (Bank of Marin), Novato (Annex Motors) and San Marin (Villa Builders).

In the South, there is Redwood, Marin Catholic (Toby's Truckers) and Tamalpais, who is supported by an as yet unannounced sponsor.

San Anselmo-Fairfax (formerly Drake) will field a team funded by "independent sources that do not wish to be named" according to coach Dick Creighton.

The 14-game season will run through Aug. 9, and the playoffs will follow.

N.L. ROUNDUP

Pirate Explosion Rips Dodgers, 13-3

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

National League pitchers who are already shell-shocked by the rat-tat-tat attack of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates haven't experienced anything yet if four-time batting champion Roberto Clemente is right about himself.

Clemente went into Monday night's game with the Los Angeles Dodgers with a .318 season average but a feeling that he hadn't yet hit his stride. He felt considerably better after hitting a homer, driving in three runs and setting a club career RBI record in the Pirates' 13-3 triumph.

"For the first time this season I felt really aggressive at the plate," said Clemente after raising his average to .325, and helping the Pirates move back into first place in the National League's Eastern Division.

Manager Bill Virdon's comment probably came closer to reflecting the feelings of the 15,430 fans at Three Rivers Stadium and the national TV audience.

"I don't think there's another 37-year old around who can do the things Roberto can do on a ball field," said Virdon. "To me, it's just impossible."

Al Oliver also drove in three runs for the Pirates who kayoed Don Sutton in 5 2-3 innings and made it easy for Dock Ellis to pick up his sixth victory of the year with relief help from Bob Miller.

Larry Dierker's one-hitter enabled the Houston Astros to beat the New York Mets, 3-0, the Chicago Cubs downed the San Francisco Giants, 7-6, and the Montreal Expos defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 2-0, in other National League games. San Diego at St. Louis and Philadelphia at Atlanta were rained out.

Doubles by Dave Cash, Clemente and Manny Sanguillen and a triple by Oliver produced three runs and a 5-1 Pittsburgh lead in the fifth inning. Clemente's RBI tied him with Pie Traynor for the club career mark of 1,273 and he set a new mark when he homered in the eighth.

Clemente explained after the game that he didn't tip his cap to acknowledge the cheers of the crowd out of respect for Traynor, who died recently. The game was seen on TV in Clemente's native Puerto Rico where he is a hero on the level of Willie Mays and Hank Aaron.

Dierker allowed only a single by Duffy Dyer in the third inning as he turned in the second straight one-hitter by a Houston pitcher. Jerry Reuss also pitched a one-hitter on Sunday and Houston pitchers have allowed only two hits in their last 19 innings.

Cesar Cedeno's double, a walk and singles by Lee May and Tommy Helms gave the Astros two runs in the seventh and May singled home the third run in the eighth.

All-Female Staff Will Advise Male Customers In A New Shop

A men's fashion store, where an all-female staff will advise the male customer on what looks best on him, will open July 1 at Lark Creek Shoppes near Lark Creek Inn, Larkspur.

To be called Far Out West, it will open at 250 Magnolia Avenue, formerly occupied by Chelsea Handcrafts, which closed last week.

Owners of Far Out West are Janet Silva of Larkspur and Mary Jane Feiner of San Francisco, the energetic young women who started The Little Lark women's shop there about a year ago.

Far Out West will carry contemporary classic clothes, nothing as informal as jeans or as stuffy as suits, but everything in between — sports coats, knit pants, dress shirts, printed shirts and ties. Sports coats and pants will all be coordinated, with an eye to colors and fabrics that appeal to women.

"We will sell only what we like our men to wear," said Miss Feiner. She has had four years experience with Koret of California and a year with Levi-Strauss in San Francisco. She noted that old ideas on men's clothes began to change about eight years ago, with increasing use of colors and fabrics previously monopolized by women.

"We thought we'd incorporate this new trend into action, have an all-female staff and give your male customers positive ideas on what we like to see them wear," said Miss Feiner.

Store hours will be 11:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. six days a week. Later on, the girls plan to have fashion shows at the adjoining Lark Creek Inn, and keep the store open about one or two evenings a week to coordinate with the fashion shows.

LARK CREEK SHOPPES still has space for a fine antique store. Skip Sommer, manager of the property, said 800 square feet are available between the new Far Out West and the Aragorn Art Gallery. Interested parties can reach Sommer at Lark Creek Inn.

W. KENNETH DAVIS of San Rafael, a vice president in Bechtel Corporalion's Power and Industrial Division, has been elected to a three-year term on the Council of the National Academy of Engineering.

The academy is an honorary organization whose members are elected in recognition of important contributions to engineering theory and practice.

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I would appreciate your views on Aileen, Inc. (NYSE). What are prospects for this year and next? S.C. & M.N.

A. A drop in earnings and revenues has been reported by this dress manufacturer for the last two quarters. Dyed yarn, which was in short supply, was the major factor in production cutbacks during November and February quarters. This situation is expected to carry over into the May period as well. With backlog and incoming orders at record levels, the production line down-time has been particularly difficult for the company. However, a solution is in sight as in-house dying capacity will be increased sharply by the August quarter when a 400,000 sq. ft. plant addition is scheduled to be completed.

In spite of the vagaries of the world of fashion and the excessive competition in the industry, Aileen has an unusually good earnings growth record. A 15 per cent compound average annual growth rate was achieved in the five years through 1971. Shares should be held for their strong recovery potential.

Q. When cash is paid for a fractional share balance in a stock dividend, what is the payment based on? Is it net worth, market value or an arbitrary figure chosen by the company? — H.D.

A. The fractional shares due in cash are paid on the basis of the market value for the stock on its ex-dividend date.

Q. What are the advantages of a mutual bond fund over a stock fund? Are there any no-load bond funds? — R.S.

A. These two types of funds serve the needs of different types of investors. The former offering above-average income coupled with capital protection and the latter, capital appreciation potential plus a more modest income return. To my knowledge there are no bond funds sold without a load fee. These fees, however, range from 1½ per cent to 8½ per cent. I have prepared a list of recommended income funds including bond funds which might be of interest to you. Please send a stamped self-addressed envelope to Roger Spear, San Rafael Independent-Journal.

Airlines Aid Opening Stock Bids

NEW YORK (UPI)—With a boost from airlines issues, the stock market moved slightly higher during the first two hours Tuesday., Trading was moderately active.

Advances led declines, 680 to 464, among the 1,529 issues crossing the tape. The two-hour turnover amounted to more than 5,750,000 shares.

Analysts said investors have found some issues attractive following recent declines. Airlines apparently received some impetus from an analyst who discussed them, generally in favorable terms, in a Wall Street Journal article.

How Big Is Your Life Insurance Protection Gap?

Higher prices, higher incomes and higher standards of living have created a fast-widening life insurance protection gap. So much so that if you haven't increased your life insurance in the past year your family is probably under-protected today.

Back in 1950, financial experts recommended that a family man should carry life insurance equal to 2½ times his yearly income. In 1960 they recommended moving up to 3 times income. Today, the experts say your family should now be protected with "life insurance amounting to 5 times your annual income as an absolute minimum."

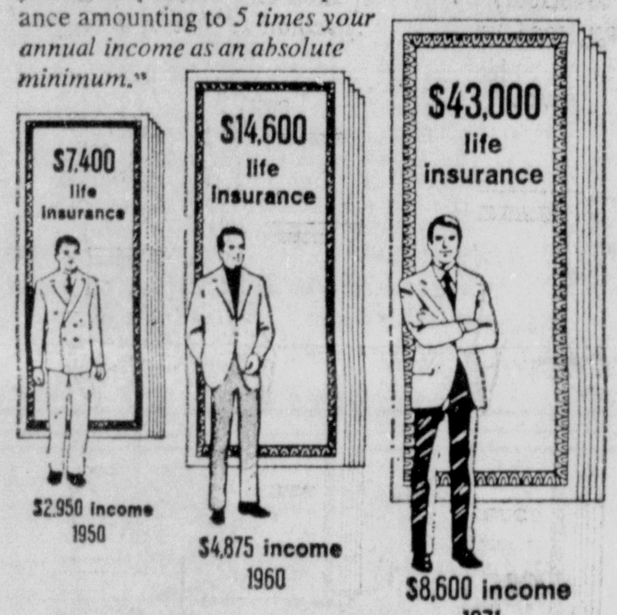

Figure it out for yourself: Add up all your life insurance; then figure your large debts (mortgage, car, etc.). You'll probably be shocked to learn that even "5 times" won't leave your family very much for necessities of life and your children's education. You'll surely see the need for at least $10,000 more protection.

Now Everyone Can Afford $10,000 Extra Protection At These Low Direct Rates

If you're an employer — Chances are you don't carry enough personal life insurance. This plan gives you your own personal policy that you can keep no matter how often you change jobs — an extra $10,000 life insurance over and above any of your company or union benefits — at low direct-from-the-company rates.

If you're an executive — Because your family is used to a high standard of living, the insurance that may have been adequate only a few years ago just isn't enough today. (IRS regulations limit the amount of tax free insurance your company can provide for you.) But now you can easily add an extra $10,000 protection at these low direct-from-the-company rates.

If you're self-employed — You have to provide your own "company benefits" at your own expense. As a business proprietor or a professional practitioner, here for the first time is your opportunity to take advantage of company-type benefits and still get an individual policy. Give yourself an extra $10,000 protection at these low direct-from-the-company rates.

Annual Renewable and Convertible Term to Age 65 Policy PLC-39 with One Month Initial Term Insurance Rider R-39

The face value of this term policy does not decrease as you grow older. It remains level to age 65 for you and your covered wife, and to age 18 for your covered children. Premiums increase as your age increases each year as shown above. Level premium, cash value policies available under policy conversion privilege.

You Can Change To Another Kind Of Policy Later Children Get A Special Conversion Privilege

If you wish, you can convert your term policy to any kind of cash value policy — ordinary, 20-pay, endowment, etc. — any time within 5 years. (This conversion privilege reduces one year for each year you are over age 50 at issue date.) Regardless of your age or health you can convert your full $10,000, your wife her full $5,000, without any qualification whatsoever.

Special $10,000 Conversion Privilege For Your Children: Each of your children at age 18 can automatically convert to a $10,000 cash value policy, without any qualifications at all. This is truly a wonderful future advantage for your children, because it gives the highest value and lowest cost at the earliest adult age!

Full Protection

Extra Security

No matter how often you change jobs or how poor your health may become—we guarantee, right up to age 65, that we cannot refuse to renew your policy unless we refuse renewal on all policies of this form (PLC-39) in your entire state. And, while the rate increases as you grow older as shown in the rate chart above, no other changes can be made in your year-to-year rates unless rates are revised on this form throughout your state. You, of course, may drop your policy any time, for any reason.

You Get These Lower Direct Rates Without Sacrificing Benefits

Not one benefit has been cut out or reduced. The only things we've cut down are our costs of doing business.

By enrolling thousands of people at one time, without using salesmen, we've cut "sales costs" one of the largest single items of expense in life insurance. Secondly, by using the "quick-issuance system" and eliminating expensive examinations, we've cut "issue costs." And finally, because we only insure people in normal, everyday good health, we've been able to cut our rates down even more.

For us, it amounts to higher volume at a lower cost. For you it adds up to maximum benefits at minimum rates.

Direct Personal Service Everywhere Phone "Collect" Any Time

Our biggest "plus" is ... DIRECT PERSONAL SERVICE! From our Direct Personal Service Center in Santa Monica, California we serve our many thousands of Direct-Rate policyowners all across America quickly and equally.

Friendly personal service counsellors — expertly trained to help you on any question about your policy — can be called any time from anywhere in the U.S. With your policy you'll receive a special "collect call" number. Whenever you call you'll be greeted by your personal service counsellor who will be ready to give you all the information you need.

Choose the Plan That Suits You Best

FAMILY PLAN
$10,000 for you
$5,000 for your wife
$1,000 for each child

If you have a young growing family, we recommend the Family Plan. You and your wife and all your eligible children — including future additions — are included under one low monthly direct rate. Example: At age 35 your rate is $3.20 + $1.40 for your wife (50% of the $2.80 rate shown for your wife's age of 32) + 32c for your children (10% of your premium) = $4.92 basic monthly rate for your entire family.

INDIVIDUAL ADULT PLAN
$10,000 for you

If you're a bachelor, career women, college student, veteran just out of service, or if you're a family man or woman and just wish to insure yourself — choose the Individual Adult Plan. You can cover yourself for very little money. Example: At age 35 your basic monthly rate is $3.20.

HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN
$10,000 for you
$5,000 for your wife

If you haven't started your family yet, or if your children are grown — you'll want the Husband-Wife Plan. You and your wife will be covered under one low direct rate. Example: At age 35 your rate is $3.20 + $1.40 for your wife (50% of the $2.80 rate shown for your wife's age of 32) = $4.60 basic monthly rate for you and your wife.

ONE-PARENT PLAN
$10,000 for you
$1,000 for each child

If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the One-Parent Plan. You and all your eligible children will be covered under one low monthly direct rate. Example: At age 35 your rate is $3.20 + 32c for your children (10% of your rate) = $3.52 basic monthly rate for you and all your eligible children.

Regardless of your plan, you may pay any way you choose — monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually. A modest 30c service charge is added to payments other than annual.

A Quick Review of the Direct-Rate Life Insurance Plan

14 IMPORTANT QUESTIONS ANSWERED

1. Why do I need more life insurance now?

Because everything is higher today. The experts say you need insurance equal to "5 times your annual income as an absolute minimum." Add up your life policies, you'll quickly discover that you don't have "5 times," and will need at least $10,000 more.

2. How can I afford $10,000 more?

Enroll for $10,000 during this enrollment period at low monthly direct rates you can easily afford. (Example: age 35, $3.20 is your basic monthly rate. Rates increase each year according to rate chart above.)

3. Can I add $5,000 for my wife? My children for $1,000 each?

Yes. Three combinations are available. Family, includes you for $10,000, your wife for $5,000, your children for $1,000 each. Husband-Wife, includes you for $10,000, your wife for $5,000. One-Parent, includes you for $10,000, your children for $1,000 each. The rate chart above shows how you can protect your whole family for very little money.

4. How can you offer such low rates?

By enrolling thousands of people at one time, without using salesmen, we've cut "sales costs"—one of the largest single items of expense. Secondly, by using the "quick-issuance system" and eliminating expensive examinations, we've cut "issue costs." And finally, by insuring only people in normal, everyday good health, we've actually cut down our rates even more!

5. Will I get service when I need it?

Absolutely. Policyowners across America are served quickly and equally. With your policy, you'll get a "special number" to call "collect" from anywhere in the U.S. and talk with a service counsellor on any question you have.

6. Can I change my policy later on?

Yes. You can convert your term policy to any kind of $10,000 cash value life policy without qualifications. You may convert any time within five years if you are under 50 at issue date — one year less for each year over 50.

7. Can my wife and children convert, too?

Your wife can convert to a $5,000 cash value policy and each of your children at age 18 automatically qualifies for a $10,000 cash value policy.

8. How quickly are beneficiaries paid?

Immediately. The full amount is paid as soon as a claim is received and verified by us. If your wife or children are also insured, you are their beneficiary. You may change your beneficiary at any time.

9. Can I drop my policy? Can you drop me?

You can drop your policy at any time. We guarantee right up to age 65, that we cannot decline renewals or change your year-to-year rates shown in the rate chart above unless we do so on all policies (Policy PLC-39) in your entire state.

10. Is Pennsylvania Life licensed in my state?

Yes. Pennsylvania Life Insurance Company, founded in 1890, is licensed and regulated by 49 states, D.C. and Canada. We are a legal reserve company with hundreds of millions of dollars in force.

11. How is Pennsylvania Life rated?

"Very Favorable" by Best's, the Nation's leading authority on insurance companies. And Dunne's, another leading authority, has given us its highest policyholder's rating, "A Plus (Excellent)."

12. How can I enroll quickly and easily?

Just fill in the short form at the right. Select the plan that suits your needs: Family, Husband-Wife, One-Parent, Individual Adult. Enrollment age limits: 18-55 for you and your wife; 30 days to 18 years for your children. If you're in normal, everyday good health and in a non-hazardous occupation, you should qualify. Simply mail your Special Short-Form Application by midnight of the date on the form. On the "quick-issuance system" there's no red tape and no one will call on you.

13. Can I change my mind?

Of course. If for any reason whatsoever you change your mind, just return your policy within 10 days. There's no obligation.

14. Why should I enroll now?

Because your rate will never be lower than it is right now. Also, since conditions of health change without warning and could affect your qualifications, you should mail your application today! ..
